

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. May 30.—In St. Matthew's Church, Wheeling, assisted Bishops Bedell, Kerfoot, Dudley and Jaggar in the consecration of Rev. George W. Peterkin, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of West Virginia.

Bishop's Report.

In explanation of this sad and most deplorable case, I append the following official document:

The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, assembled under Title I., Canon 15, § XVI. [3] of the Digest, and holding sessions in Grace Chapel, New York City, September 2d and 3d, A. D. 1878, have instructed the undersigned to set forth and publish to the Church their action deposing Samuel Allen McCoskry from the Holy Ministry, and the sentence of deposition pronounced in said Chapel on the 3d day of September, A. D. 1878, as follows, to wit:

Whereas, The Right Rev. Samuel Allen McCoskry, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, has, in a communication under his own proper hand, bearing date May 25th, 1878, declared that he does resign and relinquish his office as a Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and has requested that this resignation and relinquishment may be acted upon by the Bishops of said Church "at the earliest convenient season," "upon such manner and length of notice as may be thought best by the Presiding Bishop;" and, whereas, the said Bishop has abandoned his Diocese and left the territory of the United States while grave allegations touching his moral character existed, thereby declining to promote any investigation of the allegations aforesaid; and, whereas, no action of the said Bishops in the premises, which action he has himself invoked, can make effective his voluntary resignation, relinquishment and abandonment of his said office, except by his deposition from the same;

And, whereas, At a meeting of a majority of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States exercising jurisdiction in the same, convened in the city of New York, September 3d, 1878, the following resolution was unanimously adopted, to wit:

Resolved, That the said Samuel Allen McCoskry is hereby deposed from the sacred ministry and from all the offices thereof, and that the Presiding Bishop is hereby requested and authorized to pronounce and record sentence of deposition, and to give due notice thereof;

Now, therefore, Be it known that on this third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, I, Benjamin Bosworth Smith, D. D., by Divine permission Bishop of the Diocese of Kentucky, and Presiding Bishop of the

Bishop's Report.

Taking as a basis of judgment the foregoing statement, together with the parochial reports and those to be presented, as usual, by the officers of our different educational and benevolent institutions, I think we may conclude that the diocese is in an encouraging condition. The fields are everywhere white to the harvest, but the laborers to reap them are entirely inadequate. With seventeen clergymen added to our list during the past year, we still have a net increase of but two,—three having died and twelve removed. In no diocese of our church, in proportion to the number of communicants, is there annually so large a number of ordinations, and yet, year after year, the number of our ministers remains very much the same, our mission seeming to be, to raise up, educate and commission men to preach the gospel, and then see them leave our own borders and go forth into other fields. And this state of things can never be improved until better provision is made for the support of the parochial clergy and our missionary treasury is more liberally supplied with funds.

I am glad to be able to report a small increase in the number of colored persons confirmed. This portion of our population is becoming more and more accessible to the teaching and influence of our church and the time has arrived, it appears to me, when every minister who believes that they are included in the Saviour's redeeming work should believe also that they are included in the commission which commands him to preach the gospel to every creature. It will be seen from the parochial reports that quite a number of the brethren of the clergy and of the laity are laboring amongst the colored people, and, when all things are considered, with as much encouragement and success as they have any right to expect, but as yet we have only made a beginning in the great field which God has opened everywhere around us.

In Petersburg, Pa., Mr. Chadwick's work is constantly enlarging, and he deserves all the sympathy and needs all the pecuniary assistance that can possibly be given him. In Brunswick county a devoted lady, by simply manifesting the spirit and following the example of the blessed Saviour, has so gained the confidence of the colored people that, by means of her influence, an organized body, composed of a number of preachers and of several thousand members, has asked to be received into communion with our church. Last summer the Rev. Dr. Dashiell was sent by the executive missionary committee to confer with these people, and more recently the Rev. Drs. Dashiell and Weddell were appointed for the same purpose. I give their interesting report in full.

The undersigned appointed to act as a committee of conference with the ministers of Zion Union (colored) organization would respectfully submit this report:

We were notified that the ministers and members of this religious body were seeking to be taken into the care of our church, and they desired to meet your committee on Wednesday, April 30, 1879.

The place appointed for the conference was the "chapel of the Good Shepherd," about two miles from Lawrenceville in the county of Brunswick.

We left Petersburg together on Tuesday, April 29, and reached the houses of friends, by whom we were entertained, in the evening, of that day.

We went to the place of meeting at half-past ten o'clock Wednesday morning. There were upon the ground in waiting for us, fifteen of the ministers and a thousand or twelve hundred from their various congregations. It was arranged that the chairman of this committee should meet in conference with the ministers and with as many of the Zion Union laity as the chapel could accommodate, while his colleague would preach to the crowd outside. At their religious exercises the congregation used the "Third service."

After the sermon and benediction both of us participated in the conference, which closed at about one o'clock P. M.

The result of the conference was that by an unanimous vote the organization puts itself into the care of the Protestant Episcopal Church, giving their assent to our doctrine, discipline and worship.

In submitting this brief statement of facts we feel it our duty to add some remarks.

Bishop's Report.

In seeking this union with our church, this society of colored people are not under the influence of the ideas and convictions which usually bring other denominations into our fold.

It ought to be understood by all our diocese, and especially by friends in the North, that these ministers and their congregations desire to be with us—not because of any change in their opinions as to Episcopacy, not because they have any trouble in their minds concerning the validity of their orders. Upon these subjects their minds are not at all exercised at present. They have been led to desire such an union for reasons which in our judgment are more to the glory of God and to the credit of our church.

In their poverty and friendlessness, along with their yearning for a better condition, these people have been helped by our church through one of its female communicants. Through her they have gotten to some extent education for their children—care for their sick and their aged—religious books, such as Bibles, Prayer Books and Catechisms, for their Sunday schools, and commentaries for their ministers. They have learned something as to the theory of the church from books and papers, but they have formed their opinions rather from the kindness that has been shown. They have said just about this—"We wish to go with you for we believe the Lord is with you."

As your committee we will briefly express our belief that with proper care we can reach and impress a very large colored population, and that we can rely upon many of them to be grateful and loyal children of our ecclesiastical household.

We were deeply affected by our interviews with them. They appreciate the situation. They have been praying for help—the help has seemed to come—they want to go hand in hand with the people who have shown for them the feeling of brethren. The responsibility now upon our church we think is a most serious one. It may be a crisis with these negroes; it is a crisis with us.

We recommend that effort be made by this executive committee to procure a suitable clergyman who shall work amongst their congregations as an evangelist. He would find ample work in a field which, in our judgment, has nowhere else an equal in the number and in the teachable spirit of those to whom he would minister.

T. G. DASHIELL,
A. W. WEDDELL.

Bishop's Report.

I commend Mrs. Buford and her interesting and important work to the sympathy and prayers of the Diocese, and I unite with her in thanking the many kind friends at the North who have aided her by contributions of money, books, clothing and other things. As the committee say in their report just read, this is a crisis with our church. May God give us wisdom to see and realize our responsibility, and grace to enable us to discharge it.

I never record the death of one of my dear clerical brethren without wishing I could induce the laity to take an interest in the Brotherhood. It is a simple organization, composed of persons who bind themselves, on the death of a minister, to contribute two dollars each for the benefit of his bereaved and generally penniless family. I know of no charity which equals it. Thus, if the Brotherhood has one thousand members, each member has to pay but two dollars to insure to the family of the deceased the sum of two thousand dollars. If there are three thousand members, then the family would receive six thousand dollars, and so on. I ask, where in the world can I, by giving two dollars, accomplish such an amount of good? I am sure that if my dear brethren of the laity would think about the matter, very many of them would send their names to the secretary to be enrolled as members of the Brotherhood.

I beg leave to call attention to a recently founded and admirable institution, a notice of which may be found on the cover of the Journal of the last Council, viz: the Protestant Episcopal Church Home, No. 517 north Fourth street, Richmond, Va. Its object is "to provide a 'home' for female members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who, having seen better days, are now in reduced circumstances, and unable to provide for themselves an adequate support." Its charter authorizes the board of corporators to add a home for male members of the church, and also an infirmary or hospital for the sick, which they purpose to do so soon as the necessary funds can be secured. It is not a local but a State institution, and therefore may claim the help of our church people throughout the Diocese. Contributions to defray its current expenses, or to be applied to the permanent endowment fund, will be gratefully received by any member of the board of lady managers.

The Rev. J. J. Norwood has continued his faithful work as an evangelist during the past year. A report from him of his abundant labors will be published in the Journal of the Council. I very much regret that I have not been able to procure the services of another suitable man to be associated with him. At least two ministers might be kept constantly and profitably employed in this good work. My account with the evangelist fund is herewith submitted, from which it appears that there has been expended $904, leaving in my hands a balance of $1,266. I respectfully ask that the account be referred to an auditing committee.

The revision of the Canons, and other work before you, will probably consume all your time, and I therefore refrain from mentioning several important subjects to which I desired to request your attention. There is one matter, however, which I very deeply regret to be compelled to submit for your consideration and action, and which I must dwell upon at some length, that you may fully understand it.

My venerable predecessor in his annual address ten years ago, proposed for the grave consideration of the Council which sat in this place, "the excessive ritualistic innovations which have annoyed the sober-minded and conservative portion of the church in England and our own country;" and after explaining that it is not ritualism as such, that offends and alarms, for all are ritualists, but the question with us is one of degree; he proceeded in these words:—"But if, as we have stated, the agitating question is simply one of degree, how is the proper graduation to be settled? The authoritative rule is found in the Book of Common Prayer as ratified by the General Convention, and what has been the general usage under that directory. To any ritualism so recognized and sanctioned no one may justly object, but beyond the license thus indicated, begins excess, which, being once outside the legitimate may run riot in any amount of extravagance which the fancy or the folly of the individual affects—such as the use of fading flowers cut off from their root to symbolize a resurrection to life—groups of variegatedly vested and artistically attitudinizing priests, to observe the sacrament instituted with so much simplicity in the upper chamber in Jerusalem—pictorial representations of the scenes and scriptural images of the Saints of Scripture—dramatic exhibitions of the affecting events of Passion Week—even their consummation at Calvary—anything and everything which sentimentalism or superstition may crave to gratify its morbid appetite. Thus churches are changed into exhibition halls, the people lose their spirituality in sight seeing, and become mere gazers instead of godly worshippers. So it has been, as the history of the church sadly testifies. The tendencies are still the same. The proclivity of the natural heart is to externalism in religion. So, therefore, it will be again, if legal limits are disregarded, and every one is left to introduce such innovations as are pleasing to himself."

This part of the Bishop's Address was referred to a committee, consisting of seven clergymen and six laymen, who reported three resolutions, which were unanimously adopted by the Council. The second of these resolutions was as follows: "That in view of these 'novelties which disturb' the peace of the church and wound the consciences of so many of both the clergy and laity, and of the difficulty of arresting innovations originating from small beginnings in ornaments, decorations, or otherwise, and of returning to the simplicity of worship after the same has been departed from, it be earnestly recommended to the clergy, church wardens and vestries, strenuously to resist the introduction of any changes in the forms and modes of conducting public worship and administering the sacraments as the same were used in the church of England and our own, before the rise of tractarianism and ritualism."

In the month of April, 1877, I was formally and officially appealed to by two members of the vestry of a church in the diocese, to interpose and prevent the introduction into the church of flowers, altar-cloths, &c., which were an offense to some of the people, and were producing dissension and division in the vestry and congregation. What was I to reply to this appeal? That it was none of my business? or that I had no authority to interfere in such matters? I thought it was especially and emphatically my business, that the very nature and purpose of my office made it my duty to interfere in such matters, and that I was solemnly bound by my consecration promises and vows faithfully and fearlessly to perform that duty. I gave my judgment in the premises, which was promptly, and, I believe, cheerfully, acquiesced in by all the parties concerned.

While this case was pending the Council met, in May 1877, and I spoke in my address as follows:

"My predecessor faithfully warned you, my brethren, against the introduction of flowers into our churches, and his warning was reiterated in perhaps more than one report of the committee on the State of the Church. The warning, however, I grieve to say, has, in a number of instances, been disregarded; and this evil, from a small beginning, has in a few years grown to such proportions as on some occasions to involve wasteful and sinful expense, and to make of our Father's house a place for floral exhibition, to please the eye and gratify a sensuous taste, causing some minds, it is to be feared, to 'change the truth of God into a lie, and worship and serve the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever.' One of our prominent Bishops, who claims to have been the first to bring in this strange custom, seeing, when too late, whereunto it has grown, has issued a pastoral against the lamentable fruits of his own doings. And now, in addition to flowers, we begin to see what are called altar cloths, and cloths of different colors for the different church seasons, on some of our reading-desks and pulpits. These things, unimportant in themselves, are parts of a system—a system of doctrine and practice not sanctioned by the Word of God, which was utterly repudiated by our Church at the Reformation, and which is held in abhorrence by a large majority of the ministers and people of this Diocese. These things are a novelty in Virginia, not having been known at a time within the memory of the youngest of us, and are seriously disturbing the peace and unity of some of our congregations. I earnestly and lovingly implore my dear brethren, the ministers and vestries of this Diocese, and, if I have any authority in the premises, I do more than implore them, for the sake of truth and peace, not to introduce themselves, nor allow others to introduce, into our churches the things which I have mentioned, or any like things. Ritualism and Romanism have grown up little by little; and if we would preserve the worship and doctrine of our beloved Church unchanged, we must resist every innovation."

Bishop's Report.

It was "resolved, That the secretary do cause to be printed, at the cost of the contingent fund, five thousand copies, in such form as he may think best, those parts of the Bishop's annual address relating to intemperance and the introduction of worldly practices, customs, decorations and tendencies in the church, for distribution among the communicants of the Church throughout the Diocese as now constituted." The Council was obliged by canon of the General Convention to publish my address in its journal, without making itself at all responsible for its sentiments, and whether it approved those sentiments or did not approve them. But with this it was not satisfied. It selected the portion which I have just read, and ordered five thousand copies of that to be printed separately and circulated amongst the communicants of the Church; thus endorsing and approving the position I had taken and the views I had expressed, and sending them forth as its own message to the churches.

The action of the Council, on the two occasions which I have mentioned, ought, in my judgment, to have been accepted by every loyal minister, vestry, and member of the church as final. And so it was by the large majority of the clergy and laity of the Diocese, no matter what may have been their own private views and wishes. But by some it was understood differently; for in June 1877 complaint was made to me by a member of the vestry of Graee Church, Richmond, of innovations being made in said church of the kind before mentioned, and in regard to which the Council had taken action but a month before. As in duty bound, I sought an interview with the rector, Rev. H. M. Jackson, which, however, in consequence of my other engagements, was not had until December. That interview was mutually cordial and affectionate, and on my part certainly entirely satisfactory. He did not question my authority to interpose in such a case, and when my judgment was pronounced he declared his purpose to be governed by it.

About the same time I addressed to several of my brethren of the clergy (amongst whom were the late Dr. Woodbridge, then rector of the Monumental Church, Richmond, and Rev. Dr. Barter, then and now rector of Christ Church, Norfolk), a communication, of which the following is a copy:

“RICHMOND, 22D DEC., 1877.

REV. AND DEAR BROTHER:

Because I feel that necessity is laid upon me I write you this letter.

I beg to refer you to those paragraphs of my address to our last Council, which you will find on pages 44 and 45 of the printed journal, and which, I learn from a reliable source, you do not understand I meant should have the same weight and authority with my brethren of the clergy which I would have done had I addressed to them the same words in a pastoral letter. In this I wish to say you are mistaken. In saying what I did to the clergy and laity in Council assembled, I adopted what seemed to me the most formal and solemn method of delivering my ‘godly admonition,’ and of declaring my

 Bishop's Report.

'godly judgment' in regard to the matters therein mentioned or referred to. And I would remind you that my action was rendered still more authoritative by the fact, that the Council ordered, with a dissenting voice, five thousand copies of those parts of the address to be printed for distribution among the communicants of the churches throughout the Diocese.

And now let me assure you, my dear brother, that I neither acknowledge nor suspect you of anything which I have condemned in my address. My object is simply to explain my meaning, so that my judgment in regard to the matters about which I have spoken may be clearly understood.

Affect'ly, your friend and brother,

F. M. WHITTLE

In consequence of a slight misunderstanding, the Rev. Mr. Jackson did not comply with my judgment in regard to the innovations in the church until February last, when he called on me and the misunderstanding was removed. This last interview between him and myself led to my asking and obtaining a conference with him and his vestry which was pleasant and satisfactory, and, at their request that I would put my counsel and judgment in writing, I addressed to them a letter a copy of which will be presented hereafter. I wish to add, that it affords me sincere pleasure to be able to make this honorable mention of my dear brother Jackson and his vestry.

The day before the conference just referred to, I wrote a note to Rev. J. G. Armstrong, rector of the Monumental Church, Richmond, respectfully calling his attention to my address of 1877, and to the action of the Council in reference to the same. In a personal interview, a day or two later, I understood him expressly to admit my authority to interpose in such cases as the one under consideration, but he said he hoped that, as no complaint had been made to me from his church, I would not feel bound to take any action in regard to it, and requested, if I did act, that I would address myself to his vestry as the things which I objected to were their property, bought with their money, and he did not know that he had any right to meddle with them. I replied, that all I proposed to say or do at that time, was to ask his attention to my address and the action of the Council. His subsequent reflection, however, convinced me that duty required me to go further. So the next morning I addressed a note to Mr. Armstrong, enclosing to him and his vestry a copy of the letter be-referred to, and at the same time I decided to send a copy to every minister and vestry in the diocese. That letter is as follows:

Bishop's Report.

RICHMOND, VA., 18th February, 1879.

To the Rector and Vestry of — Church, — Parish, — Va.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Circumstances have forced me to the conviction, that duty requires me respectfully to declare to every minister and vestry of the diocese, my "godly admonition" and my "godly judgment" in regard to certain matters, as follows:

The services of the Church should be conducted as prescribed by the Rubrics in the Book of Common Prayer, without adding thereto or subtracting therefrom.

The decoration of the church building at Christmas, being a custom as old as the Church itself in Virginia, may lawfully and properly be continued.

The introduction into the Church of evergreens and flowers at Easter; or of flowers, fruits or vegetables on Thanksgiving Day, or on any other occasion, is a novelty and an innovation in Virginia, and ought not to be done or allowed. The decoration of "the Lord's Table," pulpit and desk with cloths, of one color for some occasions and of another color for other occasions, the different colored cloths being changed according to times and seasons, is a new and strange thing in the Church in Virginia, and ought not to be done or allowed.

These views of the duty of our ministers and vestries were, as I understand, endorsed and approved by resolution of the Council of the Diocese, at its session in 1877, as may be seen on pages 45 and 88 of its journal.

The "Lambeth Conference" of 1878, consisting of one hundred Bishops, nineteen of whom were of our own communion, unanimously adopted the following report: "Considering unhappy disputes on questions of Ritual, whereby divers congregations in the Church of England, and elsewhere, have been seriously disquieted, your committee desire to affirm the principle, that no alteration from long-accustomed ritual should be made contrary to the admonition of the Bishop of the Diocese."

Faithfully and affectionately yours,

FRANCIS M. WHITTLE,
Bishop of the P. E. Church in Virginia.

 Bishop's Report.

I did not expect any reply to this letter. But quite a number of the ministers and vestries of the diocese have written approving my action and thanking me for it, while some others have expressed themselves very differently. I proceed to give extracts from the communications which I have received from the latter. At a meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Church, Norfolk, 6th April, 1879, the rector and seven other members being present, it was unanimously resolved, "that without considering it necessary now to express an opinion upon the policy which dictated it, or to decide the question of the Bishop's right to prescribe or enforce its requirements, as which we say nothing one way or the other, we are of opinion that Christians, in the interest of peace, and having the welfare of the church at heart, that it is wise and best cheerfully to acquiesce in it."

The vestry of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, at a regular meeting April 7th, after unanimously declaring it to be their earnest desire to be enabled at all times promptly and reverently to heed the "godly admonition" and the "godly judgment" of their Bishop when, in the opinion, occasion arises to justify the same, go on to resolve, "that the practice of decorating our church at Easter and on Thanksgiving day, and of otherwise commemorating the different seasons of the ecclesiastical year, so far as the same is distasteful to the Bishop, as indicated in the letter above quoted, be hereafter discontinued." In the second resolution, after declaring that they do not mean to admit that there is anything "sinful, harmful or inappropriate" in the things they agree to discontinue, they add, "on the contrary we maintain that there is good and sufficient ground for the justification of such decorations not only because they are beautiful in themselves, and designed as a humble and heartfelt tribute by a grateful people to the Giver of us and of all good gifts, * * * but in the long and continued usage, as well as in the Church of England, as in a great number of the dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States of America, which we are members." * * * Thirdly they resolve, "that if the practices inhibited are not wrong in essence—and this is virtually admitted when all objection is waived to a continuance of the customary decorations at Christmas—and if they be of such long usage, as that their discontinuance will be regarded by many as "an innovation," inasmuch as it will be a departure from custom, then, in our judgment, they should be regarded as * * * in no sense a departure from the faith or practices of the church, calling for the exercise of the high prerogative of the Bishop's 'godly admonition.'"

In a fourth resolution the Bishop is informed that they have given candid expression to their views, because a failure to do so "might cause our quiet acquiescence to be misunderstood for an acknowledgment of previous wrong-doing, and as a vindication of the Episcopal intervention and censure."

The Rev. O. S. Barten, D. D., rector of Christ Church, Norfolk, wrote me on 16 April, * * * "Under the enclosed resolution, unanimously adopted by the vestry, the use of flowers was discontinued for the present. But I feel it my duty to state distinctly that this was done by me in deference to the wishes of those of my people who, lamenting the harmful effects of your inhibition on the quietness, love and peace which has reigned in the congregation, desired to avoid further complications by either a protest or open opposition to your command. However, I most respectfully desire to state that I reserve to myself, independently of the vestry, THE RIGHT at any time to resume any or all such customs or usages, as may have been temporarily discontinued." The resolution enclosed by Dr. Barten, as passed unanimously by the vestry, April 7th, 1879, is as follows:

Resolved, That we acknowledge the receipt of the Bishop's letter of February 17, 1879, and that while in deference to the reign of peace and love in our congregation we comply with his request, we, however, respectfully express our dissent from, and objection to, any encroachments upon our rights as a vestry, and those of our rector."

I have received from the vestry of Trinity Church, Portsmouth, a long account of their proceedings at a special meeting held 9th April, 1879, which resulted in their adopting the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we have received and considered with profound respect and prayerful care, the circular letter of the Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, Bishop of the Diocese, bearing date on the 18th day of Feb., 1879, addressed to the rector and vestry of this church, and without now considering the question of the respective rights of the Bishop of the Diocese, and of the rector and vestry of this church involved in said circular; and without admitting that the use of flowers in this church, in the manner in which they have been used for many years, is wrong in principle, or is a novelty or innovation as far as this church is concerned; yet deeply sharing with our Bishop in his devotion to our church in Virginia, and being willing to make any sacrifice which does not involve the surrender of principle, for its good, peace and prosperity, we do hereby agree to heed and follow the admonition of said Bishop, set forth in his said letter, excepting and reserving, however, the right and practice of members of the congregation of this church, to place flowers at their pleasure, as they have been want to do, at the memorial windows of our church building, including that erected to the memory of our dear departed rector, the Rev. J. H. Wingfield, D. D."

Bishop's Report.

The proceedings of the vestry of Trinity Church, Portsmouth, were enclosed in a letter from the rector, Rev. Reverdy Estill, in which, after an introductory sentence, he says,—“With the result of that meeting I heartily concur, but I feel in duty bound to make this my further earnest protest. * * * The grounds upon which I base my reverent protest are as follows: First, this direction to the clergy and vestries within your jurisdiction, cannot, I submit, be called, in the understanding of the Church, a ‘godly judgment,’ as the term involves, I submit, the promulgation of a ‘judicial interpretation’ ‘of some known law or statute, either of the general Church,’ or of ‘the diocese,’ for the infringement of which a clergyman is amenable to trial. Furthermore, it is my conviction, formed after considerable research, that it was never the intention of the Church to make such things as ‘flowers’ and the ‘hangings of the church’ (enumerated in your letter) subjects for a bishop’s ‘godly admonition’ or ‘godly judgment.’ Second, with my understanding of the term, a custom of more than twenty years’ duration in this parish, cannot be called an ‘innovation’ Third, the prohibition of flowers in the church upon Easter or other occasions will produce much feeling and strife in this parish, wherein all has been quietness and peace. With the custom relating to the memorial windows, mentioned in the resolution of the vestry, I do not feel called upon, as the rector of the parish, to interfere”

Some time in the month of February, the Rev. J. G. Armstrong, rector of the Monumental Church, Richmond, accompanied by three members of his vestry, called on me and formally presented a document from which I extract as follows:

“The usages and customs which formed the reason for your communication have been in practice in the Monumental Church for many years, and only at those periods of the ecclesiastical year which are recognized in the Book of Common Prayer, chiefly denoting the birth and resurrection of our blessed Lord. * * *

 Bishop's Report.

"Since the death of Dr. Woodbridge, the present rector has not deemed it necessary to make any change in the usages he found had existed for so many years before, and so far as he and the vestry are advised, we are not prepared to admit the authority of the Bishop or the Council of the Church of this Diocese to forbid the practice of the usages and customs under consideration.

"But while we thus express our conviction, and with the most respectful and Christian feeling towards our esteemed Bishop, and the desire to repudiate anything like a refractory spirit, we must conclude our letter by consenting, under solemn protest, to carry out his wishes, as expressed in his letter of the 14th inst., with the additional assurance, that now as heretofore, we have had but a single eye to the glory of God, and the good of our fellow men, in all we have done in his most holy Catholic church."

Accompanying the foregoing was a separate paper from the rector, in which he says: * * * "I desire also to assert, in both my personal and official character, what, as one of the members of the vestry, I have united with that body in asserting; to wit, my dissent from the position involved in your letter that a Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States has the right to legislate upon the questions at issue. Such a right is not in congruity with the governmental economy of this Church. * * *

"And while, according to my vow of ordination to the Priesthood, I have no disposition but 'reverently to obey my Bishop,' and 'to follow with a glad mind and will his godly admonitions, and submit myself to his godly judgment'; I yet submit, if it is not contemplated that the 'admonition' and 'judgment' in order to be binding and legitimately and authoritatively to demand obedience must be within the sphere of canon law? Is not the Bishop, no less than the Priest, under this law? And is not the inspired rule of an inspired apostle of universal application, 'where there is no law there is no transgression?' In conclusion, therefore, I have to say that, in the exercise of the right given me by God, and vindicated all through the ages by that branch of the Holy Catholic Church, in which I have the privilege and honor of possessing ministerial sonship, I do now as a man, and as a minister of Jesus Christ and of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, utter to you, my Bishop, my most respectful, yet most earnest and decided, protest against your authority to forbid as 'not to be allowed,' the customs and usages specified in your official letter to me and my vestry." * * *

 Bishop's Report.

Finally, I have received from the Rev. John S. Lindsay, rector of Hamilton Parish, Warrenton, a letter dated 22d March, 1879, from which I make the following extracts:

"Immediately upon the receipt of your circular letter expressing your godly judgment, and giving your godly admonition as to church decorations, flowers, &c., I wrote to you promising acquiescence in your expressed wishes, as far as I could control the matter, and expressing the belief that the vestry would also consent to change any Parish custom that your letter condemned.

"I find that I reckoned without my host. The vestry met and considered the letter, indicating decided opposition to its requests. I induced them to postpone the matter, as the meeting was not a full one, and gave the letter to a committee to be considered and reported upon. They brought in a report to the regular meeting of the vestry to-day, in which they respectfully decline to change the customs of the Parish, such as dressing the church with flowers at Easter, and changing the book marks and pulpit cloths according to the seasons. * * *

"I regret inexpressibly that they should have taken this ground of non-concurrence in the request of the Bishop. * * * I lament the fact that a Parish over which I preside should allow itself to be put into an attitude of disagreement with the Bishop, and especially a Bishop for whose personal character I have no less respect than I have for his official position. But as the vestry and the Parish seem to be in accord on this question, I feel that I am powerless to act any further, though I was prepared to sacrifice any taste that I might have for the things condemned to the kindly expressed wish of my Bishop that they be dispensed with. I have no knowledge of any law bearing on a case of this kind, but the Canons of common sense would seem to require that I take the position of non-action in the matter."

H. Shepperd, Esq., register, wrote me that he was instructed by the vestry of Hamilton Parish to say, in regard to my circular letter of 18th February, "that after giving it that careful and respectful consideration that is due to any communication from the Bishop of the Diocese, they are constrained to decide that they ought not to change the only two customs in this Parish condemned in your letter, viz: the decoration of the pulpit and reading desk with cloths and book marks 'of one color for some occasions, and of another color for other occasions,' and 'the introduction into the church of evergreens and flowers at Easter, the former having been a custom in this Parish for thirteen years, and the latter for a much longer period."

I had no alternative, my dear brethren—painful as the duty is to myself and humiliating as the performance of it is to our beloved Church—but to lay before you the documents which I have read. I add not a word of comment in regard to their spirit or contents. They speak for themselves, and they show that 'a great crisis has arisen in our diocese, and that an issue has been joined, the result of which must determine the spiritual and Protestant or the worldly and Romish character of our Virginia church for all time. They fully justify me at the bar of my own judgment and my own conscience for doing what I have done, and convince me that the need for my action was ten times more pressing and important than I had supposed.

And now I desire, in the first place, clearly to define the position which I occupy. I do not claim, but utterly disclaim and repudiate the possession of any undefined or undefinable rights and powers as inherent in my office, and as belonging to me in virtue of that office. I do not claim any authority to make or to break laws, but acknowledge myself preëminently bound to be governed by laws divine and human of the Church and of the State, that, as in other respects, so in the matter of submission to the rightly constituted authorities, I may be "a wholesome example and pattern for the flock to follow," over which, in the providence of God, I have been placed as the overseer. I claim no right to introduce any novelties of doctrine or ritual into the church in this diocese to disturb the peace of its members, and I deny any such right to every minister and vestry, and especially to every private member of the same.

On the other hand, I trust I am "ready with all faithful diligence, to banish and drive away from the church all erroneous and strange doctrine contrary to God's word, and both privately and openly to call upon and encourage others to the same," whether the "erroneous and strange doctrine" be taught from the pulpit or the chancel, by word, or by vestments, decorations, signs or symbols,—and in so doing I but "exercise such discipline, as by the authority of God's word, and by the order of this church is committed to me." In a word, if there is any duty imposed upon me by my consecration vows, and which may be demanded of me by the ministers and people of this Diocese, it is my duty to keep out all innovations on our doctrine and worship, and to leave the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, the same glorious church which I found it, unchanged in its teaching, services, practices and ceremonies. This being the duty which I understand my office lays upon me, then I distinctly claim that the church has entrusted to me the power and authority to perform that duty.

In the second place, having been, under God, placed by you in a fearful position of difficulty and anxiety and responsibility, which none can understand but those who have tried it, and in view of which the greatest of the inspired apostles might well exclaim, "who is sufficient for these things?" I think I have the right to look to you, my dear brethren, for sympathy and counsel and assistance. If, in your judgment, I have done wrong, or made a mistake, by wittingly or unwittingly usurping authority in what I have done, I earnestly beg that you will say so. Then I shall understand, that so far as this Council is concerned, I am not expected to be the Bishop or overseer of the churches of this diocese; that on my visitations I am a mere automaton to confirm, ordain, and consecrate buildings; that every minister, vestry, or individual, according to their various views of what is pretty, or appropriate, or edifying, may introduce into our worship whatever services, or ceremonies, or objects they please, converting our houses of prayer into concert halls, exhibition rooms, Romish churches, or heathenish temples; and that it is not my duty, and I have no authority to interpose my "godly admonition" and my "godly judgment" to prevent such innovations. But if, on the other hand, as I do not doubt for one moment is the case, you hold that I have simply performed a plain and imperative duty to God and to you (notwithstanding my action has been protested against, and I myself have been ridiculed and scorned and denounced), then, my dear brethren, I think I have a right most respectfully to demand, that you encourage and help me by such legislation as the case may seem to you to require.

I conclude with the prayer, that in all your doings you may be directed with God's most gracious favor, and furthered with his continual help; that in all your works begun, continued, and ended in Him, you may glorify his holy name; and finally, by his mercy, obtain everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report that the number of the students in the three regular classes during the session is twenty-six. The number in the preparatory department is nineteen. The diligence of the students has been exemplary. The reports of the professors are annexed.

The High School continues to maintain its stand among the best schools of the country.

The friends of the Seminary will be pleased to learn that the branch institution at Petersburg for colored students promises well. The report of Professor Spencer is annexed.

lowing report of the studies pursued under his direction during the current session:

The senior class, with three recitations a week and the Wednesday evening exercise, have studied the articles with Baulthis and Burnet, and have just finished the review with written questions. They are now studying, with written questions and references, a course on Liturgics. Specific exercises in Homiletics, as also in connection with other recitations, have gone on during the whole session.

The middle class, reciting five times a week, has studied Knapp's Theology, which they are now reviewing. One recitation per week has been given by the class to the study of the New Testament in the English version. During this session they have studied the Apocalypse.

To the junior class I have given a weekly recitation in Chadbourne's Natural Theology and in Hopkins' "Outline Man." They are now engaged in reviewing Chadbourne.

It gives me pleasure to report the most commendable diligence and conscientiousness in the class of this session. I have no reports of absence of students without leave.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

To the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Va.:

In the department of Apologetics the instruction of the junior class has been carried on, through the current term, for the greater part of the course, in the form of lectures, in addition to regular class room examinations in the text-book. The course has been completed, on the part of the middle class, by the study of Butler's Analogy of religion, Natural and Revealed, to the Constitution and Course of Nature.

The senior class has received instruction in Church Polity by means of lectures on the Church and ministry, as supplementary to the study of the text-book.

The attendance in the class room, on the part of all the students, has been commendably regular and punctual.

Respectfully,

J. J. McELHINNEY.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

I would respectfully report to the Board of Trustees, that the classes of students of the seminary have pursued the prescribed course of study in my department with the usual measure of success.

The senior class has continued the study of the Hebrew language, and read in the book of Isaiah, sixteen chapters; in Greek, they have read the two epistles to the Corinthians, and are now reviewing them.

The middle class has studied the Prophecies of Christ in the original, and read in addition twenty-three Psalms in the Hebrew. In Greek they have finished the Epistles to the Romans and to the Hebrews.

The junior class has studied the Hebrew Grammar, with written exercises. They have read sixteen chapters in the Bible, and are now reviewing them. In the Greek New Testament, they have studied critically and exegetically the Gospel of St. Matthew. Three times a week essays are read on the most important and difficult subjects in the Gospels.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

To the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia.

The professor of Church History and Canon Law presents the following annual report:

The senior class has studied, with four recitations a week, the History of the Church of England, the History of the American Church, the first book of Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, the Constitution and Canons of the Church, the Pastoral Epistles in Greek, and Meade on the Pastoral Office.

The middle class, with three recitations a week and regular essays, has studied Kurtz's Church History.

The junior class, with four weekly recitations and three essays a week, has studied Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament History, and read the book of the Acts of the Apostles in Greek.

In response to the request of the Board he has made a practice of attending, at least once a month, each class in the preparatory department, except those taught by one of the professors. It affords him great pleasure to state his decided conviction that its present teachers are, in faithfulness, qualifications and efficiency, second to none in our Theological Seminary.

State, and that under their instruction, both the senior and junior preparatory classes have made a marked and constant improvement.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

KINLOCH NELSON.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D., President of the Board of Trustees :

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:—As principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The aggregate number of boys, including eight day-scholars, received during the current session is seventy; the maximum attendance sixty-nine. * * * From the new Society Hall and reading room erected last summer every advantage anticipated has been realized. It is a valuable improvement.

The regular religious exercises of the school on week days have been much as heretofore. Morning service in the chapel consists of a hymn, a lesson, (alternating with the psalter), the Lord's prayer and collect for the day always, the latter being followed by a brief litany two days in the week, and on other days by suitable prayers, including a special one for missions on Thursdays. Evening service at the tea table is simple. The endeavor soberly to observe and improve all the Christian seasons has been as before. During Passion Week the usual daily instructions, in the shape of discourses from Norton suited to each day, were used with even more than usual satisfaction. A Missionary Society in the school, organized in October and including almost every boy, has been maintained with spirit throughout the session. Its object, in the language of its constitution is, "1. To raise money for missionary and other benevolent work. 2. To diffuse information in regard to such work, to increase interest in it, and in every practical way to advance it." Two hundred dollars, or more, for missions have been raised by this organization, and its good influence in other ways been attested. * * * Great attention continues to be paid to sacred music, the choir being regularly trained and habituated to the singing of every part of the service commonly so rendered.

The Rev. K. Nelson, D. D., has ministered, as heretofore, regularly once a month in the school chapel; and the Rev. C. Walker, D. D., has given us several services. Other clergymen have officiated once each, and several laymen have addressed the Missionary Society. The Friday night devotional meeting for the boys, on which, as on all extra services, attendance is voluntary, has been maintained with remarkable spirit and success by Mr. Wm. Herbert Assheton, of the Junior Class in the Seminary. During Lent Dr. Nelson gave us one week night service besides, on which, as on the noon litany service on Fridays, the attendance was also encouraging. To all the gentlemen who have thus aided the good work, I am sincerely grateful.

Theological Seminary.

The number of communicants among the boys is twenty-five; two having been confirmed at home since Christmas. We have had no confirmation here this session, though there are candidates awaiting the rite.

Respectfully,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

REPORT OF INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

To the Board of Trustees of Theological Seminary:

DEAR BRETHREN:—Having entered, in accordance with your appointment, on the work of instructing colored candidates for the ministry, I beg to present my report of work done since October 1st in that capacity.

Instruction has been given in Paley's Evidences, Smith's Old and New Testament History, Butler on Common Prayer, Townsend's Elements of Theology, lectures on some of the Thirty-nine Articles, and exercises in Homiletics, in the department of Theology. Also in elementary Greek and Hebrew, and in Haven's Mental Philosophy. About three hours per day (except Saturday) has been occupied in the work of the recitation room.

The total number of students present during the session (two of them only for a short time) has been six. Of these three are members of our own church, two are Methodist preachers, and one a Baptist preacher. Of these last, two have removed from Petersburg.

The students have been exemplary in diligence and deportment. The progress made by them is perhaps as fair as could be expected, when their want of previous training is remembered, but it has not been in any way remarkable. These students manifestly need a very special, patient training, in order to fit them for the work of the ministry.

If the Board shall determine to continue longer the experiment, as yet hardly begun, of supplying this needed training to such candidates as may offer, I trust that the Lord's blessing may crown it with success, and make it an efficient agency in our work among the much neglected colored people. But in view of my conscious lack of any special fitness for this work, and my conviction of greater usefulness in regular parochial work, I beg leave to resign my appointment at the close of the session in July, or at such earlier period as the board may deem it expedient to suspend the work.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

Diocese; and whereas the need of additional Episcopal services has been largely insisted upon; and whereas this Council is unwilling to divide this Diocese contrary to the wishes of the same, or of either part thereof; and whereas the sentiment of the Diocese is not now authoritatively known, therefore be it resolved—

(2.) That the manner in which this committee shall proceed is as follows, viz:

(a.) They shall, as soon after the adjournment of the present Council as possible, notify the rector and register of each Parish that subsequently to election of vestry at next Easter the sense of the vestry thereof shall be taken.

(b.) Immediately after the election of vestries at next Easter the said committee shall propose to the register of each Parish the following questions, to wit:

1. Is the rector of your Parish in favor of division, opposed to division, or undecided?

Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

FRIDAY, May 28, 1879, 9 A. M.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by Rev. W. N. Pendleton, D.D.

The minutes were read and approved.

Rev. Dr. Gibson, from the Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund presented the following report:

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Diocese are thankful to be able to report to the Council that by the judicious management of our treasurer, and the much larger number of contributing parishes the past year, both the principal and annual income of the fund have been increased. The number of persons and parishes contributing during the year ending May, 1878, was only ten. During the year ending May, 1879, they increased to fifty-six. The amount given year before last was only $272.73; for the last year it was $777.17. This amount, with the interest yielded by the fund, has made our income $2,177.81, while the face value of our bonds has increased to $25,951.47.

The distribution of the Board for the coming year has amounted to $1,810, leaving $367.81 to be invested towards the increase of the principal of the fund. We present herewith the encouraging report and statement of our treasurer, and ask that they may be printed in the Journal.

Respectfully submitted.

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

Rev. Dr. Minnigerode presented the following report of Diocesan Missionary Society, which was received, and its resolutions adopted.

During the year ending May, 1879, the names of twenty-seven clergymen have been on the books of this society as missionaries laboring within the bounds of this diocese. Of this number twenty-two still remain, five—Rev. Messrs. Wm. B. Gordon, W. Strother

The appropriations and expenditures were	-	-	-	4,983 98
Leaving a balance in treasurer's hand May, 1879, of	-	-	-	1,237 91

Among the expenditures will be found a small amount of mission prayer books, sent to destitute fields in accordance with the powers granted to the Executive Committee by the constitution and laws of the society. It is proper here to state, that the trustees of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia received during this year a legacy of $6,461.73 net for the benefit of the society. In the prostrate condition of the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Society the corporators appropriated to its immediate wants the sum of $1,461.73, and also the accrued interest of $75. The remaining sum of $5,000 was judiciously invested by the trustees, who have allowed this Executive Committee to use the interest as part of their regular income. This income amounts to $300 per annum, which is all that it affords, and can be relied on from it. It is evident that this small addition to the resources of this society does not lessen the obligations of the parishes to continue their support of the diocesan missions.

The reports furnished by the missionaries have from time to time been published in the Southern Churchman, in accordance with the arrangements made with the editor some time since; and the attention of all rectors and parishes to these reports is most earnestly requested, as they certainly are calculated to stimulate the interest of all in the missionary work of the diocese.

Thus far this report was drawn up by our late secretary and general agent.

The following extract from the minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee is here added:

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, RICHMOND, 5TH MAY, 1879.

Since our last meeting, the Rev. F. M. BAKER, the faithful and devoted secretary of this committee, has been taken from us by death. In sincere attestation of our respect for his memory, we have recorded upon our Journal our sense of the great loss to our committee and to the diocese.

The committee having found by experience that a secretary and general agent is indispensable, unanimously elected Rev. Pike Powers to that place.

In conclusion, the committee regret to have to add that the clergy and other friends of this society have been unusually backward in sending their contributions to the treasurer, insomuch, that they are more than usually oppressed in regard to the charge which the diocese has entrusted to their hands, and therefore they close this report with the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Council urge upon the clergy and vestries throughout the diocese a hearty coöperation with the committee by regular, liberal and prompt contributions to its funds.

2. Resolved, That the clergy and laity of the diocese do now for their respective parishes engage as heretofore for contributions to be paid periodically during the coming year.

Respectfully submitted.

EX. COM. DIO. MISS'Y SOCIETY OF VA.

Rev. J. G. Armstrong reported as chairman of the committee on the accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund, that accounts and vouchers connected with the fund had been examined and found correct.

Rev. W. Q. Hullihen as chairman of the committee on the Bruce Fund reported that the accounts and vouchers in connection with that fund had been examined and found correct.

Judge J. Thompson Brown presented the following report of the Committee on Historiographer, which was received and its resolutions adopted:

The committee to which was referred the resolution of last Council respecting the appointment of a historiographer of this diocese, beg leave to report: That fully appreciating the importance of an accurate history of the diocese from its origin onward continuously in the future, your committee deems the first and most necessary steps toward it to be the collection and preservation of the material for the work, and placing it within the control of the person who is to compose the history.

In this work, attention should at once be given to the county and corporation courts, of the overseers of the poor, and the registers of the parishes, between the original erection of the colonial government in the State and the peace between the mother country and the colonies.

These documents are in condition of great neglect, many of them scattered in unknown places, and even those in the keeping of the State authorities are in numerous instances mutilated and defaced, and in danger of becoming useless at any time. Those prepared during the first period are especially in this condition, and without them a most interesting and in some respects the most important facts of this history may soon be destroyed.

It seems to your committee that the most effectual means of preventing this result is the appointment of an officer, empowered to procure the gratuitous services of some competent person friendly to the object, and residing in the several parishes, to examine these public documents, making and forwarding to such officer such copies and extracts from them as he may from time to time prescribe, to be kept safely by him. It is hardly to be expected that there may not be found in every parish of the diocese, at least one person who, from love of the church or his State, will willingly lend himself to a purpose so praiseworthy and attended with so little trouble.

The officer mentioned should be empowered also to correspond with the registers or vestries of the several parishes, and ascertain what parish record or parts of them now exist embracing the period beforenamed, and to procure from the vestries their consent to their removal to the Library of the Theological Seminary, as the property of the vestries, there to be safely kept, liable to be recalled at the pleasure of the vestries from which they came, and subject to the use of such person as may be appointed to prepare a history of the diocese.

As to the parish registers which have been filed and put aside from use since the period aforesaid, these should also be forwarded to the Library of the Seminary, on the same terms and for similar uses as those first mentioned, unless in the exercise of a discretion to be vested in the person to be appointed to prepare the history, he should deem it sufficient to have such extracts made from them and forwarded to him as he may prescribe. These registers it is much to be regretted are often kept in frail books, the entries carelessly and hurriedly made, and then thrown aside, without any care for their preservation. The rector is often a mere temporary sojourner in the parish, having no special interest in its history, and the vestrymen and registers often active men of business, having little time or taste for such employment, and so the books hurriedly made up are left to take the chances of loss, mutilation or decay. This is much to be regretted, and if possible some prevention should be adopted.

It suggests itself to your committee that the person who is to collect the material for the history, with a view to his composing it, is the proper person to superintend this matter, and that a historiographer of the diocese should be appointed on a reasonable adequate salary to attend to the preparation and safe-keeping of the registers now complete, and those hereafter to be completed, and that he should be required from time to time to make proper enquiries into the mode of keeping and preserving the registers and give such directions concerning these matters as would produce uniformity in the mode of keeping, and safety in preservation of these books, as experience might indicate. It would be difficult to lay down beforehand any definite rules, especially as the circumstances of the parishes are various, and experience and attention to the subject can alone be relied on to arrange suitable regulations. Your committee, therefore, content themselves to confide this matter to the historiographer and vestries, satisfied that nothing will be required by the former which the latter will not willingly and cordially approve. The collection of the registers made up since the peace before named and thence onward, might accumulate too great a mass for convenience, but the historiographer could easily prevent this by requiring such extracts to be made and forwarded exclusive of the matter required to be embraced in the parochial report, as to reduce to comparatively small space the part of the library devoted to this use. Your committee is pleased to learn that the finances of the diocese are in such condition that the initiatory steps of collecting the registers first mentioned can be entered on upon a moderate compensation, to be increased in the future as the history may be commenced and prosecuted and as they have reason to believe and hope the resources of the diocese will increase. Your committee therefore recommend to the Council the adoption of the resolutions following, viz:

Resolved, 1st, That the Council approve of the appointment of a historiographer of the several parishes of this diocese, and of his proceeding at once to collect and preserve the registers of the parishes made up between the erection of the colonial gov-erament in Virginia and its overthrow; that he procure from the vestries of the several parishes their consent to forward the parish registers for the period aforesaid to the librarian of the Theological Seminary near Alexandria, there to be carefully kept and preserved and liable at all times to the use of the historiographer, but to be received and kept as the property of the parish from which they may be forwarded, and liable at any time to their recall.

Resolved, 2nd, That the historiographer have authority to procure from the said parish the transmission to the said library, to be there kept in the same manner and on the same terms as are mentioned in resolution No. 1, any other parish registers made up and completed since the period aforesaid, that he may deem essential to the preparation of the said history, or, if in his opinion it may be more advantageous, the making such copies and abstracts of and from the register last mentioned and transmission of them to the said library, as he may deem essential.

Resolved, 3rd, That the historiographer have authority to issue to the vestries of the parishes such directions as he may prescribe as to the preparation, care and safety of their vestry-books, not conflicting with the canons or orders of Council respecting the same, as he may from time to time prescribe. That Rev. Philip Slaughter, D. D., be and he is hereby appointed historiographer of the diocese, with authority to proceed to collect the material for said history, that he be allowed as his compensation for the said service $500 for the ensuing year, out of the Contingent Fund from money not otherwise appropriated.

Rev. James Grammer presented the following:

The committee who were appointed to inquire and report to this Council whether the $5,000 voted to the diocese of West Virginia by the Council of this diocese, is a fair equivalent for the rights of that diocese in the property of the undivided diocese of Virginia, respectfully report, that after giving the question in all its bearings a candid and searching examination, they are of the opinion that if this Council will give to the diocese of West Virginia, in addition to the $5,000 already voted, the right of representation on the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, they will have satisfied the rights of that diocese. They therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the diocese of West Virginia be and is hereby entitled to representation in the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute.

committee cannot commend its objects and good results to the clergy and laity of this diocese too warmly, and they beg leave to refer to and renew the recommendations contained in the report of the committee on the Brotherhood, made to the last Council, especially that portion of the Bishop's annual address in reference thereto.

Your committee are pained to be compelled to report the death of two of the members of the Brotherhood, since the last meeting, to wit: Revs. EDMUND WITHERS and F. M. BAKER.

Resolved, That the Council, in view of the fact that, from motives of delicacy, the clergy hesitate to press the claims of the brotherhood upon their congregations, earnestly recommend to the laity, and especially the Lay Association, that they, by circular letter and other proper modes of advertising, seek not only to maintain the Brotherhood in its present state of usefulness, but to increase its efficiency, and suggest that the clergy be requested to read such circular letter to their respective congregations.

Resolved, That the lay delegates of this Council be requested to exert themselves in procuring new members and agents for the Brotherhood.

The motion to reconsider was therefore carried.

By unanimous consent Mr. H. W. Sheffey, from the committee to whom was referred the subject of the Bishop's letter of godly admonition, presented the following majority report:

The committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address, connected with his letter of godly admonition and counsel, dated February 18th, 1879, have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to report: That the matters embraced by this reference have filled your committee with great concern, blended with sincere pleasure: concern, for the peace and harmony of the diocese; and pleasure, that its sacred interests are in the hands of a Bishop who follows duty with fearless firmness, however painful its pathway may be; and, under him, entrusted to the keeping of ministers who regard the vow of ordination as above personal taste and individual opinions.

Report on Bishop's Letter of "Godly Admonition."

As its chief minister, a bishop's duty is to see to it that the church within his diocese suffers no harm; and "with all faithful diligence to banish and drive away from it all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's word," and "diligently to exercise such discipline as by authority of God's word and by the order of this church is committed to him."

It is the duty of every minister of this church, according to the solemn vow and promise made by him at his ordination, to obey his Bishop, and to follow with a glad mind and will his godly admonitions, and to submit himself to his godly judgments; and it affords your committee pleasure to believe, that the clergy in this diocese recognize the binding force of this vow and promise.

The laity of this diocese are law-loving and conservative: and have heretofore faithfully observed the laws of their church, and revered their ministers and bishops, as those ordained by God for the cure of their souls, and the spiritual conduct of the church: and your committee cannot doubt that this spirit will ever animate their loyal devotion to the church of their fathers; and that no insubordination on their part to its constituted authorities will call for the exercise of its power to suppress it.

According to the law of this church, neither wardens nor vestries have rightful power to prescribe or to regulate ritual; to change rites or ceremonies; or, to prescribe or introduce into the church, ornaments or decorations in connection with worship, the manner of conducting which pertains to the minister in charge, who is amenable to his Bishop, and whom he has promised to obey. And thereupon the committee have adopted the following resolutions, in which they ask the concurrence of the Council—

1. That, in the judgment of this Council, the Bishop had the rightful power to give to the ministers, under his charge, the godly admonition contained in his circular letter of the 18th day of February, 1879; and that, irrespective of reasons therefor, it became the duty of those ministers to give heed to and obey such admonition with a glad mind and will,—and

2. That, it is the earnest wish and prayer of this Council, that cheerful and willing obedience be yielded by clergy and laity to the Bishop's views and admonition; so that no occasion may arise for legislation to give effect thereto: that peace and harmony may abound throughout the diocese: and that clergy and laity, having the mind that is in Christ Jesus our Lord, may, with one heart, desire those things which make for peace; and our beloved diocese, in its unity of faith and its ancient loving concord, may go forward to fulfil its holy mission, in establishing and building up the church within its borders, upon the true foundation, which is Christ!

The undersigned are constrained to differ from the report of the majority so far as the resolutions appended to the preamble are concerned. While acknowledging that in matters of Ritual, where there is no specific direction by Rubric or Canon, we are subject to the control of the Ordinary of the diocese, we are not prepared to say that the use of flowers is a part of such ritual, nor that it is a part of a system of false doctrine. At the same time we would express the earnest hope that throughout the diocese ready obedience may be given to the Bishop's views in regard to these matters, and that there will be faithful co-operation with him in promoting the peace and harmony of the diocese, and maintaining the Protestant character of this Protestant Episcopal Church.

Bradley T. Johnson's Substitute.

The Council then took up the order of the day, being the report of the committee on the Bishop's Pastoral of February 18, 1879.

Mr. Moore moved that when the Council adjourn, it adjourn to meet at 8.30 P. M.

Carried.

Mr. B. T. Johnson offered the following substitute for the report :

Whereas, it is a most valuable part of that blessed liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, that in his worship different forms and usages may, without offence, be allowed; provided, the substance of the faith be kept entire; and

Whereas, it is not necessary that traditions and ceremonies be in all places one or utterly alike; for at all times they have been divers, and may be changed according to the diversity of countries, times and men's manners; so that nothing be ordained against God's word; and

Whereas, the spirit and intent of the Protestant Reformation was to allow the largest liberty in rites, ceremonies, forms and usages of worship; and, therefore, the Church of England established a standard of ritual in the rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer, below which no one is allowed to go, and a standard of faith in the articles of religion, beyond which no one, by practices, uses, or professions was permitted to depart, and between which rules, bishops, clergy and laity were secured and guaranteed the most liberal indulgence in ceremonies, ornaments and decorations, except where controlled by Canon; and

Whereas, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, formed, nurtured and deriving its authority from the Church of England, and exercising the power to change her standard of ritual and of faith, as she had the right to do, hath established for her members a still wider liberty and more indulgent freedom of use and of conscience, by omitting from the rubrics many requirements of ceremonies, and from the articles of religion positive declarations of faith; and in the further exercise of her authority hath admitted the laity to a share in the government of the church, and hath ordained a written constitution, under and in pursuance of which alone the authority of the church can be exercised, for the change of ritual or the modification of articles of faith, or the enlargement or abridgement of the liberty guaranteed to all her children in matters of ritual and faith; and

Whereas, these changes were not to gratify this or that party in any of their unreasonable demands, but to do that which she conceived might most tend to the promotion of peace and unity of the church, the procuring of reverence and exciting of piety and devotion in the public worship of God, and the cutting off occasion from them that seek occasion of cavil or quarrel against the Liturgy of the church; and

Whereas, it has become painfully manifest, that in some places, some persons, clergy as well as laity, have abused this liberty, secured to them under the Constitution of the Church, by introducing and insisting on practices and ceremonies which symbolize erroneous and doubtful doctrines, and which are not in accord with the doctrine, discipline and worship of our own church, and are foreign to the genius and spirit of our services, and tend to teach, and do teach the very dogmas which our ancestors protested against and rejected at the reformation as the errors of the church of Rome; and

Whereas, the power to repress such dangerous practices can only be exercised by the authority of the whole church, and no integral part thereof can or ought to undertake to make any rule applicable only to itself, in matters of ritual or of faith, whereby the liberty guaranteed by the whole church, to every member thereof, wherever he may be, may be abridged by any diocese, parish, vestry or other part thereof; and

Whereas, all such teachings of false or doubtful doctrine, whether by works, acts, or things, is a scandal to the church, and a stumbling block of offence to the lovers of good order and true religion, and ought to be repressed by the full power of the whole church, and, if necessary, by such change and modification of the Constitution and Canons as may be necessary for that purpose, in order that the liberty of her members may be preserved, and the purity of her faith maintained:

Therefore, we the clergy and laity, of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in the Diocese of Virginia, n Council assembled, do hereby instruct our deputies to the next General Convention of the Church in the said United States, to urge upon that venerable and illustrious body, the adoption of such constitutional legislation, and, if necessary, such amendment to the Constitution and Canons as may be necessary to forever prohibit and always prevent all such ceremonies, services, vestments, ornaments, decorations, usages and practices as symbolize or teach or tend to symbolize or teach erroneous or doubtful doctrine, and particularly all such dogmas as were rejected by the church as errors of the church of Rome.

Bradley T. Johnson's Substitute.

And that they be particularly instructed to urge such action as will protect the church from the intrusion of the dogmas

State of the Church.

SATURDAY, May 24, 1879, 9 A. M.

The Council met and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by the Rev. Albert Ware.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Rev. Wm. N. Ward asked to be allowed to record his vote on the question taken last night. Permission being granted, he voted in the affirmative.

Rev. Dr. Packard presented the report of the committee on the State of the Church:

The Committee on the State of the Church would report to the Council that the past ecclesiastical year has been one of prosperity to the Diocese of Virginia. Its condition, as reported by the Bishop, has been encouraging. He reports that the number of confirmations has been 1,032; the number of postulants as 15; the number of candidates for holy orders as 22; that he has ordained 10 to the order of deacons, and 8 to the order of priests, while the net gain in the number of the clergy has been only 2. Three of the clergy "are not—for God took them." They were, as far as we can judge, good and faithful servants, always about their Master's business; and the voices we miss in our assemblies on earth now join in the louder and eternal hallelujahs of heaven.

But apart from the loss by death, more than twelve of our clergy have gone to other dioceses from the want of sufficient support. As this has been the case in years past, so it will be in the future, unless the church in Virginia provides better for her clergy. Though men of self-denial, contented with little, yet it must not be forgotten that they are men—men of like wants and necessities with those to whom they minister. While they do not expect the ease and luxury with which secular employments reward those who pursue them, they must provide for their households, and should live above the fear of want and the vexations and anxieties of debt. Every parish which hopes and desires to secure the faithful services of a minister of God must provide him in good faith and with honest punctuality a decent support. More than this is not asked; this much cannot in common justice be denied.

State of the Church.

We regard the Societies of the Brotherhood, of the Disabled Clergy, and that of the Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, as important means in retaining our clergy in the diocese. Whatever agency ministers to the comfort of the clergy when incapable of duty; whatever cheers their hearts upon their death-beds with the thought that they are not to leave their families altogether unprovided for, to find their way as best they may through a cold world, should be fostered, and we hope that the collections on the appointed days for these societies will never be omitted.

In connection with this subject, and as closely associated with it, we refer to the Diocesan Missionary Society, which we regard as the most important agency for supplying feeble parishes with ministers. During the past year it has sustained in whole or in part twenty-five missionaries, at a stipend of $250 per annum. There has been a decrease in its receipts from the parishes of $1,000. We earnestly entreat every member of the church to do something to relieve the pressing necessities of this society. Next in importance is the Education Society. Its object is to aid young men without means in their preparation for the ministry. This society aids all who come properly recommended as pious, fit for the ministry of the church, and needing aid. In contributing to this society the members of our church are contributing directly to the success and prosperity of the diocese, which must always depend upon an adequate supply of clergy.

Regarding the work among colored people in the diocese, we have much to encourage us. The efforts of the missionary in Petersburg have been vouchsafed a good measure of success. After struggling many years for a foothold, he has laid such a foundation as to justify the expectation of rearing in the future a substantial and lasting superstructure. The theological department established there last October, in charge of the Rev. Professor Spencer, is in successful operation; and besides the training of young men for the sacred ministry, much good is being done by the students visiting among their own people. The number of confirmations for the past year, larger than ever before, the unusual number of baptisms, the increased number of Sunday and parochial schools, taught by teachers of their own race, as well as by white teachers, all go to show that the good work is spreading. The taking hold of this important work in many parts of the diocese by both clergy and laity, male and female, is another proof that the church is being more and more aroused to a sense of her duty to this race. The interest manifested by the colored people themselves, in the instruction and care that they now receive at our hands, are favorable signs that they are beginning to realize that our church not only welcomes them gladly, but is eminently fitted to meet their religious wants. The remarkable work in Brunswick and adjoining counties, under Mrs. F. E. Buford, has awakened great hope as to our being able to reach on a large scale, and to influence for good this class of our population. Through the efforts of this modest and refined church-woman, under God, we call attention to the fact that, an entire congregation, called the Zion Union Apostolic Church, consisting of their bishop, more than twenty (20) preachers, and about 2,000 communicants, is seeking to be placed under the care of our church. When it is considered what an amazing work (unaided and alone except by her Heavenly Father's help) among these people, has been done by this devoted servant of God, can we not take courage and hope, that at last an open door and effectual has been opened to us in the direction of a people whom we have too much neglected?

There is another topic which we deem appropriate to this report: the necessity of increased lay agency. The church is a temple fitly framed, where every stone is necessary for the perfection of the building. Every member of the church has his work to do, which cannot be done by anyone else. In the early church every man felt himself to be a missionary. Every minister will encourage the coöperation of the laity, and will feel as Moses did when Joshua proposed to forbid Eldad and Mildad prophesying in the camp. Moses answered: "Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put His spirit upon them."

In surveying the past year we find that the contributions to religious objects have fallen but little below those of recent years, notwithstanding the formation of the new Diocese of West Virginia. It is a remarkable fact that the church in Virginia has annually contributed more since the war than before, "its deep poverty abounding unto the riches of its liberality."

In conclusion, we would say that we hope and pray that the unity in faith and love which has so remarkably distinguished the church in Virginia in years past, so that it has been called "a city which is at unity in itself," may ever continue.

Virginia Female Institute.

Rev. Dr. Dasbiell read communication from the standing Committee on Church Property, asking permission to sell a lot in Hollywood, the property of the diocese.

On motion, they were directed to make the sale.

Rev. Dr. Minnigerode called up the report of the Committee on Canons.

Gen. B. T. Johnson moved the following:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on the Constitution and Canons be referred back to the committee to consider the same; prepare such amendments as they may consider necessary; have the same printed in parallel columns, with the present Constitution and Canons, showing the proposed alterations in italics, and forward a copy of the same to each clergyman and vestry in the diocese by Christmas, 1879.

The motion was carried.

Col. J. M. Patton offered an amendment to Canon IV, which was referred to the committee.

Judge Sheffey presented the following report of the Board of Directors of the Virginia Female Institute:

The Board of Directors submit for the consideration of the Trustees this their annual report:

They invite the special attention of the Trustees to the following matters:

1. The account current of the rector, showing, as the items now stand, a balance in favor of the Institute of $790.38. See paper A. It must however be remembered that the insurance premiums for the year are to be paid, and, as the Board is aware, some necessary repairs and improvements must be made during the vacation. The Board, however, confidently anticipate a surplus sufficient to pay the interest and sink a part of the principal of the indebtedness of the Institute. And they feel gratified in saying the heating apparatus, although more costly than was at first anticipated, is a perfect success; that the application of Sagendorph preparation to the roofs of the buildings has successfully and entirely arrested the leakages in them; and that the addition of the Kice lot to the Institute grounds will prove to be most advantageous in many ways.

2. The report of the rector in respect to the Institute, its condition and successful administration. The attention of the Trustees is invited to the two matters of interest in respect to which the rector requests an expression of opinion,—“First, as to the reception of certificates of examination from other institutions: and Second, as to the system of honors, as part of the present moral suasion system of discipline.” It is hoped that the rector will in person appear before the Board of Trustees and give his own views on these points. As to the first, this Board is of opinion, that no diplomas or certificates of scholarships should be given by the Institute upon the basis of certificates of examination from other institutions, however respectable; but that all such evidences of proficiency should be founded on rigid examinations by the officers of the Institute themselves: As to the second, this Board is of opinion, that at least the expense incurred in connexion with the bestowal of diplomas and honors, should be lessened. And to this end, they would suggest, that no diploma should be awarded to any pupil until her final graduation: and, then, that but one diploma should be awarded, embracing the schools in which the pupil has graduated: and that for all distinctions, prior to final graduation, inexpensive certificates of proficiency should be given. The Board, however, requests the advice and counsel of the Trustees on these points; and as advised, they will adopt such rules and regulations as may be appropriate.

3. The statement marked C, showing the sums borrowed by the Board and how disbursed; and exhibiting a balance due to Hugh W. Sheffey, who acted as fiscal agent of the Board in this regard of $195.38, as of May 19, 1879. The Trustees are aware, that at the last session of the General Assembly an act was passed authorizing the Board, with the consent of a majority of the Trustees, to borrow money, to an amount not exceeding six thousand dollars, and to create a mortgage or trust deed to secure the loans. Thirteen of the fifteen Trustees gave their consent in writing, to the exercise, by the Board, of the powers conferred by the act of Assembly. A trust deed has been carefully prepared and recorded for the securing of bonds to an amount not to exceed six thousand dollars. As shown by statement C, five hundred dollars were borrowed before the passage of the act, and twenty-five hundred dollars has been borrowed since its passage, making the present bonded indebtedness, three thousand dollars. It may not be necessary to issue the full amount of bonds; and the Board will not issue more than will be found necessary, using the income of the Institute to sink the debt as rapidly as possible.

The act of Assembly, the consent of the Trustees, and the form of the trust deed and of the bonds secured thereby, have been recorded in the record book of the Board, which will be exhibited to the Trustees.

The Board, with sincere gratification, beg leave to assure the Trustees that, with the means arising from said mortgage, and the proceeds of the rents, which will be at their command, they anticipate no trouble in the future in providing for the indebtedness incurred in connexion with the heating apparatus and the Kice lot.

In conclusion, the Board of Directors desire to express their hearty concurrence in all the rector says in his report in respect to the health, progress and demeanor of the pupils, and the fidelity, competency and efficiency of his corps of officers and teachers; and they earnestly commend this diocesan institution to the care of the Council, and to the liberal patronage of the friends of Christian education throughout the Diocese. The members of this Board sincerely believe that the Virginia Female Institute is unsurpassed by any similar institution in the country, as a training school for physical culture, health, mental development, useful learning, and for moral and religious elevation of character; and in nothing is it more distinguished than for the perfectly lady-like deportment of its pupils, and for the attractive graces of a truly refined womanhood which peculiarly distinguish them in domestic and social life; and above all, for the religious influence its graduates everywhere exert; and for their devotion and labors for the church, wherever they go. Many waste places, throughout the South, have been restored by them, and many churches have been built through their exertions; and the church we love so dearly has been abundantly blessed by their zeal in good works and their Christian examples. The tree which has borne such fruits deserves the fostering care of the Council.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY,
President.

Colored Work.

Rev. Dr. Hanckel, from the special Committee on Colored Work, presented the following:

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's address as relates to the application for the aid and counsel of this church, from the colored organization known as "The Zion Union Apostolic Church," in southern Virginia, respectfully report: That while deeply impressed with the grave importance of said application, and with the weighty responsibility thereby imposed upon the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia; that while they sincerely desire to express the warmest sympathy and interest in the spiritual welfare of our colored brethren of Brunswick and the counties adjoining—your committee do, nevertheless, feel greatly embarrassed in the expression of such sympathy, whether by word or deed, by the vagueness of the application made. After availing themselves as a committee and as individuals, of all the information within their reach, they have failed to eliminate this embarrassing element of uncertainty from the case submitted to their consideration. This uncertainty as to what and how much our colored friends ask on our part, and propose on their own, creates further embarrassment as to what can and what should be done for their relief.

Of one thing your committee are convinced, that at the present state of negotiation and development, the work of the Protestant Episcopal Church among the colored people known as "The Zion Union Apostolic Church," in southern Virginia, can only be effective for good by disturbing in the smallest possible degree their existing church relations, and that the responsibility and duty of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the present aspect of affairs, must be restricted to teaching, or "disciplining" that people,—aiding them by every means in our power to embrace a pure christian faith and to lead godly and christian lives.

A restatement of the facts is needless, and all that your committee feel called upon to do in the premises is to suggest what, on our part, may be done in compliance with the application of our colored friends. They therefore propose for adoption by this Council, if meeting their approval, the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested to appoint at least one evangelist, whose time shall be devoted to work among the colored people of Brunswick and the counties adjoining, in connection with the Rev. Messrs. R. White, R.

Contingent Fund.

A. Goodwin and E. B. Jones, and that for this object $700 per annum be paid out of the Contingent Fund of the Diocese.

2. Resolved, That the Rev. gentlemen just named and J. R. Jones, Esq., do constitute, and are hereby appointed, a special committee, to take charge of this entire work, and to report from time to time for the information of this Church.

3. Resolved, That whenever these brethren shall deem it expedient, they shall be empowered to employ as Catechists, under their supervision, any of the colored preachers of "The Zion Union Apostolic Church."

4. Resolved, That fit persons of this class be sought out, and encouraged to become candidates for the sacred ministry, and that when so disposed, they be assured of aid in pursuing the necessary studies.

5. Resolved, That the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society and the committee on Colored Congregations be and are hereby charged with the duty of supplying the books which may be needed for Sunday- or for day-schools among this people.

6. Resolved, That as colored ministers are ordained, they be received, as heretofore, to seats and to all the privileges of members of this Council, and that the status of colored Episcopal congregations (if any) which may be formed, as to lay representation in the Council, be left for future consideration and decision.

7. Resolved, That the Bishop and a special committee of two be requested to address a cordial letter of welcome and of Christian sympathy to the colored preachers and people of "The Zion Union Apostolic Church," to be read to them by the Rev. brethren in charge of this work in Brunswick and the counties adjoining.

8. Resolved, Lastly, that our deputies to the next General Convention be charged with the duty of bringing before the house of clerical and lay deputies the question of the expediency of giving to the colored people of Virginia and the other Southern States, when desired, a full and complete church organization of their own race, under such constitutional and canonical provisions as the General Convention in their wisdom may devise and ordain.

J. S. HANCKEL, for the Committee.

The report was adopted, and its resolutions carried.

The following committee was appointed under resolution VII: The Bishop, Rev. J. S. Hanchel, D. D., and A. W. Weddell, D. D.

Rev. J. B. Newton, from the special Committee on the Contingent Fund, reported the following:

Your committee was appointed at the Council which met in Staunton two years ago, "to take into consideration the matter of the Contingent Fund, and if possible to devise some better plan of apportionment than that now in use."

Clerical Support.

We beg leave to report, that after the most careful consideration of this subject, and after correspondence with the treasurers of a number of other dioceses, we have been unable to devise any better plan than now in use in this diocese.

JOHN B. NEWTON,
CHAS. MINNIGERODE
JOHN STEWART.

May 22, 1879.

Mr. J. R. Jones from the Committee on Clerical Support

The Committee on Clerical Support have carefully examined and considered the papers submitted to them on that important subject and make report as follows:

The committee have had before them the reports from one hundred and twenty churches in the diocese. Very many of these have conformed to the requirements of the circular letter of the secretariat of the Council, which inadvertance or neglect caused increase of labor and embarrassment in the discharge of the duty assigned the committee. From fifty-six churches no report was before them, and these churches are put in the delinquent list for that reason. Neglect or failure to ready and proper compliance with the demands of the Council in this matter, in the opinion of the committee, is almost as culpable as failure to pay a minister's salary promised him. In the one case neglect or indolence (properly called laziness), must be implied; whereas in the other case, failure in the discharge of duty may proceed from inability to meet promptly, or fully, the sacred obligations incurred by the parish or church.

The committee hold that the pecuniary claims upon the church for the support of their ministers, are as sacred as any contract that can be created between man and man; that failure to meet obligations so created, is condemned by the teachings of common honesty, even when conscience has not been enlightened by the truth as contained in the word of God. We can therefore only excuse the parties to be delinquent, when their claim to such excuse can be based upon inability, after the most strenuous and persistent effort to pay their honest debts. That there should be delinquents, from any cause whatever, in this respect, is always to be regretted; and your committee grieve to say, that this report is no exception to preceding ones in that it records eighteen of our churches as failing to pay amounts promised their ministers for their support, and that the aggregate sum thus in arrears is $1,281.96. It is to be hoped that this amount will be very largely reduced hereafter; and we would most earnestly and affectionately invoke the aid and influence of all Christians, men and women, to banish such reproach as an unpaid salary of a minister from the church. The laity are responsible, mainly, we feel, for this crime in the sight of God; and yet we do insist, that no motives of false delicacy in the premises, should restrain our brethren of the clergy from the presentation of the truth, in all that concerns man's duty to God and man's duty to man. Have all of us, dear brethren of the clergy and of the laity, done our duty, as freely and fully as we feel we should have done it? O brethren, "if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things."

Per contra: It affords the committee great pleasure to state that five of the churches are on the record as having exceeded their promises to their ministers. We feel constrained to make honorable mention of this, well assured, as we are, that the Council will be no less gratified than ourselves by this fact. We append the roll of honor to this report, with the hope that the example may incite other churches to go and do likewise.

The committee believe that more active and successful co-operation in the congregations of the several churches would be caused by statements from the vestry, read in the church by the proper officer, at regular and stated periods, of the financial affairs of the church under their charge. The people would thus have full knowledge about these matters, and liberality would be excited and encouraged by the more frequent opportunities thus afforded for collections for all church work. It is the aggregate from small and regular contributions, even though they be the widow's mite, rather than large and irregular contributions, that keep the treasury of the Lord replenished.

Of the churches reported fifty-eight have a rectory, and many of these rectories have land attached—one hundred acres being the largest quantity reported in any case.

To facilitate the labors of future committees on this subject, we recommend that a uniform date should be adopted hereafter, as the time to which reports should be made up; and that some more concise form should be prepared for these reports from the treasurers of the parishes and churches.

Clerical Support.

The committee recommend the publication, in the Journal and in the Southern Churchman, of the churches delinquent in the payment of the salaries promised their ministers, or delinquent by making no report.

The committee cannot close their report without calling the serious attention of the Council and the Church at large to the injurious influence usually resulting from indefinite contracts between rectors and their churches;—we mean where no specific sum is agreed upon as necessary to the support of the minister and his family, but he is left entirely dependent upon the church collections, whether adequate or inadequate. No arrangement, in our unanimous judgment, can be entered into which will relieve the vestry and congregation from the religious duty and obligation to see to it, that “they who preach the gospel, should live of the gospel,”—which we construe to mean, that they shall live by faith, by faith we say, in God, and by faith in their fellow-men, who as Christians fulfil all their obligations.

J. RAVESCROFT JONES, Chairman.

Resolved, That the vestries of the several churches and parishes be requested to make quarterly reports and statements of the financial condition of their churches, and have the same read to the congregation in open church.

Resolved, That the reports of the treasurers of parishes, as to ministers' salaries, be made to the 31st day of March next preceding the meeting of the Council:

The form of report recommended is as follows:

PARISH TREASURER'S REPORT.

Church.	_____	Rector.	_____
Parish.	_____	County.	_____
Treasurer.	_____	Treas. P. O.	_____
Amount of salary promised rector for year ending March 31, 18—,	$		Cents.

Have you a rectory?

How much land attached to a rectory?

Parochial Reports.

Mr. Mann Page moved as an amendment to the above resolutions the following:

Resolved, That the treasurer of each church in the diocese be requested to make quarterly to the congregation a full and exact statement of its financial affairs, in such mode as the treasurer may deem most advisable, and a duplicate report be sent to the secretary of the diocese.

The amendment of Mr. Mann Page was lost.

The resolutions of the committee were adopted.

Mr. C. L. C. Minor, in behalf of Rev. Arthur Johns, presented the report of the Committee on Parochial Reports:

Your committee beg leave to remark that from some parishes no return has been received, from others only a partial or imperfect statement, hence this report cannot be regarded as presenting perfectly accurate information on the various points which it includes.

ARTHUR S. JOHNS, for the Chairman.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the committee on Finance:

The Committee on Finance, to whom, as usual, the accounts of the treasurer of the Diocese of Virginia have been submitted, beg leave to report that they have examined said accounts and find them correct. The treasurer's ledger, which your committee has inspected, has been accurately and carefully kept and the account laid before your committee is a transcript from said ledger. The balance on hand, deposited in the State Bank of Virginia, as shown by the treasurer's bank book, was, on the 10th day of May 1879, $1627.91. This balance includes the sum of $183.06, interest on balances received from the Bank of Virginia.

Besides the customary appropriations heretofore made for the salaries of the bishop, the secretary and the chaplains, and their expenses, and the other ordinary expenses of the diocese, the committee recommend the payment of thirty dollars to the assistant secretary, and the sum of fifteen dollars to the sexton of St. George's Church, Fredericksburg, for his services during the present session of the Council. We further report that during the ensuing year, the treasurer will be called upon to pay to the treasurer of the Diocese of West Virginia, the sum of $1,000, and to the Rev. Dr. Slaughter, Historiographer of the diocese, the sum of $500 in quarterly installments.

The amount received by the treasurer on account of the contingent fund, up to the time of closing this report, is about $8,100, and other amounts will be added during the session and will be duly accounted for. Only $244.45 have been collected since the last Council, on account of arrearages due from delinquent parishes, and your committee report that the delinquent list is increasing, year by year, and they are of opinion that some measure should be adopted to secure greater promptness in the payment of the contingent fund.

Your committee recommend that Messrs. H. E. C. Baskervill, John L. Bacon and John H. Claiborne be continued as a committee of the Council, with power to invest any surplus of the contingent fund, above the necessary charges for the year, in United States four per cent. bonds, the said committee having reported that they have found it impracticable to make investments in ground rents and mortgages, as directed by the report of the Finance Committee last year.

It appears from the report of your committee, made at the present session of the Council, upon the "evangelist fund," placed at the disposal of the Bishop, that there is a balance in his hands of $1,266 to be used in supporting the evangelist. In case the Bishop shall be able to engage the services of an additional evangelist, your committee recommend that the treasurer be authorized to pay to the Bishop any additional amount he may certify to be necessary for the purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Chairman.

The report was received and its recommendations approved.

Rev. Dr. Peterkin presented the report of the Committee on New Parishes, as follows:

1. The Committee on new Parishes, to which was referred the petition of certain members of Emmanuel Church, Ridley Parish, Culpeper county, for the erection of a new parish, within the limits of Ridley Parish, to be called Slaughter Parish, find that all the canonical conditions have been complied with. According to agreement with the vestry of Ridley Parish, the bounds of Slaughter Parish are to commence at the junction of the Rapidan and Robertson rivers, down the Rapidan to Newman's Ford, thence by the county road which crosses the railroad, three-quarters of a mile south of Mitchell's station, to Slaughter's old church-site, thence to intersection of Orange and Culpeper road, thence by the road to Wayland's mill on Crooked run, thence down Crooked run to Robertson river, and down Robertson river to its junction with the Rapidan.

2. The committee have also considered the petition of certain members of St. James' Church, Henrico Parish, in the city of Richmond, to be set apart as a separate congregation under the name the Bishop Moore Memorial Church. In this case, also, all the conditions of the Canon have been complied with.

The committee therefore propose the following resolution:

Resolved, That the petitions of the members of Ridley Parish, Culpeper county for the erection of a new parish, and of certain members of St. James' Church, Richmond, for the formation of a new congregation, be granted.

3. The committee have also had under consideration a petition from a joint committee, appointed by the vestries of St. John's and St. Paul's Churches, Salem Parish, Roanoke county, asking the division of that parish. This petition, however, does not comply with the requirements of the Canon, since it furnishes no evidence of a notice given by a committee of the congregation to the vestry, and since it is not an application from one portion of a parish to be set apart as a separate parish, but a petition from the whole parish to be divided into two. This may be a mere technical objection, but the mode of procedure is not that which is contemplated by the Canon. A more decided objection is based upon the consideration that your committee have no assurance that each one of the two proposed parishes would be self-sustaining.

4. Finally, your committee have considered the application of two of the congregations (Bethlehem and Trinity) of Nelson Parish, Nelson county, to be formed into a separate parish. This application was made with the approval of the third congregation (Christ Church) but the prescribed form of the Canon is not adhered to, and the third congregation has given no assurance of its being self-supporting.

The committee think that if this congregation, of Christ Church, can form a connexion with Tillotson Parish, Buckingham county, there may be sufficient ground for granting this application hereafter; as in that event, ministerial services could no doubt be secured.

In view of all the circumstances of both cases, the committee propose the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the petitions from Salem Parish, Roanoke county, and Nelson Parish, Nelson county, be not granted.

J. PETERKIN, Chairman.

Rev. E. A. Penick moved that the word "not" be stricken out from the committee's recommendation in the case of Salem Parish, Roanoke county, and that the petition of that parish be granted.

Mr. Thomas Moore moved that the papers in connection with the case of Salem Parish, be referred back to the congregations for correction.

The amendment of Mr. Moore was lost.

The resolution of Rev. E. A. Penick, was lost.

The recommendations of the committee were adopted.

Rev. Dr. Hanckel gave notice that he would not call up at this Council the amendment last year proposed to Canon XIX, and that it would be called up next year only in the event of failure to adopt the proposed new code of Canons.

Rev. Dr. Murdaugh offered the following:

Resolved, That the form of Parochial Reports be amended so as to include a statement of the number of free seats in each and every church in the diocese, and also the method of the support of said churches, whether by rental of seats, general subscription, or otherwise.

The resolution was lost.

Rev. W. H. H. Powers presented the following, which was adopted by the Piedmont Convocation and forwarded as a communication to the Council:

Resolved, That the Piedmont Convocation do petition the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, at its sessions in Fredericksburg in May, 1879, to appoint a committee of two clergymen and three laymen, to devise some effectual and practical plan for the arrest of the evil of intemperance in this diocese, and to report such plan to the next meeting of the Council.

W. H. H. POWERS, Secretary.

The petition was granted, and following committee appointed:

REMARKS.—The present rector entered upon the discharge of his duties on 1st of September last. He found the Parish thoroughly disorganized on account of being for so long a time without a rector, and the people discouraged by their ineffectual attempts to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. Dr. Sams, their last pastor. But though discouraged they were not cast down, for during the inter-regnum they paid all their parochial indebtedness. The church is now in a flourishing condition, and has before it a bright future. The building will be enlarged during the summer, and put in thorough order. The contributions, outside of the regular expenses, have been small, owing to the fact that the entire burden of supporting the church has been cast upon the congregation by the sudden and unexpected withdrawal of the aid hitherto given it by the Diocesan Missionary Society, and the consequent increased tax upon the resources of the people, which are less adequate now than at any time since the foundation of the Parish.

REMARKS.—The rector and vestry have lately thoroughly overlooked and revised the list of communicants, and have thought it best to drop the names of those who for a long time have not attended the services or communion of the church, nor contributed anything to its support. This, together with the large number of removals, accounts for the falling off as compared with reports of other years. There is, however, no falling off in the numbers attending the church, and the real workers are about as numerous, as active and efficient as they have been for some time back.

REMARKS.—I was called to this church in February last. This is not therefore a full report for the whole year. This is a new, I may say, missionary field. For the time since the building of the church, not much over a year, a good work has been done. The children of the Sunday School have been gathered for the most part from the poorer untaught families, scattered throughout the country four or five miles around. These persons were entirely unacquainted with our church. They have been brought in, and are being taught the doctrines and worship of our church. The congregations are full, and the responses are well and heartily made. The church is growing in favor with the people, and with the blessing of the Holy Spirit, for which we would earnestly pray, we trust it may be made the means of doing much good, and gathering many souls into the kingdom of our Lord.

REMARKS.—There are three enterprises now going on in this Parish in connection with the religious instruction of the colored people. The Rev. Mr. Webb, who resides in the Parish, has organized a Sunday School with very encouraging prospects. He has now in process of erection a commodious chapel for their use, situated near his own residence. He devotes two Sundays in each month to their service, and there is every indication that his work will be successful. A lady residing in the village has also started a colored Sunday School, with good promise, having from 50 to 100 persons present at each meeting. At Grace Church, News Ferry, there is an interesting class of colored persons, taught by one of the teachers in the Sunday School, which may be regarded as the beginning of an important work in that locality.

REMARKS.—This Parish during the past year has, through the zeal and activity of the ladies of St. John's, and the help of kind friends abroad, been enabled to rebuild that church, which was considered unsafe, in a new and beautiful style of architecture, at a cost of about two thousand dollars. It will be paid for and ready for consecration in the month of June.

REMARKS.—I officiate here in the Methodist Church, to the use of which we have the right once a month. This report embraces only the five months of my pastorate. The prospect here is very encouraging, and nothing seems wanting to give our church a firm foothold here but a church-building of our own. Efforts are now making to build one. Much outside aid will be needed however, for the congregation, in common with all the country congregations in the diocese, is in very reduced circumstances.

REMARKS.—This church has three Sunday Schools. The one at the church numbers 30. Received a present of a library, valued at $35, from a lady in New York to the white school. Four miles distant, at a school-house, is another Sunday School—numbers 20; four miles to the east of the church is the third Sunday School—numbers 20. I have mentioned this as a suggestion to the Sunday School teachers. The one church school numbered at one time fifty irregular attendants. We now have sixty regular attendants by dividing.

Of the $625.00, $150.00 was given by a lady in New York without solicitation—it was given to make the church more comfortable; and $35 of the same amount was the value of a library, which was presented to our Sunday School by another lady in New York. Both presents have been fully appreciated.

As an encouragement to other country churches, I will state that our Ladies' Sewing Society has made from May to May $223; our Children's Sewing Society $30; and the Children's Self-denial Society $30. One little girl, only six years old, has collected as much as $15 in her mission box ; another has earned $4. Every effort will bring some results.

In the county of Powhatan we have four Sewing Societies, two Self-denial Societies, and five Sunday Schools, all working well. Several small organizations will do better in the country than one large one, on account of distances, &c.

REMARKS.—Within the limits of this parish there are some 100 communicants, but many of them residing far from the church, are necessarily somewhat irregular in their attendance.

A church has been recently organized in Farmville, to be called the Bishop Johns Memorial, commencing with some 17 communicants. Services, as at St. Anne's, are held monthly. The Ladies Association is negotiating for a lot, and a small, temporary structure, it is hoped will soon be commenced. In addition to these services, the Rector preaches on the first Sunday of the month at Mount Carmel, in Halifax County, and twice a month, on the second and fourth Sundays, at a chapel (67 feet by 57) recently erected for colored people.

REMARKS.—There being a naval station of the United States within the limits of this Parish, at which are about one hundred men, it has seemed to me my duty to minister to them as regularly as I could. Under this conviction I have, and shall continue to do so, held services for the fleet twice per month.

This is a feature of the parochial work here that gives promise of blessing, and is by no means the least important of my labors.

REMARKS.—Besides the above statistics, showing prosperity in the parish, important by reason of the literary institutions in Lexington, the rector would mention gratefully a mission station he is enabled occasionally to serve, about twelve miles from town, where resides a member of the vestry, who has organized and is effectively supervising a Sunday School of some 70 scholars, on the only plan there practicable—getting Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist friends to co-operate with him, with the rector's full approval and such aid as he can render.

REMARKS.—The work here is encouraging. The congregations have increased very much during the last year. Services are continued at Stony Creek, in the same county, once a month, on the evening of Friday before the first Sunday. Congregations average about 50; but not one communicant of our church. I have been cordially invited to preach here by other denominations; the Presbyterians leaving their church, and a former presiding elder of the Methodists hospitably entertaining me.

In addition to these services, I have an appointment at Franklin, Southampton county, on the fifth Sunday. Here a lot for a church has been deeded to us by a generous layman, and $500 have been promised to build a church. The lot is located in the central part of this thriving town, and the communicants are about to contract for the erection of the building.

REMARKS.—It is with feelings of gratitude and thankfulness that the rector reports the completion—except painting—of the chapel at Nomini Grove, and its consecration by the bishop on the second day of April, by the name of St. Paul's Chapel.

The plan and its execution are much admired, and many think that it deserves to rank among the neatest and handsomest rural chapels of the diocese.

Justice, as well as gratitude, demands the acknowledgment that we are greatly indebted to the liberality of kind Christian friends at a distance—among whom we would mention some ladies of Alexandria—for the success of our efforts to build this house of prayer. May God's blessing rest upon this enterprise, and many, whose hearts He has inclined to help to build this temple, live to see a spiritual temple grow up here to the glory of his name.

MISCELLANEOUS.

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE,
Staunton, Va., May 10th, 1879.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.:

I beg leave to report, that during the past year I have, by God's blessing, without intermission, performed the duties of rector of the Virginia Female Institute, the Diocesan school of the church in Virginia. The session has been characterized by good health, hard work and uninterrupted harmony. We have rarely had such an exemplary set of pupils, many of whom are earnest servants of God. Number of communicants: teachers, officers and pupils, 39. The Bible classes embrace the boarding and nearly all the day pupils. The daily responsive school services have been maintained in the chapel, during the session, and the full church services, with discourses, on inclement Sundays.

I have assisted the rector of the Parish in his duties as occasion offered, and held services at Trinity Mission chapel, when my regular duties permitted. Funerals, baptisms and marriages are embodied in the rector's report.

The Institution is in admirable working condition, with an accomplished corps of officers, and I sincerely trust is contributing its humble part to the great work of christian education, under the auspices of the church and aiding it, in some measure, to obey the injunction of Jesus, "Feed my Lambs."

Sincerely y'rs in the Gospel,
R. H. PHILLIPS.

MAY 20th, 1879.

To the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese:

Since the fire in the Penitentiary buildings last fall, we have been without a room for congregational worship. The prisoners have not, however, been left without religious services. Your missionary has visited them in their cells, read and explained to them the word of God, and prayed with them. He has also held services in both hospitals, week days as well as Sundays, keeping up as far as possible the distribution of tracts and religious newspapers.

For the last two months, as the weather would permit, he has preached to them on Sunday mornings, in the open air.

Your missionary is happy to write of the earnest attention to the preached word on the part of these unhappy men, and also of the tokens continuously given, that his labors among them are not in vain.

Most respectfully yours, &c.,

H. S. KEPLER.

MAY 12th, 1879.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle :

Rev. and Dear Bishop,—In accordance with my duty as deacon, I would respectfully report, that I continue to preach at Saponi church, Dinwiddie county, one Sabbath in every month, and to render such other services in that parish as my other engagements will allow. Have preached, using burial service three times, since my last report and married one couple. I give one Sabbath in every month to a colored congregation near me, at their own church, by their request; and have preached twice at a new church, being built near Major Neblett's.

Affectionately and respectfully yours,

E. B. JONES.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 22, 1879.

Dear Bishop :

Since writing you in January last I have resided in this city and given my service each Sunday to St. Thomas' church, Baltimore county, Maryland. I have also officiated at two funerals. The report of my official acts in connection with Emmanuel Parish, Fauquier county, I presume, will be given by the present rector.

Y'rs in Christ and His church,

W. STROTHER JONES.

“ scholars in mission school,	-	-	150
Amount contributed to foreign missions,	-	-	$6 40

Mrs. Buford is the only person engaged in this great work. She has organized a society of women for the relief of the sick, which numbers twelve excellent nurses, who, since January, have ministered to sixty-one sick persons. She has received from various sources, mainly from the Woman's Auxiliary Aid Society, 21 boxes of clothing, &c., and a great quantity of books and papers, and $441.70 to aid her in her work. A log chapel has been built at a nominal cost of $165, which enables her to teach protected from the weather. The work has grown to such proportions and is of such a novel character that Mrs. Buford appeals to the Diocese for help. Of course I am heartily in sympathy with her, and do all I can to help; but hers is the work and hers be the praise. Would to God I could do more!

REPORT OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN:

With devout gratitude, I trust, to Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for His mercy and goodness which have followed us through another year, we meet once more to consult together concerning the things pertaining to His kingdom.

In giving you information of the state of the Diocese, as I am required to do by canon, I begin with an account of services performed by me since our last Council.

1879, May 25.—In St. George's, Fredericksburg, confirmed sixteen, and in Trinity, seven.

June 1.—Emmanuel, Henrico, confirmed seven.

June 5.—Buck Mountain, Albemarle, confirmed five, and in Christ Church, Charlottesville, twelve.

June 6.—Trinity, Staunton, fifteen. During this visit attended a meeting of the trustees of the Virginia Female Institute.

June 8.—In the morning preached and confirmed ten in Grace Church, Lexington, and at night, by invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association of Washington and Lee University, preached in the University Chapel.

June 11.—Trinity, Bedford, confirmed three.

June 12.—St. Stephen's, five.

June 13.—Consecrated St. Peter's Church, and preached the sermon, Revs. J. A. Wharton and Albert Ware assisting in the service. This is a very neat church, built by a few English families, who were prevented by long distances over bad roads from attending any other place of worship. Rev. A. Ware officiates for them as often as his other duties will allow him to do so.

Bishop's Report.

June 14.—St. Thomas', Bedford, confirmed three. This church had been enlarged and greatly improved in comfort and appearance since my last visit.

June 15.—Confirmed three in St. Mark's, Bedford, and seventeen in St. John's, Liberty.

June 22.—Confirmed in St. John's, Langley, Fairfax county, six; in Falls Church, fifteen, of whom six were students of the High School, and three in the Meade Memorial Colored Church, Alexandria.

June 23.—Pohick, Fairfax county, confirmed two.

July 6.—In the morning preached in St. Peter's, Curdsville, Buckingham county; confirmed four and administered the communion, and in the afternoon preached and confirmed four in Grace, Ca Ira, Cumberland county. These churches, which had become well nigh extinct, by the blessing of God on the faithful and laborious efforts of Rev. F. Stringfellow, of Powhatan, have greatly revived, and, I trust, may yet become strong and prosperous.

July 13.—Visited St. Peter's, New Kent, which has long been vacant. Assisted by Rev. J. J. Norwood and T. H. Lacy, of West Virginia, services were held morning and afternoon, and four confirmed.

July 16.—Was prostrated by sickness, which compelled me to miss appointments in Hanover, King William, Essex and Middlesex counties. As soon as I had sufficiently recovered, I set out by way of Old Point to meet such of my appointments as still remained, and on July 20 preached for the rector of St. John's, Hampton.

faithful colored woman, under the rectorship of Rev. L. J. Sothoron. She teaches a Sunday and day school, and is slowly but surely, by the blessing of the Holy Spirit, impressing the truths of the gospel as set forth by our church, on the minds and hearts of the community. I found the plain, but neat and comfortable, log church nearly finished and ready for consecration.

Besides these two new churches, a nice and comfortable rectory has been built at Drake's Branch during the past year, and both in a temporal and spiritual point of view, the parish is in a very prosperous condition. Indeed, no where in the diocese has the blessing of God been more manifest, than on the consistent life, and the quiet, persevering, faithful labors of the Rev. L. R. Mason.

Compelled by sickness to resign his charge, he removed to Richmond in November, 1879, where his health gradually declined until Good Friday, 26 March, 1880, when he entered into rest, in the seventy-first year of his age.

Bishop's Report.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.

I was requested by resolution of the last Council to appoint at least one evangelist, whose time shall be devoted to work among the colored people known as "The Zion Union Apostolic Church." Unwilling to act on my own judgment in so delicate and important a matter, I called to my aid the standing committee on colored congregations. We met on 19th June, and after consultation unanimously agreed that it would be best, under all the circumstances, to appoint Rev. Robb White to give a part of his time only to this work. Accordingly, since July, he has devoted two Sundays in each month to St. Andrew's Church, Lawrenceville, where he resides, and the rest of his time to the work of an evangelist to the colored people. His interesting report for ten months will appear with the other reports in the Journal.

The last Council also resolved, that the Bishop and a special committee of two be requested to address a cordial letter of welcome and of Christian sympathy to the colored preachers and people of the Zion Union Church. The Rev. Drs. J. S. Hanckel and A. W. Weddell were appointed on this committee, the former of whom prepared a letter which was so truly apostolic, both in form and substance, that I regret my inability to lay it before you. One thousand copies of this letter were printed and circulated amongst those to whom it was addressed.

The work amongst these Zion Union brethren is so important and encouraging, that I do not hesitate earnestly to recommend, that Mr. White be continued as evangelist for another year. And I repeat what was said in my last address, that the difficulties in the way of our preaching the gospel to the colored people are disappearing more and more, so that in most parts of the diocese they are as accessible to the enlightening and sanctifying influences of our church as the white people are.

It will be seen by his report, that the Rev. J. J. Norwood has continued his faithful and abundant labors as evangelist during the past year. The Rev. R. A. Goodwin has also devoted a part of his time to the same useful work, in addition to his rectorship of two large parishes in Mecklenburg county. I reported to the last Council twelve hundred and sixty-six dollars ($1266) as remaining in my hands of the Evangelist Fund. I now present my account for the past year, showing that $770 have been expended with a balance of $496, and request that it may be referred to the Finance Committee for examination.

THE FAMINE FUND.

You are aware that a distressing famine has been prevailing for some time past in Ireland. An appeal having been made to me for help by the Lord Mayor of Dublin and others, I felt constrained to ask my brethren, the clergy and laity of the diocese, through the Southern Churchman, to contribute as they were able to the relief of our suffering and dying fellow-men. Mr. Wm. F. Gray, of Richmond, kindly consented to act as treasurer of any fund that might be raised. On the 12th inst., he had received one thousand and ninety-five dollars and thirty-nine cents ($1,095.39), which, converted into a sight bill on London, amounted to £225 7s. 9d. This sum I transmitted to Archbishop Trench, of Dublin, to be disposed of as he might think best.

THE BIBLE SOCIETY.

I beg leave to call attention to the blessed work of that noble institution, the Virginia Bible Society, and respectfully to suggest that a collection be made annually in every congregation to add to its funds. It is more extensively engaged in distributing the word of God now than ever before, as our large colored population, who are poor and ignorant, require it should be. But its work is by no means confined to them—many of our own churches and Sunday schools receiving from it grants of Bibles and Testaments. The bishops and other ministers, and the people of our communion have ever manifested an interest in this society since its formation, and I trust that interest may never cease or diminish.

I have mentioned the resignation of the Principal of the Virginia Female Institute. The trustees have been so fortunate as to secure as his successor, Mrs. Flora Stewart, widow of the late Gen'l J. E. B. Stewart, who will take charge at the end of the present session. Mrs. Stewart is highly endorsed as a lady of refinement and cultivation, having great administrative ability, and experience as a successful teacher. She will retain several of the tried and satisfactory assistants now in the institution. With Mrs. Stewart and her associates in charge of our diocesan school, I do not hesitate to pronounce it to be, my judgment, worthy of the confidence and patronage of all who wish to educate girls to educate.

The reports of the trustees and officers of our Seminary and High School will show those two most important institutions to be, by God's blessing, in a prosperous condition. The trustees of the Seminary at their meeting last June, inaugurated measures for replacing the old chapel with a new and more suitable building. By the aid of the Alumni Association and of friends within and especially without the Diocese, those measures have been so far successful, that a sufficient amount of money has been raised, work on the new chapel has been commenced, and it is expected that it will be completed early in the year. I again earnestly commend our Missionary and Education Societies, our Brotherhood, the Protestant Episcopal Church Home, and all our other Christian institutions to your continued confidence and more generous support.

Beginning with the Council which sat in Alexandria in 1876, the frequency of more frequent Episcopal visitations has ever since been maintained. This agitation, for which, in my judgment, there is no end whatever, is not likely to cease until something is done to stop it. The only thing which can be done is, either to divide the Diocese, or to elect an assistant Bishop. In my address to the Convention at Lynchburg, in 1878, I declared my views in regard to these two measures. Those views remain unchanged except that frequent reading, reflection, observation and experience have confirmed my conviction that I ought not, and have strengthened my determination that I will not, at this time, consent to a division of the Diocese. I therefore respectfully suggest, that you adopt whatever measures may be necessary to obtain the consent of the General Convention, which is to meet in October next, to the election of an Assistant Bishop "for the reason of extent of Diocese," as provided in Article V, of Canon 15, of Title I, of the Digest.

And now may the Holy Spirit grant us a right judgment in all things, that our sayings as well as our doings, may tend to the promotion of God's glory, and the best interests of our beloved church.

Dr. Pendleton offered the following:

tee of nine, five clergy and four lay delegates, to consider the same and report thereon for the action of the Council at its meeting to-morrow, and that their report be made the order of the day.

Carried.

The report of the Committee on the Constitution was then taken up.

Article 1st being under discussion, the proposed change of name from Council to Convention was voted on and rejected.

would respectfully report to the trustees that the classes under instruction have pursued the prescribed course of study with dili- ce and success.

he senior class has continued the study of the Hebrew language, has read select chapters from the book of Job, and from the latter of Isaiah. In the Greek of the New Testament, they have read Epistles to the Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Galatians.

he middle class has studied the Prophecies of Christ in the origi- and read a number of the Psalms. In the New Testament, they e finished the Epistles to the Romans and to the Hebrews.

Theological Seminary and High School.

The junior class has studied the Hebrew Grammar, with written exercises. They have read in the Hebrew sixteen chapters in Genesis, and the Ten Commandments; and in the Greek the Gospel of John, and the Sermon on the Mount. Three times a week essays are read on the most important and difficult subjects in the Gospels.

The teachers of the preparatory department have made to me a monthly report of the proficiency of each student, and I am able to state, that the department has been satisfactorily conducted.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies in his department during the current session.

The senior class, with three recitations weekly, and the Wednesday evening exercise, have studied the articles with Burnet and Boulbie, and have just finished the review with written questions. They are now studying with lectures and written questions and references, a course of Liturgics. A weekly recitation, in addition to the Wednesday evening exercise, has been given to Homiletics and the criticism of sermons.

The middle class, for the first three months, reciting three times a week, and for the rest of the session five times a week, has studied Knapp's Theology, which they are now reviewing.

To the junior class I have given a weekly recitation in Chadbourne's Natural Theology. The work of President Hopkins, which I have also used with this class, and of which report has been made in previous years, I have postponed to the senior year. The students, at that stage of their course, are better prepared to appreciate its argument.

I am glad to report commendable diligence in studies and duties of the classes during the session. I have no report of absence of students from recitation without permission.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

To the Board of Trusteesof the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Apologetics and Church Polity respectfully reports that the several classes have pursued, under his instruction, a regular course of study with becoming diligence.

In Apologetics the junior class, in connection with the text-book, have received instruction in the form of lectures, of which they have taken copious notes as the basis of examination, both oral and written.

In the same department, the middle class have studied Butler's Analogy, with the aid of full written questions furnished by the Professor.

In Church polity, the senior class, in addition to the study of the text-book, have attended a course of lectures on the Church and Ministry, designed to embrace a full view of the whole subject.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

To the Board of Trusteesof the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Church History and Canon Law presents the following annual report :

The senior class has studied, with four recitations a week, the History of the Church of England, the History of the American Church, the first book of Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, the Constitution and Canons of the Church, the Pastoral Epistles in Greek, and Meade on the Pastoral Office.

The middle class, with three weekly recitations a week and regular essays, has studied Kurtz's Church History.

The junior class, with four weekly recitations and three essays a week, has studied Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament History, and read the book of the Acts of the Apostles in Greek. In response to the request of the Board of Trustees, he has made a practice of attending at least once a month, each class in the preparatory department, except those taught by one of the professors, and testifies from personal knowledge that this department, as at present conducted, is a most necessary and valuable adjunct to the Seminary.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL.

To the Board of Trustees:

At the decision of a committee from your number I resumed for a second session the work of instructing colored candidates for the ministry. It was hoped at the beginning of the session that students would be sent us from the Zion Union organization, but that hope has not been realized. Four students have been under instruction throughout the session. One of these is a deacon, also engaged in teaching; another is a Methodist pastor, resident here; the other two are applicants for our ministry. The subjects taught have been Hebrew, Greek, Bible History, General History, Theology (Hodge's Outlines and Lectures), Mental Philosophy and Moral Philosophy. The progress of the students has been rather slow, but upon the whole encouraging; and my chief regret is that there are so few pupils.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D. LL. D.,

President of the Board of Trustees:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR.—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

Seventy boys, including five day scholars, have been received. * * No pupil has been dismissed, or withdrawn by request, the general behavior and tone of the school having been better than for years past. There has been little sickness of any sort, and, except severe effects of cold in two or three cases, none worth mentioning. * * * The entire worship of the school this session (owing to the building of the new Seminary Chapel) has necessarily been in the school chapel. The Rev. Drs. Nelson and Walker have officiated often for us on Sundays and chief holy days, and the Holy Communion has been celebrated monthly. In the absence of clergymen the Sunday services of the church have been maintained by myself and Col. Hoxton. Our daily devotional exercises have been as heretofore. The Christian seasons have been observed with accustomed regularity, and it is hoped, with increased profit. * * * The Friday night meeting for the boys has been conducted with much acceptance by Mr. W. H.

Committees' Reports—Widows and Orphans' Fund.

Assheton, of the middle class in the Seminary. To this gentleman, as well as to the clergymen named, the gratitude of myself and of every one interested in the school is due. The Missionary Society organized in 1878, has been kept up with gratifying results. * * * The number of communicants among the boys is twenty-one.

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Rev. R. S. Barrett presented the report of the Committee on the Accounts of the Disabled Clergy Fund, certifying that these accounts had been examined and found sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev. Dr. K. Nelson reported that the accounts of the Diocesan Missionary Society had been examined and found correct, and sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the report of the Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, which was referred to the appropriate committee.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Diocese of Virginia, in submitting herewith the report of their treasurer, beg leave to call the attention of the clergy and the laity to the following facts brought to their notice in that report: The number of parishes which have contributed to the important cause we represent is not as large this year as it was the last year, by one-half, while the number of our beneficiaries is larger. Only twenty-seven contributions have been made this year in aid of our income. Last year there were fifty-six. The amount contributed last year was $777.17; this year only $314.26. Some of our wealthiest parishes have given nothing. The distributable income of the year now ending amounted to $1,850, which we have been obliged to divide among twelve needy families. One name has been voluntarily withdrawn from our list, but two others have been added.

A change in the investment of a $1,000 bond of the James river and Kanawha company seems to have lessened the amount of our principal by some $600, but the new investment, being an eight per cent. bond, and paying its interest regularly, will be found next year to be greatly to the advantage of the fund. Its assets now amount to $25,328.92.

Bible Society of Virginia.

In conclusion, the board would remind the Council that according to the rules under which the fund is to be managed by them, the three clerical members of the board are to be elected by the Council "every three years," and from among those clergymen who "have been at least five years resident and officiating in this Diocese," and that this is the year for their election.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Sec'y.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell presented the following, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Board of Managers of the Bible Society of Virginia desire to raise, in this State, a considerable sum of money to be appropriated to a larger distribution of the Bible to those who are destitute of God's word—and have requested their representatives in this body respectfully to ask the approbation and concurrence of the Bishop and the Council of this Diocese in the proposed object; and whereas, this Council is deeply sensible of the obligation which rests upon all the disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to use their best efforts for supplying every creature with the word of life, and is fully impressed with the importance of the proposed measures as being calculated to put honor upon God's holy word, to confer the richest blessings upon the destitute portions of our Commonwealth, and to cherish and increase that spirit of zeal for God's glory, and of love for the souls of men, which should ever be kept alive and active in our churches; therefore

Resolved, That this Council cordially recommends the object of the Bible Society to the churches in this diocese, and affectionately requests the members and friends of the same to co-operate in the accomplishment of the above object by their prayers and their contributions, and by all the assistance that circumstances may enable them to afford.

Resolved, That the clergy and vestries be requested to observe the Bishop's recommendation, to make at least one annual contribution to this cause.

Rev. W. C. Latané moved that the form of Parochial Report be amended by striking out the report of amount contributed to the contingent fund.

Rev. Reverdy Estill moved to discharge the committee from further consideration of the Canons.

The motion was lost.

The motion to increase the committee by adding five of each order, was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Barten offered the following :

The motion was carried, and the Bishop appointed Rev. Dr. Barten and Mr. S. B. Paul as that committee.

Rev. B. D. Tucker reported that the accounts of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund had been examined and found sustained by proper vouchers.

Rev. E. Valentine Jones offered the following :

These men are doing, most of them, real mission work, and some of them a great deal of it. In some cases the missionary preaches at four, five and six different points, with good congregations and encouraging prospects. In others the church has been planted and is growing in localities where the people formerly were not only ignorant of it, but hostile to it. There is an increasing feeling of favor towards our church, among the members of other communions, all over the Diocese, as shown by their attendance on our services, when they have the opportunity, by the character of the confirmation classes, and in other ways. The missionaries aided by this Society, furnish a most effective means of bringing the church to these good people, and the gospel to the destitute in different portions of the Diocese.

There are now various points where the people are hungering and thirsting for the ministrations of the church of their affections, and anxiously looking to your committee for help—as West Point, New Kent, Chester and others. There is much ground to be occupied, where as yet nothing has been done. There are old and faithful men, who have spent their lives in the Master's service, who are not superannuated or disabled, but are doing what they can, and still feeding those few sheep in the wilderness entrusted to their care, some of whom this Society helps, and must help, until some other way of helping them is provided.

These twenty-eight or thirty ministers of the gospel, scattered over the Diocese, and doing as we believe, the Master's work, with zeal and fidelity, would have to abandon their work, or else suffer great hardship, if not starve at their posts, without the aid received from their brethren of the church, through this Society. We ask you, therefore, to enable us to sustain them; and not only to do this, but to put more men into the field, to attack the enemy at more points and to push forward the frontiers of the Redeemer's kingdom.

The contributions of the church to this work have fallen off materially and have by no means kept pace with the increase of communicants and with the improved condition of the country.

Comparing the contributions of the last seven years, and excluding those from West Virginia, and other outside sources, we find them as follows:

In 1874, $3,827.24; 1875, $4,030.69—increase of $203.45; 1876, $3,882.16—decrease of $148.53; 1877, $4,190.72—increase of $308.56; 1878, $4,995.88—increase of $805.16; 1879, $3,980.29—decrease of $1,015.59; 1880, $3,199.59—decrease of $780.70; and less than 1874 by $627.65.

The deficiency of the last two years it is true was made up by legacies and by interest on investments; but one of the worst things that could happen to a church, would be to have all its benevolent and Christian work paid for by somebody else—would be, for example, to receive so much money from legacies, that the people would have no need and no desire to give anything themselves; for Christian giving is not only a duty but a means of grace, a thing had in remembrance before God, and bringing down the divine blessing upon the giver; as we learn from such Scriptures as “It is more blessed to give than to receive”; “The Lord loveth a cheerful giver”; “The liberal soul shall be made fat”; “He that watereth shall be watered also himself”; “There is that scattereth and yet increaseth,” &c.; and hence we believe that the church or the individual Christian that gives nothing, and desires to give nothing, to the furtherance of the gospel, will dry up and become spiritually barren, if not spiritually dead.

We appeal to you, therefore, dear brethren, for a more liberal support of this work, not only for the sake of others, but your own sakes, and above all for the sake of him who, though he was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we through his poverty might be made rich.

Rev. Dr. Weddell presented the following report from the committee appointed at the last Council to propose some plan for the suppression of the evils of intemperance:

The Council held in Fredericksburg in May, 1879, in response to a memorial from the Piedmont convocation, appointed the undersigned a committee to devise and report to this Council "some effectual and practical plan for the arrest of the evil of intemperance" within our own diocesan borders. The memorial which was thus presented, and the committee which was thus appointed, are in themselves deeply significant. They indicate a growing apprehension on the part of the Church of the magnitude of this evil. They indicate that it has developed into such fearful proportions, and the ills which follow in its train have become so appalling that the Church cannot longer regard the matter with indifference. Some scheme is desired, some plan is asked for, which may stay its advance. The subject has already engaged the attention of the wisest and best minds of this nineteenth century. Where these have failed your committee can hardly anticipate success. Yet—and as the result of our very earnest investigations—we would submit some few practical suggestions, which we hope may prove helpful in securing the desired end.

In the first place, and as a foundation truth, we would emphasize the fact that intemperance, like any other violation of the divine law, is SIN. It springs from a corrupt nature. Its indulgence is the embodiment of a sinful life. Above all else, therefore, aye, as SIN, the church must regard it, and in this light the church must seek its ultimate destruction. The one remedy is CHRIST. The "one effectual and practical plan" is the preaching of Christ. Through this instrumentality men are to be regenerated and sanctified, and thus He who was "called Jesus" shall in the end "save HIS people from their sins." All other instrumentalities will prove exceptional in their operations, spasmodic in their duration, and superficial in their results. The triumph of the gospel, and that triumph alone, will secure to our race an emancipation from sin so far forth as the gospel, in sincerity and in truth, is accepted by men,—so far forth as they are thus enabled to hate sin and love holiness,—so far forth as they are thus strengthened to "deny themselves,"—so far, not further, will their emancipation from sin (sin in general, and the sin of intemperance in particular,) prove radical and complete. The operations of gospel grace, whether in the individual, the social, or the national life, are indeed slow, but they are sure. Like leaven, hid in "the three measures of meal," albeit invisible, it is ever active in the heart where God hath deposited it, and the steady final assimilation is assured. Hence, in seeking "some effectual and practical plan for the arrest of the evil of intemperance," we can admit no substitute for, and must urge as our chief hope, the continued preaching of Christ and His gospel. So men are converted, so men are weaned from the love of sin—thus the bondage to sin is broken.

In the second place,—and as suggesting a subsidiary instrumentality,—we must remember that the church is a WITNESS. Such is her office—such is her function. She is to WITNESS FOR THE TRUTH. But more: Whenever, in any given age, a special form of sin asserts itself with conspicuous prominence, the church must witness against that specific evil. Her voice must be heard. Her convictions must be expressed. Her warnings must be uttered. In this respect,—and in regard to the sin of intemperance,—the church in Virginia, as such, has been "a faithful witness." Her bishops, speaking ex cathedra, and her council, in oft-repeated resolution, have spoken in language whose meaning cannot be misunderstood. Such testimony has not been without effect, and yet it has not been altogether effectual. The responsibility of failure, whatever its extent, rests alike with clergy and laity. The clergy have failed to emphasize this testimony by failing to follow it up with a firm, yet loving discipline. The laity have failed to emphasize this testimony by failing to follow it up with a pronounced, yet unobtrusive example. Such cases, we know, are exceptional, but these very exceptions tend mightily towards neutralizing the force of the church's warning. The world will doubt the sincerity of any witness who, albeit denouncing certain practices as erous and sinful, yet tampers with them himself, or tolerates in his household. The church's testimony must go for naught if as intemperance among its communicants is passed over and permitted to exist undisciplined. So too the church's testimony must be a grave impeachment so long as any fraction of its membership, whether by word or deed, occupy towards this great evil an equivocal attitude. The Christian who frequents bar rooms, or who surrenders to the drinking usages of society, or whose body and breath betray the insidious ravages of an unrealized excess, that Christian not only dishonors the church's testimony, but gives, however unconsciously, aid and comfort to the foe. Such TREASON may win the world's approval, but the TRAITOR will be as sure to reap the world's contempt.

In the third place, your committee would ask the Council—by the adoption of this report, and in the discharge of its office as witness—confer the sanction of its name, and the force of its authority, to the suggestions which follow.

Let us ask first: Has not the time arrived, and do not our obligations as Christians demand, that the Christian people of this diocese avouch themselves, by word and act, on the side of TOTAL ABSTINENCE? In making this suggestion we are seeking simply what is practical, and therefore would avoid all side issues. If it be said that "alcohol is a medicine," the fact is admitted; we only insist that as medicine it be used by the most advanced among total abstainers. If it be said that "mere temperance, as a Christian virtue, is higher in dignity than abstinence," the fact is admitted; we simply insist, as is proven by observation and experience, that among those in greatest jeopardy of life and health, temperance is the only temperance which they have the strength to practice. If it be said that "grape culture and cheap wines will be an adequate remedy," the fact is admitted; we simply insist that until grape culture becomes one of the recognized industries of the South, and until cheap wines are within the call of our people, the remedy suggested is altogether beyond our reach. If it be said that these intoxicating beverages, like all the creations of God, are good, and that their temperate use is part of that liberty wherewith Christ has enriched every man," the fact is admitted, but WHAT THEN? Has Christ's love wrought in Christian hearts no spirit of self-sacrifice, no willingness to surrender a mere animal gratification if thereby we aid in the eradication of an evil which has proven the temporal and eternal ruin of a vast multitude of our fellow beings? Aye—do not our peculiar surroundings demand that the Christian men and women of this age shall “take heed lest by any means this liberty of ours become a stumbling-block to the weak.” In a word, circumstanced as we are, and confronting as we do a most determined evil, would it not be wise in all Christians to surrender their abstract rights in favor of a heaven-inspired expediency? The temperate indulgence of these destructive agents is lawful, but is it wise? is it best? Shall we push our liberty to its utmost limit? The rather, does not the voice of Christian love rise above the din of appetite and challenge every Christian conscience to a sublime self-denial? Our weaker brethren, those with whom drunkenness is a “besetting sin,” and an ever-threatening precipice, have claims upon us. They are influenced by our example. They are sorely tempted by the drinking usages which they encounter as they mingle in the world of fashion. Perchance, like some unfortunate Christians, they have very vague ideas as to where temperance ceases and intemperance begins, and yet they are tempted to follow where such Christians lead the way. Has not the time, therefore, come when—for their sakes, aye, and for Christ’s sake too—Christian people should resolve with St. Paul: “All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient.” “It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.” “If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.”

Again: Considering the great evil which we are called to resist, and forced as we are to invoke every subsidiary agency which may help forward the good work, would it not be well for the rector and vestry of each parish, in their official character and as one feature of their regular church work, to establish parochial temperance guilds? Unquestionably such organizations have accomplished great good in times past, and this too when based upon no distinctively Christian principles, and when administered by men who acknowledge no special Christian inspiration. There is power in COMBINATION. It kindles sympathy, creates enthusiasm, strengthens resolution, and when administered by the Church, through the agency of her own consecrated membership, may claim the blessing promised from the Mount of Ascension. The Church of Rome and the Church of England have not hesitated to establish such organizations, and to nourish them with the same motherly care which they lavish upon any other of their auxiliary enterprises. Let the Church in Virginia follow in their train. In every parish let the TEMPERANCE GUILD find a home and do its work. In this way its efficacy can be tested, and if found efficacious, the methods of organization tried in the different parishes may then be carefully weighed and the best points in each may be embodied in a permanent constitution. Thus we hope to see a noble diocesan organization created, based upon actual experience, and already strong in the assured confidence of its own efficiency.

Mr. H. W. Sheffield, from the committee on that portion of the Bishop's Address referring to the matter of an Assistant Bishop, presented the following report:

The committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the appointment of an Assistant Bishop, have had the same under consideration, and report for adoption by the Council the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas the Bishop of the diocese, in his address, has suggested to the Council that they adopt whatever measures may be necessary to obtain the consent of the General Convention, which is to meet in October next, to the election of an Assistant Bishop, "for the reason of extent of diocese," as provided by section 5, of Canon 15, Title I, of the Digest: therefore be it

Resolved, 1, by the Council of the diocese of Virginia, That the General Convention be respectfully requested to give its consent to the election of an Assistant Bishop for the diocese of Virginia.

2. That the deputies from this diocese to the next General Convention be charged

Mr. W. H. Taylor, from the same committee, made the following minority report:

The undersigned, members of the committee to which was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to the election of an Assistant Bishop, and being a minority thereof, respectfully recommend to the Council the passage of the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas the Bishop has clearly intimated that in his judgment an increase of episcopal visitation is not called for by the condition of the Church, and that he is able to discharge all the duties canonically required of him; and whereas an honest difference of opinion exists in the diocese as to whether such increase of episcopal visitation is necessary or desirable; and whereas many contend that the proper remedy in case of a diocese so extensive or populous that one Bishop cannot properly perform the duties pertaining to the office, is a division of the diocese and not the election of an Assistant Bishop; and whereas the Bishop has declared that he will not give his consent to such division: therefore be it

Resolved, That it is inexpedient for the Council to take any action on this subject at this time.

W. H. TAYLOR,
C. R. HAINS,
JNO. M. MILLER.

Rev. R. S. Barrett moved that the report of the Committee on Intemperance be made the order for 4 P. M. to day.

Carried.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the following from the trustees of the Virginia Female Institute:

The Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute submit their annual report to the Council:

Virginia Female Institute.

Since they made their last report the Rev. R. H. Phillips, the rector, has resigned his position on account of ill-health. The trustees unite with the board of directors in expressing sincere regret that the connection which has existed between Mr. Phillips and the Institute for more than thirty years, has been severed, and sincerely sympathize with him in the affliction which has caused his resignation. Most faithful has he been in his office, and the fruits of his long continued labors in training the young for useful and happy lives, may be found scattered over Virginia and the South. Wherever the graduates of the Institute have gone, they have carried with them the graces of cultivated womanhood and the influence of Christian character and devotion to the church.

Upon the unanimous recommendation of an advisory committee of the board of trustees, the board of directors have appointed Mrs. Flora Stuart, the widow of Gen'l J. E. B. Stuart, principal of the Institute, upon terms which, with the cordial co-operation of the clergy and laity of the Diocese, may reasonably be expected to secure success to the Institute as an educational institution of the highest order, and also the means of ultimately providing for the education of the daughters of the clergymen of the Diocese at rates commensurate with their limited means. The trustees concur with the board of directors in the opinion that Mrs. Stuart is a lady of rare attainments and peculiar qualifications for the position she is to fill. With all the gentle attributes of a true woman, who will care for the girls under her charge, as a mother, she is endowed with such clearness of judgment, firmness of purpose, experience in managing and instructing the young, and skill in administration, as eminently fit her for the efficient discharge of the duties of the position, which, at the request of the trustees and board of directors, she has assumed. In view of what is due to Mrs. Stuart, as well as of the substantial interests of the Diocese, involved in the success of the Institute, under its new management, the trustees earnestly invoke the co-operation of the Council in securing that success. The corps of teachers, already secured for the next session, give ample assurance that Virginia churchmen will have no occasion to send their daughters out of the state for thorough education and womanly accomplishments. Advantages of the highest order will be found at this Diocesan school; and its patrons will not only be repaid for their outlays in educating their own daughters, but will, at the same time, contribute to the establishment, upon a firm foundation, of the prosperity of an institution which belongs to the Diocese and is to be conducted for its benefit.

The trustees have instructed one of their number to ask the concurrence of the Council in the following resolution—

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia commend to the confidence and patronage of the clergy and laity of this Diocese, the Virginia Female Institute, which is to be under the charge of Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, as its principal, and of a competent corps of instructors in the different branches of a thorough education, and request active co-operation on the part of Virginia churchmen, in securing success to the Institute and thereby substantial benefits to the Diocese.

Which at Judge Sheffey's request was temporarily laid on the table.

The accounts of the Evangelists' Fund were presented by the Bishop, and at his request were referred to the Committee on Finance.

The hour having arrived for the order of the day, the Council went into the election of deputies to the General Convention.

The Bishop appointed the Revs. F. Stringfellow and B. D. Tucker, and Messrs. B. M. Randolph and R. L. Miller to act as tellers.

The following were nominated :

CLERGY.—Rev. Drs. Gibson, Hanckel, Norton, Minnigerode, Peterkin, K. Nelson, R. T. Davis, and Pendleton, and Rev. Messrs. Grammar, Newton, Kinsolving, Armstrong, and McBryde.

LAITY.—Messrs. R. E. Withers, W. H. Taylor, R. Parker, H. W. Sheffey, J. H. Skinner, Taylor Berry, G. W. C. Lee, C. M. Blackford, R. C. L. Moncure, John Stewart, S. J. C. Moore, B. J. Barbour. W. S. Barton, W. R. Abbott, J. R. Anderson.

General Lee, Judge Moncure and Judge Barton requested

their names to be withdrawn, as their engagements would render them unable to serve if elected.

Pending the counting of the first ballot, Rev. R. A. Goodwin presented the following:

The committee appointed by our last Council to take charge of the work of our Church among the colored people belonging to the Zion Union Apostolic Church, beg leave to submit the following report:

The Rev. Robb White has been laboring faithfully, and we believe successfully, as evangelist among these people since the first of last July. He is highly esteemed by them, and they count it a great privilege to attend upon his ministry.

At the meeting of their Conference in August last a vote of thanks to this Council for its kind consideration of them was passed with unanimity and enthusiasm.

In reply to the question, "How close do you wish the union between us to be?" they replied, "As close as we can get." The most serious question which your committee has had to consider and decide has been with reference to the confirmation of their ministers. When the Bishop, in November last, visited the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, where our Church School for them is held, quite a number of their ministers, as well as members, desired to be confirmed; but it was the unanimous opinion of the committee, and we were glad to find that the Bishop was of the same opinion, that these ministers ought not, at this time to be confirmed. By confirmation they would have become laymen in the Episcopal Church. They are not ready for ordination. Not being authorized to perform the ministerial functions, their flocks would have been scattered, and, in many cases, lost to our influence. Many of these ministers are studying in the hope that they may yet be ordained in our Church. In many cases we know them to be godly, earnest men, and trust that some of them may at least be able to take deacons' orders in the Church, and work under a presbyter, who, as evangelist, shall be over all their congregations, so far as our Church is concerned.

To this end your committee would recommend the advisability of establishing a school of higher grade near the centre of the territory occupied by their congregations, so that the ministers can, without giving up their charges, attend school, and when capable, study theology there. We also recommend that the Rev. Robb White be continued as evangelist, and requested to devote his whole time to this work, and that his salary be increased in order that he may be able to do so.

Your committee would express their admiration of the zeal and fidelity of that noble woman, Mrs. F. E. Buford, who has done, and is still doing, so much for this good work in teaching the ignorant, relieving the destitute, visiting and cheering the sick and dying; and we recommend that she be continued as the principal of the school which she has organized, under the evangelist.

We refer to Mr. White's report, to be printed in the Journal of this Council, for a more extended account of this work, and especially for the resolution passed in their meeting of March 10th, 1880, in regard to their relations to our Church.

We believe that God has placed a plain duty before the Church in Virginia in reference to these poor people, and we pray that He may give us grace to be faithful in the discharge of it.

Respectfully,

R. A. GOODWIN,
for the Committee.

Mr. Thomas Moore moved that the report be received and approved, and the salary of the evangelist be increased to the sum of $1,000.

Carried.

Mr. J. J. Mason moved the following:

Resolved, That in case of the resignation of the Rev. Robb White, the Bishop be authorized to appoint an evangelist for the colored people, at a salary not exceeding $1,000.

Carried.

The Council then took recess for divine service.

The Council then proceeded to the consideration of the report of the committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's Address referring to an Assistant Bishop.

Mr. J. M. Patton moved to lay the minority report on the table.

Motion lost.

Suppression of the Evils of Intemperance.

Pending the discussion, the Right Rev. C. C. Penick, D. D., Bishop of our Church in West Africa, was, on motion, received the Council standing, and invited to a seat by the Bishop.

The hour of half-past two having arrived, the Council adjourned to 4 P. M.

The Council reassembled.

Rev. Dr. Dame moved that the next meeting of the Council be held in the Church of the Epiphany, Danville.

Carried unanimously.

The report of the Committee on Intemperance, being the order of the day, then came under consideration.

Rev. J. B. Newton offered the following resolutions to be appended to the report of the committee:

Resolved, That this Council has heard with the interest and sympathy which the great importance of the subject demands, the report of the Committee on Intemperance.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Council, the intemperate use of intoxicating drinks is a grievous sin against God, and we earnestly urge the clergy of this diocese to zealously and lovingly to enforce the rubrical or canon law against notorious evil living and wickedness of life.

Resolved, That we implore our brethren, clerical and lay, throughout the diocese, to be careful in this regard, to "walk with wisdom toward them that are without," remembering the solemn words of our Saviour, "It must needs be that offences come, but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh."

Mr. J. J. Mason presented the following as a substitute for all or part of the report which recommends the formation of Temperance Guilds:

Recognizing the great evils of intemperance, we earnestly call on you to appeal to the communicants in the diocese, clerical and lay, to do all in their power, by precept and example, to suppress this evil, and further the cause of temperance.

Reports of Finance Committee and Committee on Brotherhood.

The substitute offered by Mr. Mason was lost.

The report of the committee and the resolutions offered by Rev. J. B. Newton, were adopted.

Mr. John H. Claiborne, from the Finance Committee, presented the following report:

The Finance Committee beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct and sustained by vouchers, with check for balance due. That the Bishop's account with the Evangelist's Fund is found correct and sustained by vouchers. They authorize the treasurer to pay the salaries of the Bishop, secretary, chaplains, and their expenses; $30 to assistant secretary; $15 to sexton, and whatever balance may be due West Virginia.

J. H. CLAIBORNE, Chairman.

On motion of Mr. John H. Claiborne, Mr. P. H. Mayo was elected to fill a vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Disabled Clergy Fund.

The Bishop was requested to fill, by his appointment, made when convenient to him, the vacancy created in the Committee on the Zion Union Work by the removal of Rev. R. A. Goodwin.

Mr. L. M. Blackford presented the report of the Brotherhood.

The Committee on the Brotherhood have examined the reports of the officers for the past year (hereunto appended and marked A and B), and find in them material both for encouragement and concern.

The only death (that of the Rev. Dr. Wade) in the last twelve months is the twentieth since the organization of the Brotherhood in 1870. In ten years an aggregate of $24,040.66 has been paid to the heirs of beneficiaries, being an average to each of $1,265, exclusive of the last. Thus it appears that at an average annual cost to each member of $4.20 this handsome sum has been secured to the families of a score of clergymen.

Discussion of Report on election of Assistant Bishop.

In a few cases dissatisfaction has been expressed at the fact that beneficiaries have left their families in a condition not needing aid, and collections have been made with difficulty. This dissatisfaction gives your committee grave anxiety, and inspires serious fears for the prosperity, if not the existence, of the Brotherhood. We are unable at this time to devise a complete solution for the trouble; but, without expressing a decided opinion in either direction, respectfully suggest that those of the laity who experience such doubts should regard this work as an agency for compensating past faithful services, always inadequately paid; and, on the other hand, that the heirs of such beneficiaries as are blessed with this world's goods, might themselves remove this objection, if they see fit, by waiving, as has been already done in one instance, their claims on the Brotherhood.

Your committee, in conclusion, cannot too strongly recommend to the clergy and laity of the diocese continued and increased support of the Brotherhood. We urge on the clergy to select and name for appointment, to the secretary in Richmond, a suitable person as agent in every parish, and we urge all lay persons not already connected with the organization to become members.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. PATTON,
R. S. LAWRENCE,
L. M. BLACKFORD,
Committee.

The Council resumed consideration of the report on the matter of application for permission to elect an Assistant Bishop.

Pending its discussion, the order for night service was, upon motion, rescinded, and the Council adjourned to meet to-morrow night at half-past 8 o'clock.

8:30 P. M.

The Council reassembled.

On motion the order of business was suspended that the Council and the congregation present might hear an address

Mr. H. W. Sheffey moved to give the close of the debate to the majority.

Carried.

On motion of Rev. J. B. Craighill, the time of the speakers was limited to thirty minutes each.

State of the Church.

On motion the Council adjourned until to-morrow at nine o'clock, A. M.

MAY 22, 1880.

The Council met at 9 A. M., and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by the Rev. Everard Meade.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Rev. D. M. Wharton and Mr. Andrew Lewis asked permission to announce that had they been present when the vote was taken last night, they would have voted for the majority report.

Rev. O. A. Kinsolving, from the Committee on the State of the Church, presented the following:

The Committee on the State of the Church would respectfully report, that after a careful consideration of such information as they have been able to gather, they think that the Diocese has much cause for devout thankfulness to our covenant Father, for the continued prosperity of our church in Virginia. During the past year the number confirmed was not as large as in the previous year, but the falling off is not great, and is only what is to be expected, from time to time, in the regular ministrations of the Gospel. The history of the church in all ages, shows that its progress is not always uniform, but that it is liable to such alternations, as to keep its ministers and members ever mindful of their own weakness and need of unceasing dependence upon Him, "without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy." The number confirmed during the year was eight hundred and eighty,—being more than one hundred less than the number confirmed the year before. But taking the average number of confirmations during the last ten years, we find that the aggregate is most encouraging, the number of communicants in the Diocese, within the last decade, being nearly doubled. Without laying an undue stress upon mere outward growth, or dwelling in a spirit of pride or boastfulness upon those indications of prosperity which may not be true and real, still in view of this steady increase, even in the numerical strength of the Diocese, surely we have reason to "thank God and take courage."

Another ground of encouragement, to which your committee may call the attention of the Council, is the unusually large number of candidates for orders, mentioned in the report of the Bishop. We may regard it as an evidence of God's special favor towards us, that in His kind providence He does thus continue to provide for the increasing demand for ministerial work within the limits of our own Diocese, and at the same time to furnish a supply for the continual drain that is being made upon Virginia by other parts of the Lord's vineyard. In former years it was "our joy and crown of rejoicing," that our foreign missionary field was almost entirely supplied by young men who received their theological training in our own Diocesan school of the prophets. And now, while that foreign field is still supplied in a large measure from the same source, it is a matter of gratification to us, that our loss is so often a gain to others who are more in need than we are, and that so many earnest ministers of Christ are annually going forth from Virginia to minister to our fellow-men in other States and Dioceses of our own country, still we cannot but regret at the same time that the supply is so limited at home. It has been so from the beginning, and the Saviour's lamentation over his state of things in His times may still be heard in its application to our own—"The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few." We call the attention of the church to this fact, and urge upon "every member of the same in his vocation and ministry" to remember in a practical way the divine remedy prescribed, "Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest." The vacant parishes and waste places in our Diocese do, no doubt, greatly need the services of these men. But we are persuaded that in many cases, there is no necessity for such vacancies as do exist, and are allowed to continue from year to year. An unreasonable hope is almost as damaging as despair, when brought to bear upon the energies and efforts of men. It always disappoints, and being "deferred maketh the heart sick." Frequent ministerial services is something not to be reasonably hoped for, in most of the vacant parishes of this Diocese. But a faithful minister, with the earnest co-operation of the laymen of his parish, may enlarge the field of his labors, and carry on a more extensive work in several parishes. The fewness of the laborers, as compared with the greatness of the harvest, seems to indicate that the circuit or district system, or the combination of several parishes, is the only available method by which the smaller country parishes are to be preserved. Even four or more may combine when a smaller number cannot support a minister, and by lay reading and other means, the churches may be kept open even in the absence of the minister.

In connection with this subject, your committee would call particular attention to the great decrease in the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Society. This has been very often heretofore "a lamentation," and alas, it seems "to be for a lamentation" from year to year. We cannot believe that any member of our communion places a light value upon the work of that Society, which has done so much to restore the waste places of our Diocese, and to establish the church in regions where it was before unknown. But if they are not indifferent to its object, many perhaps fail to remember that the work cannot be sustained without means. A work that requires six thousand dollars a year cannot be done with thirty-six hundred, the amount reported as having been contributed during the last year.

Your committee would like to allude to one or two other points connected with the prosperity of our church, and "the safety, honor, and spiritual welfare of her people," but these are points which have been oft repeated, and brought to the attention of the Council in the earnest words of the Bishop, in the annual reports of the committee on the state of the church, and in resolutions introduced and passed by the Council, warning the members of the church, in the most emphatic and solemn words, against the evils to which the church is always more or less liable, but to which in this age, it seems to be peculiarly exposed. We allude to the common evils of worldliness and intemperance, in which general terms are included nearly all the social difficulties with which Christianity has to contend. A clear and definite understanding of what the baptismal covenant means, and a sincere, true-hearted purpose on the part of every person who is confirmed and admitted into the communion of the church, which is fellowship with God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and not with that trinity of evil influences which are renounced in baptism, is the only safeguard against the dangers to which the attention of the members of our church is so often directed.

But there is one other subject which your committee cannot, in faithfulness, fail to bring to your notice, before we close this report on the state of the church, feeling, as they do, that it is a matter about which a friendly note of warning ought to be raised, and to which, they humbly hope that every person, of whatever shade of opinion, will give earnest heed. We allude to the perilous speculations which are becoming too common, both in England and this country, in regard to the doctrine so emphatically defined, and the thing itself deprecated in our Litany as "everlasting damnation." Your committee deem it proper to call the attention of our clergy and laity particularly to this subject, because we think that they cannot too carefully guard against the efforts now made by a growing school of religionists, to get rid of the doctrine of the everlasting punishment of the finally impenitent, which efforts tend to obscure the manifest teaching of the Holy Scriptures, to gradually sap the life and power of the great central fact of the atonement, to undermine the foundations of Christianity, and to loosen the church from its moorings by changing and denying "the faith as it was once delivered to the saints," and thus, in proportion to the success of such efforts, to injure the cause of religion in the church. Your committee are far from affirming that such speculations prevail as yet, to any considerable extent in this Diocese. But when peril to the faith approaches, the faithful cannot be too prompt, in meeting and taking all due precautions against it.

Mr. J. H. Claiborne, from the Finance Committee, presented the following:

version of same into registered bonds, in the name of the Bishop, to avoid difficulty in collecting the interest on same.

J. H. CLAIBORNE,
for the Committee.

The report was received and its recommendations approved.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the following from the Committee on Clerical Support.

The Committee on Clerical Support report as follows, viz: 22 parishes and churches are reported deficient, the deficiency aggregating $1,280.60; 16 parishes and churches are reported as having paid more than was promised, aggregating $581.24; 107 churches and parishes report paying in the aggregate $67,441.33, and averaging $630.29. If we deduct 26 churches in the cities and towns, paying each $1,000 and upwards, we have 81 parishes and churches paying an average of $304.27. If the parishes and churches not reporting, could be embraced in this calculation, the average salary paid would be even less than this amount.

Sixty-five churches and parishes report rectories, having in the aggregate 982 acres of land attached. Several parishes report having funds on hand for the purpose of building rectories.

As shown by the table at the end of the Journal, there are 35 churches and parishes from which no reports have been received; one church (Grace Memorial, Tillotson parish,) reports simply "all paid." There are, then, 143 churches from which reports should have been received, and from 35 (that is about one-fourth in number) no reports have been sent in; some of these may be vacant, but there are only a few of them from which reports should not have been received. In one parish or church the salary paid was $3,750; in one, $3,000; in four, from $2,000 to $3,000; in nine, from $1,500 to $2,000; in eight, from $1,000 to $1,500; in twenty, from $500 to $1,000, and in sixty-three, less than $500 each. On the whole, the clergy of the diocese are poorly paid. The delinquencies are about the same as last year, notwithstanding the earnest report made on that subject to the Council at its last session. In a few instances, perhaps, these delinquencies are only nominal. Your committee ask the Council to adopt the following resolutions:

Report of Historiographer.

1. That the list of delinquent parishes and churches be published in the Journal, and also the list of parishes and churches from which no reports have been received.
2. That the rectors in charge, treasurers and vestries, be requested to cause full, regular and accurate reports to be made each year to the secretary according to the forms prepared by him.
3. That the laity of the diocese be earnestly urged, even to the point of much self-denial, to provide increased compensation to the faithful and hard-working clergy of the diocese, so that changes in parochial charges may be lessened, and fewer of our clergy may be drawn away from the diocese for the means of bare support for themselves and their families.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY,
Chairman.

The report of Rev. Dr. Slaughter, historiographer of the diocese, was read by Rev. H. M. Jackson, and was ordered to be published in the Minutes.

The last Council, from which I was detained by illness, did me the honor in my absence to elect me historiographer of the diocese. This was an honor which I highly appreciated, and for which I now make a formal and grateful acknowledgment. It was with unaffected diffidence and reluctance that I accepted the office, for, while it accorded with my tastes and studies, I distrusted my physical ability to do its duties in a manner at all correspondent to my own conceptions and the reasonable anticipations of the friends who initiated and urged it. But believing as I did that the end aimed at was good, and that there was an urgent need that some steps should be taken without delay towards the realization of this end, I consented to undertake the work in weakness and in fear of failure. The first step I took was to try and find out what historical records had survived the flood which had swept over us and strewed our State and diocese with so many civil, ecclesiastical and literary, as well as physical wrecks. To this end I addressed, in the name and by the authority of the Council, a respectful and urgent request to the ministers and vestries of the diocese to be so kind as to tell me what records of the Colonial era were extant in their several parishes, and whether they were willing to have them deposited in the fire-proof library at the Seminary, subject to their orders should they see fit to reclaim them. This appeal in the Southern Churchman met with but few responses, which satisfied me that either there were but few such records extant other than those already in the Seminary library, or that there was an apathy upon the subject which was very discouraging. I then addressed, through the mail, like queries to the authorities of such old parishes as I thought were most likely to have such records. This direct inquiry elicited some melancholy facts, and among them the startling discovery that in the old parish of Bruton and city of Williamsburg, that of the original centres of Church and State, and head springs of our history, there is no extant record older than —

In the primitive shire of York, Parish York Hampton, originally called Charles River county and parish, the only relic of the colonial era is a fragment of a register in vellum, 1665 to 1800; condition very bad; pages wanting.

In the primitive county Isle of Wight (Warwequege), when it was invaded by Cornwallis and Tarlton, the parish records were buried by Nat. Burwell, clerk of the county, in a pit prepared for the purpose on the land of the late Henry Brock, the Order, Deed and Will books of the county court office, and the Berkley books from the first establishment of the plantation of 1637. Here most of them mouldered into illegible dust.

The only extant Vestry book begins in 1722 to 1769. This, too, would have perished but for the loving zeal and extraordinary diligence of Dr. Purdie, of Smithfield, who has transcribed it entire, except some orders and reports of processions. Such filial affection deserves the special and grateful recognition of the Council. This transcript is now in my possession and is the more valuable for the explanatory notes with which Dr. Purdie has enriched it.

The earliest colonial record remaining of the primitive shire, Henrico, is dated 1730. This book is in print, as all these old records should be.

the early colonial records are gone. Col. Lamb, in his very interesting lecture on old St. Paul's, Norfolk, states that he had received through Mr. Portlock, clerk, a church record of Elizabeth river parish from 1749 to 1761.

New Kent (Blissland and St. Peter's) was formed from primitive shire of York, and the records of Blissland church in that county are extant 1684.

Middlesex county.

Records of old Lancaster, afterwards Christ Church parish, are extant, 1664.

I have reclaimed the Vestry book of St. Patrick's parish, Prince Edward county, which had been lost for 100 years. It was found at Hampden Sidney College among the papers of an old secretary of the vestry which were inherited by Mr. Venable, of Prince Edward. Through the kind offices of Professor Holliday, of Hampden Sidney, I have that book, which contains the proceedings of the vestry from the organization of the parish till it became dormant, 1776, and which enables us to fill the chasms in Bishop Meade's sketch of that parish.

The following records are in the library at the Seminary:

Vestry Book, Petsor Parish, Gloucester county, Va. Number of pages, about 250; first legible date, September 4, 1677; last legible date July 11, 1793; binding half sheep; condition bad; paper badly stained, somewhat torn, and writing in many places illegible to the uninitiated; gaps do not seem to be numerous or important.

Vestry Book, St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper county Va. Number of pages, 440, with long intervals of blanks; dates—first, January 9, 1730; last, February 5, 1785; gaps don't seem to be serious; binding half sheep; condition quite good.

Pages, 205; dates—May 23d, 1745, and November 18th, 1802; gaps few, if any; binding vellum, badly preserved; condition bad, but writing legible. In the same volume are 96 pages of Indentures, from 1764 to 1782, in a good state of preservation.

Register Dumfries Parish, Prince William county, Va. Pages, 40; dates—1809–1824; gaps none; binding half sheep; condition good.

Bristol Parish Vestry Book and Register, beginning in 1723, are in good condition.

I have gotten from the Wisconsin Historical Society a MS. copy of a topographical description of Prince Edward county, Va., by Rev. John Spooner, A. M., rector of Martin's Brandon Parish, 1790, a very valuable document.

A diary of the Rev. Devereux Jarratt, rector of Bath Parish, Va., with a sermon on Regeneration, and the hymns which he used to sing in his congregations—all in his own beautiful hand-writing.

Some Colonial Virginia Almanacs; containing lists of the Clergy and Parishes, of the Burgesses and other civil officers, mail routes and other curious details.

A series, in succession of the Colonial Maps of Virginia, with pictorial illustrations; the seats of the principal gentlemen of the time are given in some of the maps, with other topographical and historical matter of interest, including the maps of Capt. John Smith, Harmers, Mitchell, Fry & Jefferson, &c., &c

A manuscript of Rev. Ethan Allen, a marvel of painstaking industry, so far as it goes, and if continued on the same plan would be to the history of the church, what Henning's Statutes are to the history of the state.

I have collected from the historical magazines, newspapers and other sources a number of articles, genealogical and historical; letters of historical people; family reminiscences and other miscellaneous matter; furnishing a book of reference which will be useful.

Parish Histories; Historical Sermons; Pamphlets and Essays, &c.; MS. Letters, &c., &c.

Genealogies, (unpublished), of families in Virginia.

I have succeeded in finding what has been a great desideratum by historians, the Records of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Madison county, Va., composed of Germans, who moved from Germanna about 1723, to Madison county. Among these is the original record of subscribers for the building of this church, gotten by their first member in Europe, 1736, the names of each subscriber, including German clergymen, literateurs and civilians, with sentiments following their names in numerous languages and dialects; registers of baptism, of the confirmed, and of communicants.

These documents have been much sought for by Lutheran and other historians, and have been supposed to be irrevocably lost. They are a valuable accession to the historical treasures of the state, and especially interesting to Episcopalians, because of the kindly relations which existed between the ministers of these Germans and the Episcopalians of Colonial times, of which I have given some account in my history of St. Mark's Parish.

I have from time to time contributed to the Southern Churchman historical articles, some of which were original, and others taken from sources only accessible to a few.

There are other records of old parishes in the hands of families who seem not willing to part with them.

These facts are respectfully submitted to the Council for any action that may seem good to them.

The Rev. James H. Stringfellow resigned the rectorship of this parish on May 12th, and at this date it is without a rector, though efforts are being made to secure one. During the past year the church building has been greatly enlarged and beautified, a new furnace bought, and the parish paid out of debt. The congregations on Sundays have been full and the week-day services have been well attended. The parish is now self-supporting and in a flourishing condition and is full of hope for the future.

Parochial Reports.

In connection with this parish there is a mission station in what is known as the "Free State." We have a chapel and quite a comfortable dwelling-house. At this station there are eight communicants, reported above. The services are remarkably well attended, and great much interest is manifested; $25 have been subscribed to repair church building. Since the last Council regular monthly services have been held in the parish chapel for the colored people; when the weather permitted there were large and very attentive congregations.

Mr. Charles E. Cosby's duties requiring him to be often absent, I have received valuable aid, additional to his, from Mr. George P. Higson and Mr. George T. Zachary, as licensed lay readers; an arrangement by which services can be kept up at Columbia by one, while the other can sometimes assist me at Fork Union. The faithfulness and devotion of all is most commendable.

REMARKS.—The greater portion of the $176 raised by the Ladies' Aid Society of White Chapel Church is in hand to be expended, as soon as practicable, for the purpose of enclosing the cemetery ground, surroundings, &c., of our ancient and time-honored White Chapel.

In addition to my work in Lancaster I have officiated occasionally at Heathsville, Northumberland county. Here the sum of $150 has been raised by the indefatigable efforts of a few females, which has liquidated the remainder due on their new church building, making it ready for consecration. I have also regularly officiated at Wicomico, in the same county, where a chapel has been fitted up in a few yards of the site of the old church (long since gone to decay), Wicomico. Within the past year the sum of $250 has been raised and expended on the chapel, leaving due about $100 to be raised before this congregation will be free of debt.

REMARKS.—I have been employed for one Sunday a month as evangelist, under which engagement I have preached twice a month for the colored people, and have been much encouraged in this good work. Rev. B. T. Turner has had charge of St. Andrew's Church, and has preached one Sunday night—for several months two—in St. James' Church. St. Andrews' Church is much revived under his ministry. A Sunday School is being organized at Christ Chapel at the county poor house.

The ladies of the Aid Society have cleared during the past year $225, the children $25. Over $200 have been expended outside of our own parish. Our losses have been great, both in numbers and in worth. I regret to report the death of Mr. Miles C. Selden, who for nearly thirty years served faithfully as the Senior Warden of the church, and was generally the delegate to Council from this parish.

REMARKS.—The rector has been enabled to render a fair amount of service within the council year, and with encouraging success, all things considered. A student from our Theological Seminary near Alexandria renders valuable aid, as a missionary in the county, during the summer. A neat church building will soon be up for that mission.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ST. ANDREW'S RECTORY,
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., April 30th, 1880.

Dear Bishop:

I respectfully submit the following report. I entered formally on the duties of evangelist to the Zion Unions July 1st.

As soon as the letter of welcome ordered by the Council was issued, copies were sent to every minister among them, assuring them the interest the church had in them, and the desire that the relations should be as "fraternal as possible."

This letter made a profound impression upon them, and when their conference met in August they presented a long petition asking explanation of certain clauses, and showed how close they desired the union to be by requesting confirmation and ordination, if it were possible, allowing them to retain their congregations and organization, ministering under the general direction and instruction of our church, introducing as fast as practicable the book of Common Prayer.

They carried with unanimity and enthusiasm a resolution of thanks to the Council for its consideration of them, and replied in answer to the question, "How close do you want the union to be?" "As close we can get." In November the Bishop visited the work, when all their ministers, with one or two exceptions, were present, ready and desirous of being confirmed. After a consultation upon the part of the committee appointed by the Council to take charge of the work, it was decided to be inexpedient; because, after confirmation they would become ordinary laymen, and the church could not authorize them to preach or minister the holy sacraments, and they were not fit subjects under the Canons for ordination. To allow them to be confirmed would break up their organization, for the church had no ministers to supply their congregations while they were undergoing preparation necessary for orders. All this was explained to them, and though sadly disappointed, they appreciated the candor and determined to wait. There were forty-six candidates present.

The committee was invited to confer with them in March, their Bishop presiding. After a full and free discussion of all the questions upon their part, the following preamble and resolutions were separately and as a whole unanimously adopted as the result of their deliberations :

At a meeting of the ministers and delegates of the Zion Union Apostolic Church, held at Union Bethel, Brunswick county, March 10th, 1880, to consider their relations, present and future, towards the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Virginia, and to express their feelings and desires as to the work undertaken by that church among them, it was—

Resolved, 1st. That holding firmly to our church organization as now constituted, and with no present desire to change the same, we feel the deepest gratitude to the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Christian love and charity which has been extended to us by the same in teaching and disciplining our people, aiding them to embrace a pure Christian faith, and to lead godly and Christian lives.

2nd. That we earnestly desire that the work controlled by the same principle shall be continued, as we feel that great spiritual improvement to our churches has resulted from the faithful Christian teaching and instruction of Mrs. Buford, the missionary, and others of the committee charged with that work.

3rd. That the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church contains sound doctrine for the edification of all Christian people, and we recommend its use in our churches as the ministers shall find it practicable.

4th. That we desire to record our deep sense of gratitude to Mrs. F. E. Buford, and our high appreciation of her untiring zeal and devoted work, and we heartily pray Almighty God to prolong her life to us for future usefulness among our people.

5th. That we desire that Rev Robb White shall be continued as missionary to the churches of our communion. Signed : Rev. Geo. Taylor, chairman, Revs. Charles Brown, Albert Brown, Samuel Barner, Geo. Williams, Oscar Jones, William E. Howell. Laymen : J. J. Graves, William Burnett.

Mrs. Buford and I were invited to New York to attend the Missionary Conference in October. The result of the trip, principally through Mrs. Buford's presence and instrumentality, were contributions to the work amounting to thirteen hundred dollars, which amount is subject to her check. She has also received through the Woman's Auxiliary Aid Society a number of boxes, containing clothing, books and supplies of every description for the poor and sick. And just here I desire to record my high appreciation of Mrs. Bu rd's executive ability. Wherever I go I find Sunday Schools organized and furnished with uniform text-books, and in every congregation accessible to her there are two trustworthy women, members of a society for the relief of the suffering and destitute, whose duty it is to report bona fide cases of destitution, to nurse the sick, supplying them with comfortable clothing, bed clothes, groceries and medicines.

Miscellaneous.

Through the instrumentality of this organization hundreds have been ministered unto. A new school house has been built at a cost of two hundred and sixty dollars. The school numbers one hundred and thirty-eight scholars. The services of an efficient and acceptable assistant have been secured. At the chapel of the Good Shepherd I assisted Bishop Elliott, of Texas, at the baptism of sixty-nine persons, principally children of the school, though some were adults.

In the various churches there are fourteen hundred Sunday School scholars, under the teaching of the church. Those of them whom I have catechised repeat with astonishing accuracy the Church Catechism, the Calvary Catechism, and many of them repeat the Sermon on the Mount and other chapters from the Bible.

They love to be catechised and to hear the gospel, and wherever I have been the congregations have been very large and very attentive.

In conducting the services it is impossible to introduce the Psalter, as very few of them can read. They repeat heartily the General Confession, the Lord's Prayer, and the Creed. They do not always wait until the end of the prayer to say Amen.

As agent of the American Bible Society, without compensation, I furnish them with Bibles, and it is a rare thing that one is found who is not willing and anxious to pay for a Bible. They all want a family Bible with large print and a family record, and they never come for their books without bringing the money.

With this statement of facts I close. I believe this to be a great work. I leave others to their conclusions, hoping that the church will continue to support it, and enjoy a rich harvest of spiritual blessing which seems already within her grasp.

Very respectfully, yours in Christ,

ROBB WHITE, Evangelist.

To Rt. Rev. Francis M. Whittle, DD., LL. D.

Miscellaneous.

TENNESSEE SCHOOL FOR DEAF AND DUMB,
Knoxville, Tenn., May 1st, 1880.

The Rt. Rev. Francis M. Whittle,
Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia.

My Dear Bishop:—In compliance with the canon, I take pleasure in submitting this, my first report of mission work done in the interest of the deaf and dumb in the diocese of Virginia.

Since the date of my ordination as deacon, four months ago, I have visited different sections of the diocese and held services at Staunton, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Concord Depot, Wytheville and Edinburg, Shenandoah county. It has been my pleasure to assist at the celebration of the blessed communion, and also to baptize the children of my fellow unfortunates and former pupils.

I shall devote closer attention to this diocese than any other, excepting that of West Virginia, which will receive equal attention; still the nature of my work shall require much of my time in ministering to the spiritual wants of the deaf and dumb in other dioceses. I have already, in the last four months, visited and conducted divine services at prominent points in West Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky, Arkansas, Tennessee, Missouri, Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama. After leaving here I am to labor in Georgia, North and South Carolina.

I cannot close this without giving expression to the grateful feelings I entertain for the privilege bestowed upon me to labor for the advancement of a heavenly calling among those who are even as I am, who, but for the aid of the Church, and by the grace of God, would be devoid of privileges now vouchsafed to them. I must also note with thankfulness the kindly and cordial encouragement given me, by the clergy and laity in all places, for the continuance and advancement of the gospel among deaf mutes.

By Divine permission I hope to be present at the meeting of the Council at Petersburg on the 19th instant, hoping thereby to enlarge my acquaintance among the clergy and laity of the diocese, and thereby increase my usefulness.

Praying for blessings upon you, my dear Bishop, and all who labor for the advancement of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour, and for efficacy in the discharge of labors committed to me,

I am humbly yours in Christ,

JOB TURNER.

MISSIONARY REPORT.

To Bishop Whittle :

Christ church, Spotsylvania county.—Communicants: formerly reported 20, removed 1, present number 19. Baptisms: adults, colored 1, infants, white 1, colored 29, total 33.

St. John's church, Spotsylvania county.—Communicants: formerly reported 22, added 1, removed 1, present number 22. Baptism: 1 white infant.

St. Margaret's, Caroline county.—Communicants: formerly reported 27, removed 4, present number 23.

The above report is meagre. Owing to sickness, loss of voice, and the infirmities of age, the work in this mission during the past year has been very inadequately done. There seems to be no other course for me than to retire in the coming fall, even if I can hold out so long.

The field, which is strictly missionary, is an important one, and needs a man who is both able and willing to labor. Such a man I trust and pray you may find, and that the missionary society may be able to sustain him.

About $35 have been collected for Diocesan missions.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle :

Rev. and Dear Bishop:—Looking to a union of the two churches in St. Andrew's parish, under one who could be so situated as to be a pastor to them, I ceased to preach at Trinity Church after the first Sunday in January. I continue to preach at Sapony Church, Dinwiddie, one Saturday in every month, where I hope some good is being done. Since discontinuing services at Trinity, I have given one Sunday in each month, by special invitation, to a congregation in Dinwiddie, many of whom were once attendants at Trinity, but now have no facilities to go so far to Church. We give one Sabbath each month to a colored congregation to which we have heretofore ministered, and occasional services at the new church near Major Neblett's.

Most respectfully submitted,

E. B. JONES, Deacon.

 Report of Committee on Contingent Fund.

Rev. H. M. Jackson, from the committee appointed at the last Council to consider and report upon the subject of the Contingent Fund, presented the following:

The committee, to whom was referred the subject of the Contingent Fund, respectfully report that they have given the subject the attention which its importance demands.

The resolution adopted at the last Council, under which they act, reads as follows:

Resolved, That the subject of the Contingent Fund, the method of raising the same, the amount of assessment, and the disposition of it, be referred to a committee of three, to report to the next Council."

Three distinct questions are raised by that resolution and made the duty of the committee to consider:—(1.) The method of raising the fund; 2, the amount of the assessment; and (3,) the disposition of it. For obvious reasons your committee will consider these questions in inverse order.

1. The disposition of the fund.—The objects to which the Contingent Fund is now applied are as follows:

(1.) The salaries and expenses of the officers of the Diocese, to-wit:
(a.) The Bishop about - - - - -	$4,000 00
(b.) Secretaries, - - - - -	430 00
(c.) Historiographer, - - - - -	500 00
(d.) Examining Chaplains, - - - - -	361 00
Total salaries, - - - - -	$5,291 00
(2.) Evangelists:
Salaries and expenses about - - - - -	$2,145 00
(3.) Journal:
Average expense (for past five years), - - -	$618 71
(4.) General Convention expenses:
Distributed through three years, will amount annually,	$374 66
(5.) Incidental expenses (estimated), - - - - -	246 04
Total, - - - - -	$8,674 75

With respect to these expenditures your committee have no recommendations to offer, except (1.) That the salaries and expenses of the evangelists, in their judgment, should not be paid from the Contingent Fund of the Diocese; and (2,) that the expenses connected with the Journal should be reduced.

(1.) With respect to the evangelists, it is with extreme regret that we have been forced to the conclusion that this very efficient branch of the missionary service should be provided for in some other way. No one can deny that the Contingent Fund is a levy upon the parishes for a distinct purpose, viz: To provide an Episcopal Fund, and to meet the contingent expenses of the Diocese. It is not, and it was never designed to be, a Missionary Fund. The appropriation, therefore, of any part of it to missionary purposes, is an appropriation apart from its original design. Moreover, it is a practical division of the missionary enterprises of the Diocese—a part whereof are sustained by a tax upon the people, and a part by their voluntary offerings. It is no part of the duty assigned to us to discuss the propriety of sustaining missionary enterprises by taxes, but we do insist that the Contingent Fund should be applied to the purposes for which it is collected from the people, and for none other, and if there be a surplus after these purposes are met, then such surplus should be converted into a permanent fund, having in view the reduction, if not the final extinction, of the tax now laid upon the people.

(2.) With respect to the Journal, your committee would submit that it is a very expensive luxury. The annual cost of printing and mailing is upwards of $600. We respectfully recommend that the Parochial Reports, instead of being printed seriatim, should be tabulated in the manner ordinarily followed in such matters. The size of the volume, and presumably the cost of publication, would be reduced nearly one-half.

2. The second question before your committee is, The Amount of Assessment.

Although, if the foregoing recommendations be approved, the expenses of the Diocese would be reduced about $2,250, yet we are not prepared to recommend any reduction in the amount now realized to the Contingent Fund.

The receipts reported by the Treasurer at the last Council amounted to $9,422.47—a sum $500 greater than has been collected any year since the division of the Diocese.

The Episcopal Residence has been entirely paid for; and the last instalment to West Virginia will be paid shortly after this Council has adjourned from the Contingent Fund now collected. Hence, in the future, there are no extraordinary obligations to be met. While, therefore, a much smaller sum might suffice to meet the needs of the Diocese, yet it cannot be long before either a division of the Diocese, or the election of an Assistant Bishop, must increase our expenses, in which case it will become necessary to increase our revenues, and it is not desirable to make many changes. We do not find, therefore, that the total amount realized to this fund should be materially reduced.

3. But the third question submitted to your committee was, The Method of Assessment.

The plan now in operation is, as is well known, to assess the several parishes upon the basis of communicants, i. e., one dollar for each communicant reported. This plan has the merit of simplicity, and of being well understood, and the sanction of long custom. These advantages would determine us in recommending no change if it were not for the many disadvantages which attend it. That this method has grave defects is sufficiently attested by the fact that the Diocese is absolutely unable to realize the amount of its assessment. In the past five years there has been a positive loss to the Diocese upon its assessment of about $12,000. The annual deficiency is now about $3,000, or nearly one-fourth of the assessment. Certainly this large deficiency is conclusive proof that the prevailing system is a pressing burden upon our parishes which very many have resigned all hope of sustaining. This hope being surrendered, the practical result is, that each Parish assesses itself and pays the amount its officers think it is able to pay. This process will go on, and the number of parishes which will cease their efforts to raise the Diocesan assessment, and will adopt an assessment of their own will annually increase. But the defect of this system appears in the large total deficit, but in the delinquency of many of our largest parishes.

Grace Church, Petersburg, has an average annual deficit during the past five years of about $400, and during that period a total of $2,039. St. Mark's Church, Richmond, has an average deficit during the same period of $230, and a total of $1,160. Christ Church, Norfolk, in like manner, falls short yearly by about $200, having a total delinquency in five years of $1,020. Some smaller parishes have even a larger proportionate deficiency.

Your committee would hesitate to exhibit these facts if they were to the discredit of the parishes named. But it is a singular proof of the defect of this system, that these large deficiencies only show that these churches are making advance in what is the great mission of the Church, to bring the gospel as this Church has received the same in contact with the poorer classes of society. But while these facts show this, they also display the manifest unfairness of a system which thus is seen to press most heavily upon those least able to bear it. Of all the bases for assessment which might be selected, the number of communicants is the most unsatisfactory. It contains no hint or indication of the ability of the Parish. The fact that one Parish has one hundred more communicants than another, is no proof whatever that it is richer. A Parish with twenty communicants may be wealthier than a Parish with two hundred, and yet this system can take no cognizance of that fact; and the poorer Parish is assessed ten times as much for Diocesan purposes as the richer.

Such considerations as these have led your committee to examine whether there may not be an assessment which will square more accurately with the ability of the several parishes than are made upon the basis of communicants. Having settled in their minds that there should be no considerable reduction of the amount now realized, it remained for them to ascertain upon what basis of assessments this amount could be most equitably distributed among the parishes.

Two plans suggested themselves (1) on the basis of Parish expenses. The total amount of Parish expenses, including salaries, reported to the last Council was found to be $105,911.31, of which eight per cent. would amount to $8,472.90. (2.) On the basis of total contributions. These amounted, according to the report to the last Council, to $193,034.93. An assessment of five per cent. on this sum would amount to $9,651.75; a sum a little in excess of that realized under the present system.

After calculating and compiling tables of these assessments for each Parish, and comparing them, we were led to prefer the latter, for the double reason that it realizes a larger sum and that it proved to be a more equitable distribution of the assessment. We were pleased to discover how accurately, in every case, this rate of assessment squared with the ability of the parishes as evidenced by their past payments to this fund.

Those parishes with heavy deficiencies were found to be most largely reduced. Considering, for example, these churches already named, we find that Grace Church, Petersburg, with its annual average deficit of about $400, would have its assessment reduced $380. St. Mark's Church, Richmond, with its annual deficiency of $230, would have its assessment reduced $168. Christ Church, Norfolk, with its annual deficiency of about $200, would have its assessments reduced nearly $100.

These churches, having been previously named, are used merely as illustrations. The like result will be found in all the parishes; those having the largest deficiencies are generally reduced the most.

There are, of course, a few exceptional cases—perhaps owing to exceptional reports. Some of the parishes (there are but three important enough to be taken into the account), would have their assessment increased; but, although your committee think that even this would be a fairer arrangement than the other, yet they are not prepared to recommend or advocate any increase of assessment upon any individual Parish. They will, therefore, in the resolutions herewith appended, introduce a provision designed to cover such exceptional cases.

It is now necessary to ask what will be the probable income derived from the Contingent Fund under this system?

We reply that the total contributions of the parishes last year was, in round numbers, $193,000, of which five per cent. would be $9,650. The expenses of the Diocese (an account of which has been kindly furnished the committee by the treasurer), are $8,674.75.

If the entire amount of five per cent. in the total contributions could be realized, the income would be nearly $1,000 in excess of expenditures.

But a deduction of about $1,000 must be made for the exceptional cases above alluded to.

On the other hand, the reports (this being the first year in which Parish expenses are reported) are so imperfect, that we think it fair to assume that more complete reports would restore the balance.

We therefore think that the income would be in excess of expenditures from $500 to $1,000. If the recommendations of this report, respecting the Evangelists and the Journal, be adopted, the excess would be nearly $3,000.

It will be said, however, that the full amount of the assessment, whatever it be, can never be realized, and that therefore some margin should be left for deficiencies. To this we reply that, in the judgment of the committee, the full amount of this assessment will, in all probability, be very nearly realized.

Report of Committee on Contingent Fund.

We think so for these reasons:

(1.) Each Parish pays now an amount about equal to this assessment, and there is no reason to believe it will pay less than it now gives.

(2.) Because the very fact that there is no very considerable margin above the expenses, will stimulate the parishes to meet their obligations. When the assessment is nearly double the expenditures of the Diocese (as it now is), it is very likely that a Parish will not feel so strongly the obligation to pay the full amount of such assessment.

(3.) Because this system is a reduction to the measure of the ability of the parishes, is a less burdensome tax and will meet with a more cheerful response.

(4.) Because it is a perfectly fair assessment, pressing equally upon all the parishes in proportion to their means, and therefore can excite no dissatisfaction.

Your committee is convinced that an assessment of five per cent. upon the total contributions of the parishes is the best and most equitable method which can be devised for providing for the Episcopal and Contingent Funds of the Diocese. We, therefore, respectfully submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That five per cent. of the total contributions of a Parish for one year shall be its assessment for the year next ensuing for the stated and contingent expenses of the Diocese: provided, that in no case shall the assessment upon any Parish be greater than a sum equal to one dollar for each communicant.

2. That whatever surplus annually remains, after the payment of these expenses, shall be converted into a Permanent Fund under the direction of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

3. That it is inadvisable to pay the salaries of evangelists from the Contingent Fund of the Diocese.

4. That the Parochial Reports published in the Journal shall be tabulated and not published seriatim.

The report was ordered to be printed in the Journal, and aid over for consideration at the next Council.

Resolutions—Communications from General Convention.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey offered the following:

Resolved, That in order to fill the vacancies caused by the deaths of John M. Miller and N. H. Massie, two of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, that Charles M. Blackford and J. Thompson Brown be nominated to the Board of Trustees, one of whom may be chosen to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Miller, and that George M. Harrison and Anthony McLean be nominated to the Board of Trustees, one of whom may be chosen to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Massie.

Carried.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey offered the following:

Resolved, That the Committee on the "Widows and Orphans Fund" consider the expediency of making an allowance annually out of the fund under their control to Mrs. C. P. Mackenheimer, whose husband was a clergyman of this Diocese at the time of his death, but who had not been for three years canonically settled therein, and that they report the amount they may deem it proper to allow to Mrs. Mackenheimer to aid her in the support of herself and her daughter.

Carried.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey moved a reconsideration of the time for considering the report of the Committee on Canons.

Adopted.

It was resolved to consider the report immediately after the reading of the Bishop's Address to-morrow.

The Bishop presented a report of the Historiographer of the Diocese, which by general consent was laid upon the table for the present.

The Bishop presented to the Council three communications received by him from the officers of the General Convention:

To the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese of Virginia:

RIGHT REVEREND SIR,—In compliance with the requirements of Title III, Canon 1, § 3 of the Digest, I hereby give notice that the following changes of the Book of Common Prayer are proposed : to-wit, those comprised in the resolution subjoined, said resolution having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held in the city of New York in October, A. D. 1880 :

Resolved, That the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer be amended so as to read as follows, and that such proposed amendment be made known to the several Diocesan Conventions, in order that it may be adopted in the next General Convention, according to Article 8 of the Constitution :

THE RATIFICATION OF THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER,

By the Bishops, the Clergy, and the Laity of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in General Convention assembled.

The General Convention of this Church having heretofore—to-wit, on the sixteenth day of October, A. D. 1789—set forth and established a Book of Common Prayer and administration of the Sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the Church, and thereby established the said book, and declared it to be the liturgy of this Church, and required that it be received as such by all the members of the same, and be in use from and after the first day of October, A. D. 1790 : the same book is hereby ratified and confirmed, and ordered to be the use of this Church from this time forth.

But note, however, that on days other than Sunday, Christmas day, the Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Ascension day, it shall suffice if the minister begin morning or evening prayer at the general confession, or the Lord's Prayer, preceded by one or more of the sentences appointed at the beginning of morning and evening prayer, and end after the collect for grace, or the collect for aid against perils, with 2 Cor. xiii, 14, using so much of the lessons appointed for the day, and so much as the Psalter as he shall judge to be for edification.

And note, also, that on any day when morning and evening prayer shall have been duly said, or are to be said, and upon days other than those first afore-mentioned, it shall suffice, when need may require, if a sermon or lecture be preceded by at least the Lord's Prayer, and one or more collects found in this book : provided, that no prayers not set forth in said book, or otherwise authorized by this Church, shall be used before or after such sermon or lecture.

And note further, also, that on any day the morning prayer, the litany, or the order for the administration of the Lord's Supper, may be used as a separate and independent service, provided that no one of these services shall be disused habitually.

In testimony whereof I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

MEDFORD, MASS., May 2, A. D. 1881.

MEDFORD, MASS., Nov. 10, 1880.

My Dear Sir,—In accordance with a resolution adopted by the House of Deputies, at the recent session of the General Convention, I beg to transmit to you the accompanying report of a "Special Committee on Increasing the Fund for Disabled Clergy; and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen."

In doing so, I am desirous to call your attention to the approval of the plan proposed by the committee, contained in the following message from the House of Bishops.

NEW YORK, 19th day of the Session,

Message No. 76.

The House of Bishops informs the House of Deputies that it has adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the House of Bishops has received with lively satisfaction the communication from the House of Deputies, contained in its Message No. 70, informing it of the action taken looking to the increase of the Fund for Disabled Clergymen and their families. The Bishops hail with joy this prospect for the relief of our suffering brethren, and of the families of those departed, and heartily approve the action taken.

Attest:

HENRY C. POTTER, Secretary.

Commending this subject to the careful consideration of your Diocesan Council, in accordance with one of the accompanying resolutions, unanimously adopted by the House of Deputies,

I am, dear sir, your obedient servant,

CHARLES S. HUTCHINS,

Secretary of the House of Deputies.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INCREASING THE FUND FOR DISABLED CLERGY AND THEIR FAMILIES.

On the fourth day of the present session of the General Convention (October 11th), a Deputation from the House of Bishops, consisting of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lee, Bishop of Delaware, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lay, Bishop of New York, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Dudley, Assistant Bishop of Kentucky, presented to the House of Deputies, in cogent and convincing appeal and argument, the cause of disabled clergy and the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen.

This almost unprecedented action of the House of Bishops in bringing upon the House of Deputies the earnest consideration of a measure, was avowedly designed to impress upon the latter the eminent estimate which our Rt. Rev. Fathers entertained of the importance of the cause they thus presented for consideration.

With the earnest words of the Bishops still fresh in our memory, and their glowing sentiments still warm in our hearts, it is scarcely necessary that your committee should enlarge upon the merits of the matter referred to their consideration.

That the Church should, first of all, extend a helping hand to those who have ministered at her altars until age and infirmity have weakened their powers, is a self-evident proposition.

The sentences selected to be read, while "the alms for the poor and other devotions of the people" are being received, in the Office of the Holy Communion, do most unequivocally set forth the great principle that the support of the clergy is properly derivable from the offerings of the people,—that "they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel." The soldier who fights his country's battles is amply supported by the government which he serves; and when he is wounded, or disabled, or incapacitated by old age, the State still supports him and his family, and when he dies there is a pension to his widow. This usage obtains in many other relations of secular life; but we are left to mourn the fact, and a humiliating fact it is, that they, who give their lives for the welfare of their fellow-men and the glorifying of the Lord Jesus Christ, are in many instances left to maintain their ministry of toil and self-denial in circumstances of suffering poverty. Shall not the Church care for her children as the State does for hers?

The Church presents us the manifest duty, nay, in the revelation of God, even from the beginning, it is clearly enforced, that "they who minister about holy things (should) live of the sacrifice." Now, our Rt. Rev. Fathers have come before us, and urged to immediate action in this pre-eminent charity, this paramount duty of humanity. Your committee recognize the grateful fact that a step has been taken in the direction to which we are bidden, by depositing with the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen, a royalty upon the publication and sale of our Hymnal. The money thus received and disbursed by the Trustees of this fund has been the means of relieving much suffering, but the amount is quite inadequate to meet the great and painful wants.

Your committee further recognize the several Diocesan efforts in this direction, which have been organized and administered with varying measures of success; but while these serve in part to relieve the need of the disabled clergy in the older and richer Dioceses, where they are chiefly to be found, still they do not contemplate the extension of aid to the feebler Dioceses, where no such organizations exist, nor to the vast missionary jurisdictions, where now, and for many years to come, the want will be found to be greatest and the means of help the feeblest.

The immediate question is, What can be done to increase the fund designed for general distribution?

Your committee have had a number of projects referred to them, all of which have received their respectful consideration. There are difficulties insuperable to almost every plan, save that which is manifestly set forth in the Church's theory, as translated to us in the Offertory Sentences. The Rubric in the Communion Office is in harmony with this, when it provides for the collection not only of "alms for the poor," but for "the other devotions" (or consecrated gifts) "of the people." Now, for what are these "other devotions" of the people designed if not for that very purpose set forth in the Offertory Sentences which ask for them? It can scarcely be too much emphasized in this connection, that the Offertory appeals only for the relief of the poor and the sustentation of the clergy.

Communications from General Convention.

And then the Canon [Title I., Canon 14, ¶ 3 of the Digest], speaking of "the Alms and Contributions of the Holy Communion" as proper to be applied by the minister, or under his superintendence, to such pious and charitable uses as shall by him be thought fit—after dividing a certain part for the relief of the poor, which may rightly be called the "Alms,"—what "pious and charitable use" can possibly be made of the other part, called "Contributions," of as great and pressing import, of as high and holy character, of as appropriate and divinely ordered description, as giving relief to our suffering brothers who have spent their lives in fatherly offices in the "household of faith"?

Your committee feel the difficulty of fixing, at once, upon any method which shall be general and final, but prefer to submit such measures as shall be rather tentative, while proposing further investigation in the way of correspondence and the compilation of statistics.

Your committee therefore beg to submit the following resolutions for the approval of this House:

1. Resolved, That the committee appointed to consider the subjects of the increase of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen, be continued, with an increased membership, with instructions to act in the premises during the time intervening before the next General Convention, to the end that they may the better accomplish the objects for which the committee was raised.

2. Resolved, That this House do earnestly request the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils that they duly consider, and, if they find it expedient, approve, commend, and endorse the eminent charity embraced in the purpose and effort of this committee.

3. Resolved, That every minister in charge of a congregation be requested to reserve, from this time forth, out of "the alms and other devotions" of the people, collected upon each and every occasion of the administration of the Lord's Supper, a percentage of the whole amount, not less than one nor more than ten per cent., at the discretion of the minister, the same to be forwarded and paid over to the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen.

4. Resolved, That this committee be instructed to correspond with the authorities of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction, for the purpose of collecting facts and statistics bearing upon the subject committed to them, such as the local provision now made in certain Dioceses for the relief of disabled clergy and their families, the wants that now exist and that are unsupplied, the irregular and unorganized assistance that is now being extended, and all other information that shall contribute to a full exhibit of the present condition of this charity and its probable future; and that this committee prepare and present to the next General Convention a digest of all the information thus gathered, with reference to further and more formal action.

5. Resolved, That this committee be further instructed to inquire into the practicability of founding a Sustentation Fund for supplementing the salaries of clergymen who have not suitable support.

6. Resolved, That the Secretary of the House of Deputies be instructed to publish this report in the Church Press, to send copies to the Bishops of the Church and to the Secretaries of the Conventions or Councils of the Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions, with the request that the report be submitted to the consideration of the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils.

7. Resolved, That this report be respectfully communicated to the House of Bishops as the response of this body to their request that some action be taken upon the subject of the relief of disabled clergy and their families, and that, in submitting this report, it is hoped that it will meet the approval of our Rt. Rev. Fathers.

All which is duly submitted.

6 NEWBERRY ST., BOSTON, APRIL, 1881.

Right Rev. and Dear Sir,—Will you be good enough to read this letter at the next meeting of the Convention of your Diocese, and to invite an expression of opinion from the Convention in reply to the questions asked in it.

By reference to the Journal of the General Convention you will see that the matter of providing for the expenses of the Deputies was brought up in both houses. On page 214 of the Journal you will find a resolution offered by the Bishop of Virginia, that, the House of Deputies concurring, it is incumbent on the several Dioceses to make provision for the entertainment of their own deputies to the General Convention. The Assistant Bishop of Kentucky offered the following as a substitute—That it be referred to a committee of three bishops, three presbyters and three laymen, to consider the expediency of increasing the assessment to be paid by the Dioceses to the General Convention, so as to pay the expenses per diem of the Bishops and the clerical and lay deputies.

Communications from General Convention.

On page 41 of the Journal of the House of Deputies you will find that Mr. Blair, of Maryland, offered a resolution—That, the House of Bishops concurring, it be referred to a committee of three bishops, three clergymen and three laymen, to consider and report as to the expediency of so increasing the assessment upon the Dioceses as to enable the General Convention to pay the expenses incurred by the clerical members in attending its sessions.

This was referred to the Committee on Expenses. Their reports will be found on the 104th and 127th pages, in which they mention that they have ascertained the travelling expenses of the members of this Convention to be thirty thousand two hundred and forty-two dollars, and to provide for the travelling expenses of the Bishops and Deputies of the next Convention, an assessment of ten cents on each communicant must be laid, or of ten dollars on each clergyman.

At the same meeting it was voted—That the Committee on Expenses be empowered to sit during the recess, and to take full and final action touching the travelling expenses of members of the next General Convention.

The committee ask for information if any provision is now made in your Diocese for the travelling expenses of the Bishop and Deputies to the General Convention. They also invite an expression of opinion from each Diocesan Convention whether it is best that the General Convention should undertake to provide these expenses by an assessment on each Diocese. The sum of ten cents upon each communicant would be the smallest assessment providing enough to meet these expenses. You can easily calculate the assessment on your Convention.

There is a great difference in the travelling expenses of the Bishops and Deputies of different Dioceses. A sum of nearly three thousand dollars must be provided to pay the travelling expenses from California and Oregon to Philadelphia; of thirteen hundred and fifty dollars from Texas to Philadelphia; from Arkansas, nine hundred and fifty-six dollars. From New York or Maryland the amount would be only fifty dollars.

A prompt answer to this communication is very desirable, so that the committee can take early action if this course is recommended by the Diocesan Conventions.

G. C. SMARTTUCK,
Chairman of Committee on Expenses.

REPORT OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN:

In the good providence of God we are permitted to assemble in the Eighty-sixth Annual Council of the Church, in the Diocese of Virginia, and I pray that throughout our deliberations the Holy Spirit may, with His most gracious favor, direct all our thoughts, words and acts to the glory of Christ and the advancement of His kingdom.

In the past year sickness and affliction in my family, the unusual severity of the winter, and attendance at the General Convention during nearly the whole month of October, have not allowed me to accomplish as much work as I proposed, though I have done more than usual, as the following report will show.

1880, May 22.—In St. Stephen's (colored) Church, Petersburg, after sermon by Bishop Penick, confirmed twenty-one.

 Bishop's Report.

May 23.—Preached in St. John's and confirmed five.

June 1.—Preached in St. John's, Louisa, and confirmed two.

June 2.—Preached in Grace, Albemarle, and confirmed six. This occasion was rendered peculiarly solemn by the fact, that the Rev. and venerable E. Boyden, impelled by age and infirmities, having signed the last two churches, after a faithful rectorship of thirty-two years, took leave of the congregation, in a wise, earnest and affecting dress.

June 3.—Christ Church, Charlottesville, preached and confirmed eleven.

June 4.—Trinity, Staunton, preached and confirmed fifteen.

June 6.—Preached in the morning in Grace Church, Lexington, and confirmed six, and at night preached in the Chapel of Washington and Lee University.

June 8.—Trinity, Buchanan, preached and confirmed one.

June 17.—Assisted by Rev. Messrs. Lindsay of Georgetown, and W. Nelson, of Warrenton, consecrated St. Stephen's Church, near Mettett's Station, Fauquier county, preached, confirmed three and celebrated the Lord's Supper. This is a commodious and handsome building, erected on the site of one which was destroyed during the war. Then without a pastor, for the past six months the Parish has enjoyed the services of Rev. J. E. Jackson.

June 18.—Preached in St. James', Brentsville, and confirmed two, and in Trinity, Manassas, and confirmed thirteen.

June 19.—Preached in the morning at Clifton, and in the afternoon St. John's Church, Centreville, Fairfax county.

June 20.—In the morning, preached in the Seminary Prayer Hall, and confirmed seven; in the afternoon preached in Falls Church, Fairfax, and at night in Grace, Alexandria, and confirmed eleven.

June 25.—In St. Paul's, Alexandria, ordained eight persons deacons and two deacons presbyters, Rev. Messrs. Hains, Packard, and after assisting in the services, and Dr. J. Peterkin preaching the sermon.

Bishop's Report.

Bishop's Report.

- 16.—Preached in the churches in Portsmouth, and confirmed in St. John's and nine in Trinity.
- 17.—St. Luke's, Norfolk, preached and confirmed eighteen. Each building of this flourishing congregation had been greatly and improved since my last visit.
- 18.—Administered the communion to a sick person at Rocky Mount, Franklin county, the minister in charge being only in deacon's orders.
- 19.—Consecrated Ascension Church, Franklin county, and confirmed ten, and celebrated the Lord's Supper; and at the same time preached, confirmed one, and administered the communion in Trinity Church, Franklin Courthouse. Ascension Church, a substantial, comfortable and pretty building, flourishing Sunday School and congregation and growing in numbers, was all commenced by one earnest woman, and has been brought on to its present state of prosperity and success by her and a sister, who soon came to her help. May the Lord ever and more, bless these good people in their labors for His Kingdom and the salvation of their fellow-men. I have reported my preaching the Lord's Supper at night. This, under ordinary circumstances, in my judgment, unlawful. But I felt justified in violating the canon, to understand to be the order of the Church, by the necessity of the case, there being no other time when the Sacrament could be celebrated.
- 20.—Preached in Grace Memorial Church, Lynchburg, and confirmed four.
- 21.—Preached, morning and night, in St. Paul's, Lynchburg; at the former service ordaining Rev. Edward S. Gregory to the ministry, and at the latter confirming seventeen. The Rev. E. W. Mason, J. K. Mason, J. H. Williams, and T. M. Carson, rector of the church, assisted in the services.
- 22.—Preached in the court-house in Farmville, and confirmed five.
- 23.—Preached in the churches in Fredericksburg, and confirmed nine in St. George's and five in Trinity; also in St. George's, Spotsylvania, and confirmed three.
- 24.—After sermon by Rev. P. Powers, confirmed four in St. Paul's, Richmond.
- 25.—Preached in Emmanuel, Harrisonburg, and confirmed seven. I grieve to say that the earnest and able rector of this church, Rev. T. Jervis-Edwards, has been constrained, by continued bad health to resign his charge. His brief ministry, of less than two years, will leave fruit which must abide for all time. Besides spiritual results he has done the important work of relieving the parish of a large debt on the church building, which had been a burden upon it for years, and of securing a desirable lot for a rectory. I trust he may soon be restored to health and usefulness.

April 3.—Preached in St. Andrew's, Mount Jackson, and confirmed six; and in the court-house, Woodstock, and confirmed two. In this latter place a church building has been commenced, which, as there is money in hand to finish it, will no doubt be ready for consecration by my next visit.

April 4.—Christ Church, Winchester, preached and confirmed fifteen.

April 5.—Preached in St. Thomas' Church, Middletown, which is without a rector.

April 6.—Preached in Calvary Church, Front Royal.

April 7.—Preached in the same church and confirmed three.

April 8.—Christ, Chantilly, Fairfax county, preached and confirmed four.

April 9.—Assisted by the rector, Rev. Frank Page, consecrated St. Timothy's Church, Herndon, and confirmed two. This fine building is a monument to the faithful perseverance of a few earnest Christians, who are already rewarded by having good congregations, and the prospect of a flourishing church.

April 10.—Preached in Zion Church, Fairfax Courthouse, and in St. John's, West End, confirming six in the former and four in the latter.

April 11.—Preached at night to a good congregation, in a school-house, at Dumfries, Prince William county. Rev. J. M. Meredith is laboring as a missionary amongst the people of this neglected region. Aided by a few zealous Episcopalians he has erected quite a large and handsome building on the site and in the grave-yard of Quantico, an old Colonial church, which has long since disappeared. They are going on with the inside work of the new building, the rest being completed.

April 12.—Passed by Aquia Church, Stafford, in a pouring rain, where I had an appointment but no congregation.

Bishop's Report.

April 16.—Easter eve—preached in Grace, Caroline, and confirmed two.

April 17.—Easter day—preached in St. Peter's, Port Royal, confirmed eight, and assisted the rector, Rev. J. E. Poindexter, in the administration of the Lord's Supper.

April 18.—Preached in Emmanuel, King George, the rectorship being vacant, and confirmed three.

April 20.—Preached in St. Paul's.

April 21.—Assisted by Rev. Messrs. Hunter, Poindexter and Latané, consecrated St. John's, a very pretty brick church at King George Courthouse, preached and confirmed one. This building was erected in place of another, which was torn down, under the ministry of the lamented Rev. E. B. McGuire, who did not live to take part in the day's service.

April 22.—Consecrated Payne Memorial Chapel, a plain, but neat and comfortable building in Westmoreland county. The rector, Rev. W. C. Latané, assisted in the services.

April 23.—Preached in St. Peter's, Oak Grove, and confirmed three.

April 24.—St. James, Montross, preached and confirmed one.

April 25.—Preached in Nomini Church, and confirmed four.

April 26.—Preached in Yeocomico.

April 27.—Preached in St. John's, Warsaw, Richmond county, and confirmed thirteen.

April 28.—St. Paul's Chapel, Westmoreland, preached and confirmed one.

April 29.—Farnham Church, Richmond, preached and confirmed two.

April 30.—Consecrated St. Stephen's Church, a large and pretty building at Heathsville, Northumberland county, preached and confirmed one. Rev. Messrs. Tucker, Derby and E. Meade assisted in the services.

May 1.—Grace, Lancaster, preached and confirmed four.

May 2.—Preached and confirmed three in Wycomico Church, Northumberland. This is a school-house which has been purchased for a church, and where there is a prospect of a good work being done by the faithful efforts of Rev. H. L. Derby. The building is to be enlarged and improved for the congregation which is already large and increasing.

Bishop's Report.

May 3.—White Chapel, Lancaster, preached and confirmed two.

May 4.—St. John's, Tappahannock, preached and confirmed five.

May 7.—Read the service, baptized three adults, preached and confirmed six in Emmanuel, Hanover, which is also without a rector

May 8.—St. Paul's, Richmond, confirmed nine.

May 15.—Preached in Emmanuel, Henrico, and confirmed four.

Bishop's Report.

DEATHS.

It is my sad duty to report the deaths of four of our Clerical brethren during the past year. The Rev. HENRY S. KEPLER was the first to depart, on the 5th of Oct., 1880, in the seventy-fourth year of his age. At the time of his last sickness (which was brought on by exposure in the discharge of duty, and was protracted to several months) he was laboring as a missionary in Goochland county and in the State penitentiary, Richmond.

Rev. WM. N. WARD died at his home in Richmond county, on the 25th of February, 1881, aged seventy-four years. For several years he had been most actively engaged in missionary work in Spotsylvania and Caroline counties, but was obliged by feeble health, a few months before his death, to cease from his labors.

Rev. FREDERICK D. GOODWIN, who, for many years, had been so broken down in health, as to be unable to perform any of the duties of the ministry, departed this life at his home in Wytheville, on the 26th of March, 1881, in the seventy-eighth year of his age.

Finally, on the 29th of March, 1881, the Rev. EDWARD B. MCGUIRE, Rector of Hanover Parish, King George county, died, after a violent and distressing illness of six days, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, triumphing in the consolations of that blessed Gospel which he had preached to others and practised in his own life. It is not necessary I should eulogize these brethren. Enough that they were all earnest, devout, Godly men, who, having finished their course in faith, have doubtless entered into the joy of their Lord. May we follow them as they followed Christ.

If figures furnish any reliable view of the state of the Diocese the foregoing summary ought surely to fill our hearts with gratitude to God for the past and inspire us with increased devotion to the great work of preaching the Gospel and extending our beloved Church for the future.

As requested by the last Council (Journal, p. 72), I have filled the vacancy in the Committee on the Zion Union Work by the appointment of Rev. A. W. Weddell, D. D., in place of Rev. R. A. Goodwin.

I leave it to the deputies whom the Council charged with the duty of asking the consent of the General Convention to the election of an Assistant Bishop by this Diocese to report the result of their application.

I am glad to be able to report that the new chapel at our Seminary has been finished and paid for, and will be consecrated (D. V.) during commencement week in June.

The Rev. J. J. Norwood has continued to labor most faithfully and acceptably as Evangelist during the past year, and I am persuaded few ministers of the Diocese are engaged in more important work. I had been trying for several years, in compliance with the direction of the Council, to find a suitable man to associate with Mr. Norwood ut never succeeded until last December, when Rev. John J. Lloyd was appointed, his field of labor being Southwest Virginia.

Bishop's Report.

The Rev. Robb White, during the past as during the previous year, has devoted one half of his time to the Zion Union congregations in Brunswick and Mecklenburg counties in connection with his duties as Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Lawrenceville. The last Council directed that all his time be given to these colored people, but after consultation with him and the Committee on Colored Congregations it was decided to be best to continue the old arrangement, his work consisting chiefly in visiting the different congregations to advise and direct them, and one half of his time being thought sufficient for this purpose. The reports of these three Evangelist brethren will be published in the Journal. I earnestly recommend that the appropriation for their support made by the last Council be renewed.

It is not necessary for me to speak particularly of our various Diocesan institutions, as their condition and wants will be laid before you by their respective officers or managers. I commend them all as being worthy of a deeper and more general interest on the part of the clergy, and of a more liberal support from the laity, than they have heretofore received.

I have no new suggestions to make or measures to propose. The object for which the church exists, which ought to be regarded as of first importance by us all, and which I would rejoice to see occupying the largest share of the time and attention of the Council, is the promotion of the great and divine work of missions—missions, especially, amongst the white and colored people within our own borders. No Diocese, I believe, was ever blessed with a clergy who, as a body, were more largely endued with the missionary spirit, which is the spirit of Christ, or who were more diligent in missionary labors than our own. Many of the laity too are willing co-workers with their pastors, and I am glad to observe that their interest is increasing, as appears from the increase in the contributions to our Missionary Society the past year, the large number of lay readers licensed, and the efforts which are being made in various parts of the Diocese to do something for the religious instruction of the negroes. But, while the harvest which is ready and waiting for our Church to reap in Virginia truly is great—greater than ever before—the laborers and the means to support them are altogether inadequate. To say nothing of the large white population scattered everywhere, who are as sheep having no shepherd, there are hundreds of thousands of colored people in our very midst—members of our parishes, our fellow-citizens, and our brethren in Christ—for whose instruction in the doctrines and duties of Christianity we are responsible and will be held accountable. It is vain to look for either men or money from outside the Diocese for this work. The duty is ours and we cannot escape it. Our own people must furnish the means and our own ministers and laity must do the work. We have a glorious opportunity, and fearful will be the consequences if we fail to improve it. May the love of Christ constrain us, as a Church and as individual Christians, faithfully to discharge the trust which He has committed to us, lest he say to us, "Give an account of thy stewardship, for thou mayest be no longer steward."

I beg, in conclusion, to remind my brethren that our old Evangelical Knowledge Society is still engaged in publishing and circulating books and tracts to drive away the infidel and Romish and other erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's word, which are plaguing our Church now more than ever before. If, as we believe, there were good and sufficient reasons for organizing the society nearly forty years ago, the same reasons still exist in even greater force for continuing it and enabling it to do its good work. I therefore trust that it may not fail to be sustained by your prayers and your alms.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin moved that so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to Diocesan Missions be referred to a committee of five.

Carried, and the following committee appointed :

Rev. R. A. Goodwin,
" C. J. Gibson, D. D.,
" W. Q. Hullihen,

Mr. Joseph Wilmer,
" N. T. Green.

Rev. Geo. W. Dame moved that the Rev. Dr. R. H. McKim, of New York, be invited to address the Council at 4 P. M. this day, on Church Temperance work.

Carried.

Report from Trustees Theological Seminary.

Rev. Dr. Gibson moved that at 11 A. M. the Council go into Committee of the Whole upon the subject of Diocesan Missions.

Carried.

On motion, the Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of West Virginia, was invited to a seat beside the Bishop of this Diocese.

On motion, the visiting clergy from other Dioceses, clergy of this Diocese not entitled to votes, and candidates for orders, were invited to seats with the Council.

Rev. Robb White presented the report of the Committee on Credentials. (Vide list of lay delegates, p. 14.)

Mr. W. W. Old moved that the Council meet next year in Christ Church, Norfolk.

The motion was laid upon the table for the present.

Rev. Dr Peterkin presented the report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School:

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.,

President of the Board of Trustees:

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir,—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to submit the following report:

The aggregate number of boys admitted during the present session, including six day scholars, is eighty-seven, the highest since the war. We have continued to enjoy the blessing of health in a remarkable degree, largely, if not mainly, the result of the gymnasium, of the extraordinary attention paid to physical culture, and the encouragement afforded to athletic sports.

Previous to March 13, all the religious services attended by boys and masters were, as last session, in the School Chapel. On that day, after two years' intermission, we were happily permitted to resume our Sunday morning place in the Seminary Chapel. The thanks of all are eminently due to the Rev. Drs. Walker and Nelson, for their frequent ministrations here during our long privation of regular services, and it seems fit that the gratitude of their alma mater to such dutiful sons should be recorded. The Friday night meeting for the boys has been maintained with unabated zeal by Mr. Wm. Herbert Assheton, of the Senior Class in the Seminary. The ordinary devotional exercises of the school have been as heretofore, except that increased outlay and effort have been made in behalf of music. The choir has been enlarged and a new organ provided. The observance of the Christian holy days and seasons has been as heretofore, regular and emphatic. The number of communicants among the boys is nineteen, and others are awaiting confirmation.

I have the honor to be, sir, very respectfully

Your obedient servant,

May, 1881.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Professor of Biblical Learning respectfully reports to the Board of Trustees, that the classes under his instruction, have, during the past session, pursued the prescribed course of study.

The senior class has read the books of Jonah and Esther in the Hebrew, and has studied energetically the two Epistles to the Corinthians.

The middle class has read about twenty Psalms and the Prophecies of Christ in the Hebrew language, and the Epistles to the Romans, and to the Hebrews in the Greek.

The junior class has been drilled in the Hebrew Grammar by written exercises, and have read about the usual amount of text. They have in Greek, studied the Gospel of John. They have, as usual, written essays on important and difficult subjects in the Gospels.

A monthly report has been made to me by the teachers of the preparatory department, from which I learn that its students have been diligent in their studies.

All which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

I would respectfully report that the classes have during the session pursued the usual course of study.

The senior class, reciting three times a week, have studied the Articles, Homiletics and Liturgies. With the Articles they have used Boulton and Burnett, with written references to other sources of information. In Homiletics they have studied Broadus, with plans and analysis of sermons, and the usual Wednesday evening exercise. In Liturgies they have had lectures, with written questions and references. They are now occupied with the last.

The middle class, for most of the session reciting daily, have studied Knapp's Theology, with written essays, and analysis of subjects studied. They are now reviewing.

The junior class, as during the last session, and for the reasons mentioned in former report, have studied only Chadbourne's Natural Theology. This they have finished, and are now engaged in reviewing.

Owing to the fact of the residence of one of the students in Washington, and the employment of three others in neighboring schools, there have been more absences from my recitations than usual. With the exception of those, however, from these causes, there have been none without excuse.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Professor of Apologetics and Church Polity respectfully submits the following report:

The instruction of the senior class in Church Polity, during the current session, has embraced a course of Lectures on the Nature, Constitution, Attributes, Notes and Ministry of the Church of Christ, in connection with the study of the text-book.

The middle class conclude the study of Apologetics, with the use of Butler's Analogy as a text-book.

In the same department the junior class pursue a course of study beginning with a course of lectures, and continued to the close of the session, in the use of Paley's Evidences and Butler's Analogy of Religion, Natural and Revealed.

For the first time, the Professor in this department has to report his absence from the class-room in consequence of illness—on one occasion for a period of three weeks, and on another of ten days.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Church History, Canon Law and Pastoral Theology presents the following annual report :

The middle class, with three weekly recitations and regular essays, has studied Kurtz's Church History.

The junior class, with four weekly recitations and three essays a week, has studied Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament History, and read the book of the Acts of the Apostles in Greek.

From frequent attendance upon the classes of the preparatory department, he testifies that faithful, thorough and efficient work has been performed by both teachers and scholars in that department.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

To the Board of Trusteesof the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

Dear Brethren,—I beg leave to report on my work as theological tutor of colored students for the past year.

There have been under my charge, during the past year, only three students, Messrs. J. S. Russell and G. W. Bragg, and the Rev. J. H. M. Pollard. The latter student recites to me twice a week in Systematic Theology, (Browne on the Articles,) and has studied other topics under my direction. The two former recite to me four days each week in the morning. During this session they have studied Abp. Secker's Lectures on the Catechism; Angus's Bible Hand Book; Cutts's Turning Points of Church History; Lightfoot's Christian Ministry; and Professor Walker's Questions on Ecclesiastical History, as given in the course at the Seminary. They have also read about seventeen chapters of the latter part of Isaiah, in Hebrew. They have also read Butler's "Common Prayer Interpreted," and are studying Dr. Walker's Questions on Liturgies. Their progress in study has been encouraging, and their deportment excellent.

With great respect I am,

Yours faithfully,

THOMAS SPENCER.

The order of the day—the report of the Committee on Canons—was then taken up.

Mr. Thomas Potts offered the following :

WHEREAS the Canons now offered for adoption have not been examined by the lay members of our Church, and in simple justice to this Order,

Resolved, That the consideration of the Canons be postponed until the next meeting of Council, and in the meantime be published in the Southern Churchman at the expense of the Contingent Fund; that when published the present and proposed Canons appear in parallel columns in the Churchman.

The motion was lost.

Report of Committee on Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

At 11 A. M. the Council went into Committee of the Whole on the Diocesan Missionary Society, Rev. Dr. Hanckel in the chair.

At 1 P. M. the committee rose, and its chairman reported to the Council the following as its recommendations :

Resolved, That the plan of collections adopted by the last General Convention for Missions be referred to the Committee on that part of the Bishop's Address relating to Diocesan Missions, for their consideration and report.

Resolved, That the Committee on that part of the Bishop's Address relating to Diocesan Missions, be instructed to inquire into the propriety of reviving the system of pledges on the part of the Rector and lay delegates of each Parish, and in what form it should be done.

The resolutions were so referred.

Rev. T. M. Carson, from the Committee on the Accounts of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, reported the accounts correct, and sustained by proper vouchers. They also reported that, in their opinion, it was inexpedient to make an appropriation to the widow of the late Rev. Mr. Mackenheimer.

Rev. Pike Powers presented the report of the Diocesan Missionary Society :

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report :

We are glad to say that from the indications we have, our missionaries appear to be earnest and faithful, and, for the most part, to be doing good and effective work in their several fields of labor. In a few cases activity is hindered by age and bodily infirmity, but these are doubtless doing what they can. We are glad to say, also, that the contributions for the year have considerably exceeded those of the preceding year, but they are still not up to the measure of our wants, and but for the McFarland legacy, from which we were obliged to draw $1,288, we should have been unable to keep our work up to its present standard. It is manifest that instead of curtailing that work it ought to be extended, and it is equally manifest that we are fully able to do it. If the 13,000 communicants of the Diocese will give us an average of but one cent a Sunday, we can not only keep our present force at work, but have something for another line of work which is now pressing upon us, the religious education of colored children and youth.

We desire also to call attention to a monthly paper, entitled Our Diocesan Work, which has been issued since 1st January, 1881, under the auspices of the Executive Committee, the design of which is to stimulate all, both people and clergy, to greater zeal and activity in the Lord's work. All moneys received over and above the actual expenses of publication will be turned over to Diocesan Missions. All we ask is money enough to carry it on, and intelligence enough to make the paper serve the purpose for which it is published. We distributed in the Diocese 1,000 copies in the month of January, and 2,000 copies in each of the following months. But we are still embarrassed for want of names, for there are more than thirty of the clergy who, though asked again and again, have given us no names, nor taken notice of the paper in any way.

In conclusion, we think the outlook is such that we may thank God and take courage.

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary D. M. S.

Protestant Episcopal Church Home.

The order of the day was suspended to allow the Rev. J. G. Armstrong to present the following letter and resolutions :

114 N. SEVENTH STREET,
RICHMOND, May 3d.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia :

The managers of the Protestant Episcopal Church Home, No. 517 N. Fourth street, feel it their duty to make a report to the Council, that they may call attention, not only to the present condition, but to the future wants of the institution under their care.

We have had fourteen (14) inmates during the past year. Seven (7) of these have come from various parts of the Diocese, beyond the limits of this city, but up to this time we have received only one hundred and eighty dollars ($180) from outside of Richmond.

It has given us real pain to refuse applications from those who from dire necessity are now seeking refuge within our walls. Add to this that the increasing age and infirmities of those already in our establishment, make it an infirmary as well as a home, and you will see the absolute necessity of increased assistance from all interested in so important a work.

As the institution belongs to the whole Diocese, it is hoped that contributions will be sent from all the parishes. However small, they will be gratefully received and will assist us in extending our care to deserving members of the Church, who sadly need just such a shelter as the Home affords.

Respectfully, &c.,

MRS. JAMES R. WERTH,
Corresponding Secretary of P. E. C. Home.

Resolved, That this Council cordially commends the Protestant Episcopal Church Home, located in the city of Richmond, as an institution worthy of the interest and support of the clergy and laity of this Diocese.

Resolved, That rectors be, and they hereby are, requested to present the claims of this institution to their respective churches, and to ask them for an annual offering in its behalf on some Sunday during the month of November, or as near that time as practicable.

The resolutions was carried, and it was ordered that the letter of Mrs. Werth be printed in the Journal.

Consideration of Canons—Assistant Bishop of Virginia.

The order of the day was further suspended to allow Mr. J. H. Claiborne to offer the following:

Resolved, That the Standing Committee on Church Property be instructed to sell at their discretion lots No. 6 and 7, in the Hollywood Cemetery, and to devote the proceeds to the P. E. Church Home; that the Trustees use the same to purchase other and more suitable lots.

Carried.

The consideration of the order of the day was resumed.

Canon II of the report was adopted, with the three additional sections of the old Canon added.

Mr. Robert Beverly moved that the present Canon XII be adopted in lieu of the proposed Canon III.

Carried.

Canon IV of the report was then presented and adopted as reported.

Mr. Walter H. Taylor moved the rejection of the rest of the report.

At 11 A. M. the Rev. Dr. Damé moved that the Council take recess for divine service.

Carried.

The Council re-assembled at 12:55 P. M., and took recess to 3 P. M.

3 P. M.

The Council re-assembled.

By unanimous consent the order of the day was set aside temporarily, to allow Mr. H. W. Sheffey to present the following:

this Diocese, in May 1880, with the duty of presenting to the General Convention a request to that body for its consent to the election of an Assistant Bishop for the Diocese of Virginia, and of securing such consent, if practicable, deem it proper to inform the Council, now in session, that in obedience to the instruction of the Council, they presented to the General Convention the resolutions which had been adopted by the Council of this Diocese on the 21st day of May, 1880, together with a communication in writing, signed by them, and by the associate-deputies, Dr. Norton and Judge Parker, in which they formally requested the consent of the General Convention to the election of an Assistant Bishop for this Diocese; that the subject was referred to the Committee on Canons, which committee reported it back without recommendation; and that, after debate, the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies refused to grant the consent asked for.

May 20, 1881.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey, also by permission, presented the following, which was ordered to be entered upon the Journal:

DANVILLE, May 19, 1881.

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute respectfully report to the Council that they have filled the vacancies in the Board of Trustees by the election of the following gentlemen: Thomas C. Elder, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John N. Hendron; George M. Harrison, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nathaniel H. Massie, and C. M. Blackford to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John M. Miller.

The Trustees this day held their annual meeting and received from the Board of Directors and from Mrs. Stuart, the Principal of the Institute, their regular reports. These reports, so far as they refer to the condition of the Institute in its educational department, are not only satisfactory but highly gratifying. It affords the Trustees pleasure, as expressing what they believe to be just views of the Institute, and of its management, to copy the following extracts from the report of the Board of Directors. The Board state that "all that Mrs. Stuart says in respect to the condition of the school in its educational department, the corps of teachers, and the progress and deportment of the pupils, they most unreservedly and cordially endorse. When, at the last Council, the Board invoked the confidence of the Trustees and through them of the Council, and of the clergy and laity of the Diocese, in Mrs. Stuart and her then newly organized faculty of instructors; when, in the presence of the Council, and by its permission, Colonel Skinner made his earnest and eloquent address in behalf of the Institute, under the auspices of its recently appointed principal, the friends of the Institute labored under the disadvantage of speaking prospectively and conjecturally as to the capacity and fitness of Mrs. Stuart for the conduct and management of such an institution. Now, however, after the observation and experience of the past year, the Board of Directors feel justified in announcing to the Trustees that the confidence which led them to select Mrs. Stuart as principal of the Institute was well justified, and that the most sanguine anticipations of her friends in respect to her qualifications for the responsible position assigned to her have been more than realized. She is endowed with rare administrative capacity, and with the clearness and promptness of judgment, firmness and system in government, blended with maternal solicitude for and care of the comfort and happiness of the pupils under her charge, which entitle her not only to the confidence of the Trustees and of the Council, but to distinguished success in her high and noble aims." The Board add that "it is gratifying to know from Mrs. Stuart's report that she will be assisted during the next session by her present corps of instructors, including Professor Minor, Miss Parran as vice principal, Mrs. Dupuy, Professor and Madam De Vallay, and others who constitute faculty of teachers unsurpassed in the South. And in view of the experience of the past year, the Board of Directors feel well justified in again commending the institution to the confidence and patronage of the Diocese of Virginia, to which it belongs; and which, if properly supported by the Diocese, will ere long provide, especially for the daughters of our clergy, the means of first-class education at a low rate of cost." In these views the Trustees cordially concur and earnestly commend the Institute to those who desire for their daughters education of the best kind, and training for them under maternal control and watchful care, and to be assured that they will constantly be surrounded by all the refining, elevating, and Christian influences which tend to develop the graces and virtues of true womanhood.

The Trustees recognize, with pleasure, the fact as disclosed by Mrs. Stuart's report, that the young Diocese of West Virginia is beginning to bestow liberal patronage upon the Institute, the number from that Diocese being almost equal to that from the Diocese of Virginia. The Trustees trust that the clergy and laity of Virginia will sustain their own school and make it a success and a blessing to the whole Diocese. Clergymen's daughters are now received at reduced rates; and the general charges, as the Board reports, are as moderate as those of any other institution of like educational advantages in the State. They are particularly gratified by the assurance "that nowhere is the tendency towards extravagance in dress and other expenditures more firmly and uniformly repressed."

In conclusion, the Trustees request the Council to adopt the resolution which they have instructed Judge Sheffey to submit for its consideration and action.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY.

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese have received with gratification the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, in which they renew the expression of their confidence in the eminent qualifications of Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, for the office of Principal of the Institute, and in the Institute itself, not only as the Diocesan Female School of Virginia, but as an educational institution unsurpassed by any in the South. The Council do, therefore, most earnestly commend the Virginia Female Institute to the liberal patronage of the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. S. B. Paul, from the Committee, appointed at the last Council, on the Relations of this Diocese to the General Theological Seminary, presented the report.

Rev. Reverdy Estill moved that it be entered upon the minutes.

Rev. Dr. D. F. Sprigg moved that the report be recom-

Pending discussion of these motions the Council took recess for a meeting of the Brotherhood.

5:15 P. M.

The Council re-assembled after recess, and proceeded to consider the motion of Mr. Walter H. Taylor to strike out from the Report of the Committee on Canons all that follows Canon IV.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin moved to recommit and postpone the further consideration of the proposed Canons to the next Council.

Mr. W. W. Old moved to take up from the table his resolution that the next Council meet at Christ Church, Norfolk.

Motion carried.

Rev. Dr. Pendleton moved as a substitute that the Council meet in Grace Memorial Church, Lexington.

The motion of Rev. Dr. Pendleton was lost.

The resolution of Mr. Old was carried.

Rev. Dr. K. Nelson presented the following:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Council are tendered to the citizens of Danville for the kind hospitality which we have received at their hands.

Resolved, That our thanks are also tendered to the Rector of this Church, to the Committee of Reception, and to the Pages for their useful services, as also to the Vestry and Wardens of the Church of the Epiphany for their arrangements for this Council.

On motion of Mr. B. J. Barbour, the reading of the Report of the Historiographer was made the order of the day for tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Carried unanimously.

The Council then adjourned.

May 21, 1881.

The Council met at 9 A. M., and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by Rev. A. W. Weddell, D. D.

Rev. Dr. Minnigerode presented the Report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church in presenting their report to the Council think it proper, by way of introduction, to refer to the peculiar features attending their annual meeting of its Clergy and Lay Delegates.

It is the first time that we have met in the goodly city of Danville. Another place of meeting of the Council of our Church has been added to the number of the rallying points for the annual meetings of our Diocesan Conventions; and the committee are thankful to report that its success has placed it among the most favorable points of the Diocese for this purpose, whether we consider the accommodations and comforts of the members of the Council, or the arrangements for the transaction of its business. It is not deemed improper by your committee to refer briefly to the history and growth of the Church in this place—for it is but a type of the progress of our Church and a testimony of its growth. Epiphany Church, Danville, was taken charge of by Dr. Dame in the year 1840; the communicants then consisting of four ladies. One hundred and seventy communicants, male and female, are reported this year. The size and wants of the congregation had outgrown the venerable old church, and a beautiful chaste church building has just been completed, free of debt, and in time for consecration at the opening services of this Council. We may be permitted to refer to the interesting and unusual features of that consecration. There were present the Bishop of the Diocese and the Bishop of West Virginia, who still appears at our Councils as one of our own. The Rector, Dr. Dame, with his three sons, all of Virginia birth and training, Revs. Wm. M. Dame, N. P. Dame, now of Maryland, and G. W. Dame, of West Virginia, in the chancel; and the sermon, the consecration and convention service of the day was preached by the Rev. A. Johns, the son of our late beloved Diocesan, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Johns, of blessed memory. Rarely, if ever, have so many touching associations accompanied the opening services of our Council.

State of the Church.

The living power of this Church is attested by the remarkable record that eleven candidates have been sent forth from it into the sacred ministry, three of them sons of the Rector, and one his nephew, besides one Bishop, the energetic and faithful Missionary Bishop of Africa.

The committee refer to these facts as facts connected with the history and state of our Church, which are not recorded in any other report.

Turning to the special items presenting the State of the Church in our Diocese, the committee regret that they labor under the difficulty, perhaps the common difficulty, that the sources from which they have to make up their report, are not complete. It was impossible to obtain a copy of the Bishop's Report, so full of specific information; nor did they have the benefit of the full report of the Committee on Parochial Reports.

This is a very common difficulty; and it is a source of regret that all the measures taken to insure to the Committee on the State of the Church the needful materials, practically so little has yet been accomplished in that way. But the perspicuity of the Bishop's Report fastened the main facts in the minds of the members of the committee, and at least the leading items of the Parochial Reports were forwarded to it.

In entering upon the details, the committee cannot refrain from expressing (and they hope they violate no law of delicacy, but only discharge a duty to which the whole Diocese responds,) their deep and heartfelt sympathy with our beloved Bishop in the dark days of the trials which the All-wise Ruler of our lives has allowed him to pass through, and assure him of the tender love and constant prayers with which his Diocese follow him to the throne of grace for support and comfort. Let us close our lips in loving reserve upon the wrestlings of those sad and anxious days, and thank God that Divine grace brought him out of them stronger for the blessed work he has been doing in the Diocese.

The committee rejoice with the Bishop, that so far as we can judge from the fruits of this year's work, we have great cause to lift our hearts in gratitude to the great Head of the Church for the many blessings bestowed upon us.

In spite of the loss of time, increased by the meeting of the General Convention and the severity of the winter, the work done is equal to what the most sanguine could expect, and is an earnest of the live character of the Church, a proof of the energy of our chief pastor, and of the blessing of God upon the labors of our clergy and, we gladly add, our faithful laity.

For the details of numbers, which we cannot report with exactness, suffice it to say: that the visitations of the Bishop, and the number of our communicants added by confirmation, scarcely fall behind the previous year; and in many instances go beyond them. A wide door is opened to the Church among our own people and to every Parish in the Diocese. Let the knowledge of this increase in all the sense of their responsibility, and prove an encouragement to put forth all our zeal and strength to meet the mercies of our Lord and the wants of the times. Let us ever remember, however, that true success is not measured by numbers but by change of heart, verified in the life of those who are admitted to our communion. Here is our main work! Our Church is like a city set on a hill—many, many more than ever before are seeking our communion from other Christian bodies. Let us so administer our trust and so live, that our friends, our children, and all who seek salvation, may find in our Church a body of professors who are Christians in deed and in truth, and who, by their consistent and unworldly lives, let their light shine before men to the praise and glory of God and the true welfare of our fellow creatures, of all classes—of all conditions of men!

The committee would press upon the conscience of all our people the paramount importance of training the young. The Sunday Schools, we are glad to see, are increasing; not in numbers only, we hope' but in real godly work. The Sunday School is the first element of the Church's growth. The blessing was given to Abraham because he would command, or that he should command his children after him; and the noblest Christians of all ages have been those, who, like

State of the Church.

Timothy, have learned the Scriptures from their childhood up—aye, at their mother's knees. Let our mothers heed this truth!

No subject can engage our attention more earnestly than the missions of the Church. The Church of God is a missionary Church. Christ himself, the first and great missionary. And unless the Church goes out in obedience to our Lord's commands, it is dead, and we do not see what claims it has to call itself the Church of Christ,

It is gratifying to report that about $1,000 more have been contributed to Diocesan Missions this year than last year. But we must all feel how far we fall below the Scripture mark and the work and sacrifices—we do not say of the Master—but of His apostles and the early Church; we fear we must add, how little our present indifference to this work corresponds with the mighty work, the great movement which marked the revival of the Church some fifty or eighty years ago, and gave this century of the Church's history the character of a missionary Church. We have hopes that our Church is deeply moved on this subject, and would reiterate what has been said during the missionary meetings of this Council—that there are three fields—our older and enfeebled parishes, the new fields opening to us in the western part of the Diocese especially, and the colored people, who we maintain are much more the wards of the Church, and in a more blessed sense than they ever can be claimed to be the wards of the nation. Here, if anywhere, is their hope, and we are responsible for their souls! Only think, 700,000 souls in charge of Christ's Church in Virginia!

We forbear going into minute details, so deeply interesting, as they have been given in the discussion before the Church, and the reports of separate committees. We do so reluctantly, as there is no more tempting subject; but as they are brought out in other ways and laid before the Church, we do not think that we ought to spin out our report to undue length by repeating what is better said in special reports.

Let the following suffice.

There never has been the time, so far as we know, in the history of our Diocese, when the people, generally, were more willing to receive and welcome our Church, nor was it ever more important that the Scriptural and conservative features of our Church should be brought to bear upon the masses.

We cannot lose sight of the great and good work of aiding, reviving, enfeebled or vacant parishes. Besides the sentiment, there is a strong claim upon the Church, which these very parishes have helped to establish in this Diocese. In many instances, even the vacant churches can be occasionally used by the nearest ministers, and an interest kept up and revived. Many of our parishes are asleep—not dead. Shall we have them to sleep the sleep of death? No; we must stand by them, aid them, watch over them, cherish them for what they have done, and what they may yet do. Many of our Eastern parishes present as large a field for missionary work as any in the fallow ground of the West. Just take the field or fields of our minister in Powhatan, or the experiences we have had in Fairfax county, Hanover, Mecklenburg, and others, and in the comparatively new fields of Franklin and other counties, hitherto almost inaccessible.

The western part of the Diocese, so rich in mineral resources, is being rapidly developed. Railroads are being made, furnaces and factories established; the population has increased about 33 per cent. in ten years, and will probably increase more rapidly in the next decade.

There are twelve counties west of the Blue Ridge, in which there is no Episcopal Church or minister, with a population of 131,000. There are only six ministers to 233,000 souls. The prejudices against our Church are decreasing wherever it is established—the people asking to hear and know our Church—very many of them totally ignorant of the Gospel, and heretofore attending no church at all.

Colored Work.—Before the war much was done by the Church and our Church families, especially in the country; and the awakening in Brunswick county and neighborhood may be the result of the faithful and successful church-work in the days before the war. After its close it was but natural that reaction should have followed; but it was of short duration, and now we can report not only the beginning but the growth of a work most promising, and laying upon our Church the highest obligations.

More colored Sundays Schools are in existence now than ever before. Our ministers, to some extent, realize the truth that the colored people in their Parishes are their parishioners—but not as fully as should be.

The work among the Zion Union Apostolic Church has not been without good fruit—they still wish instruction—six desire to enter our ministry, and the moral and religious character of the people has much improved. Of course we must not be too sanguine. We cannot, nor will we look for a mushroom growth, or sensational marvels; but what is before us is no more full of surprise than of promise. Look at Petersburg. The successful experiment at this point proves conclusively that our Church is well adapted and suited to the spiritual wants of the colored people. Besides our training school—the policy adopted there of thorough teaching of children in the Parochial and Sunday Schools, and preaching the gospel to the adults in the Church and elsewhere, seems to be the only one to reach and to Christianize this race.

Our Diocesan Missionary Society in all its branches is one arm of the Church, our Seminary and Education Society are the other arm, and we must use both, and use them to the best advantage. The Education Society is the great source of strength on which our Seminary relies, that Seminary—the legacy to Virginia of the great saints of our Church—the most important of all our institutions.

Your committee would recognize the favoring hand of God in the number of candidates for orders and the condition of the Seminary. Though one of ten or twelve similar institutions throughout the Church, it has forty-five students upon its rolls. Yet since our Diocese is constantly called upon to supply the vacant parishes in other Dioceses; since now, as of old, the harvest continues plenteous and the laborers are few, they would urge upon Christian parents their privilege and obligation, to dedicate their children to the service of God, to train them up with the belief that the Christian ministry is the greatest and most glorious work which God ever commits to mortal man. The condition of the Education Society is well worthy of attention. This time-honored institution, in the more than fifty years of its existence, has helped to put nearly 700 men into the ministry, and the record shows that scarcely any have proved unworthy of the care and approval of their Alma Mater.

To its aid a large number of our parishes owe their present supply of clergymen. It is now supporting eighteen students at our seminary, and hopes to close the present session free from debt. There is reason to believe, however, that it will in future need and merit the constant and increased support of its friends and patrons. God help us if we do not meet this sacred duty.

The Brotherhood.—It has again and again been recommended to the people of our Diocese. We can hardly understand why it has et with so little success, comparatively speaking. Your committee think that its claims appeal to the best and tenderest feelings, and every "natural affection" (to use a Scriptural term) of the members of the Church and the beneficiary of its blessings. But, beyond this, they believe that, in its missionary aspect, as securing to the Diocese a permanent residence and labors of our ministers, and preventing them from seeking other fields outside of Virginia, it is one of the most practically useful institutions of our Diocese. All of our ministers are willing to labor in our own vineyard even upon the minimum of a support, and gladly bear poverty and trials. Secure to them by means of this Brotherhood a provision for their dear ones, left behind, when they, worn out in the service of our Church, are called to rest from their labors above, and you give them a reasonable motive for remaining with us, as they can leave their family in the hands of a faithful protector. The committee hope that the new measures adopted, and the earnest and judicious presentation of its aims by all ministers and our lay agents, will infuse new interest in this blessed work, and place the Brotherhood upon a safe footing.

One More Subject.—Every age has its special temptations and crises. Everywhere the Church is awaking to the crying evil of intemperance. We cannot close our report without referring to this subject, and press its importance and urge the coöperation of all in its promotion upon the Church. We thank God for the steps taken by this Council to give a practical turn to the resolutions so often, but without commensurate results, passed by our Church, and commend the movement to every lover of God and man.

So much the committee feel bound to lay before the Council in their report on the State of the Church. We believe there are signs of more life, that there is a decrease of prejudice against our Church on the part of others, that there is a decided increase of interest in our own Church, as shown by their increased contributions. But the committee cannot close their report without pointing out—as the only way to give life and keep life in the machinery of our Church, and promote its true welfare—the increased holiness on the part of priest and people, and the spirit of Christ as the guide of our lives. Let us pray God for the outpouring of His spirit, to enable us to do our duty as in His sight, in dependence on His grace and to His praise and glory. And God's blessing is given with this and in this renewal of our minds.

Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

And, in conclusion, let us all work together in this noble work of the Christian ministry, which belongs to all Christians, clerical or lay, and in peace and harmony and brotherly love, reap His blessing, without which nothing is strong, nothing is holy.

Rev. Dr. Hanckel moved that 2,000 extra copies of that Report be printed and circulated through the Diocese.

Carried.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the Report of the Manager of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

The Board of Managers of "The Widows' and Orphans' Fund" of the Diocese of Virginia are thankful to be able to report a somewhat improved condition of their finances. The report of the Treasurer is herewith submitted to be printed in the Journal. From this it will be seen that while the face value of the bonds in which the principal is invested is less than it was last year, their real value has been very much increased, all the bonds now held being above par. Our assets amount to $23,638.60 in 6 per cents. One bond only of $1,000, yielding 8 per cent. An income at this rate of interest does not furnish an amount at all adequate to the constantly increasing demands upon us. We are obliged to look still to the parishes of the Diocese to supply by their contributions, year by year, the means of keeping from pinching want, the widows and orphans of our departed brethren. The year before last we had a response to the earnest appeal of our Treasurer from fifty-six of our parishes, about a third of the hole, but this year we are sorry to say not one fourth of them, only irty-six out of the one hundred and sixty still alive in the Diocese, have given us one cent.

In 1879 our distributable income was increased by the parishes 177.17. This year they have added to it only $479.01. In the meantime, the number of the beneficiaries has increased, until this year, they amount to thirteen. Notwithstanding, therefore, the lack of interest shown by the parishes, the board have felt constrained, even at the risk of trenching upon their principal, not to withhold from those who have such strong claims upon us, a small amount to meet their most pressing need. Among the thirteen families they have distributed $2,080.

If all the ministers of the Diocese had given heed to the earnest appeal of our Treasurer, and had remembered the claims of "the fatherless and the widows," we could have rendered them more effectual aid, and made their darkened homes less desolate.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Sec'y.

EDW. VALENTINE JONES,

Chairman Com.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin presented the Report of the Special Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to Diocesan Missions.

The committee appointed to consider that part of the Bishop's address relating to missionary work within the Diocese, beg leave to make the following report:

We are unanimous in the opinion that the missionary work of this Diocese, which we believe to be of preëminent importance, can be accomplished more effectually by keeping the three branches of the same distinct, namely: The work among the colored people in organized parishes; the work among white and colored, in that part of the Diocese where our Church has never been established, and the work of aiding feeble parishes already organized.

We believe the funds of the society will be increased by encouraging distinct contributions to these three good objects. We have considered the two resolutions referred to us. One on the pledge sysern and the other on the subscription book as adopted by the General Convention for Foreign and Domestic Missions.

We recommend to the Council the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved 1, That the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia appoint three (3) sub committees, partly or entirely, from their own number, as they may deem best; provided that the Bishop of the Diocese be ex-officio chairman of each: to be known as the Committee on Work Among the Colored People; The Committee on Work in New Fields; The Committee on Work in Feeble Parishes.

Resolved 2, That the Executive Committee place the funds contributed, respectively to the above named branches of mission work in the hands of the respective sub-committees for disbursement.

Resolved 3, That the Executive Committee shall decide to which of the sub-committees all funds, not designated, shall be given.

Resolved 4, That the secretary of the Executive Committee prepare a subscription-book similar to that now recommended to be used for Foreign and Domestic Mission, and send to every rector in the Diocese as many copies of the same as he has churches under his care, and to the vestry of every church where there is no rector, and that the Council recommend the use of said book.

Resolved 5, That every rector or vestry inform the secretary of the Executive Committee as soon as practicable, what amounts has been subscribed respectively to the object above mentioned.

Resolved 6, That the Council, recognizing the importance of making the parishes, aided by the Executive Committee, self-supporting, at the earliest day practicable, recommend a gradual reduction of the stipend allotted to each; leaving to the judgment of the committee the amount of such reduction.

Mr. B. J. Barbour read the Report of the Historiographer, which was ordered to be printed in the Journal.

REPORT OF THE HISTORIOGRAPHER.

My Dear Bishop,—In my report to the last Council I enumerated the Church records which were in the library at the seminary and in my possession. I need not recapitulate them here. Since that date, I have added to them the vestry book of Northam Parish by the courtesy of the Rev. P. M. Boyden; that of Amherst Parish by the kindness of the Rev. O. S. Bunting; that of St. Patrick's Parish, Prince Edward, through the mediation of Professor Holliday, of Hampden Sidney College. There are other colonial records in being, either in the charge of vestries or in private hands, who do not seem willing to let them go out of their care. Among these there is a mutilated record of St. George's Parish, on the basis of which I wrote and published in 1847 my history of St. George's

Report of the Historiographer.

Parish, which was the first Parish History ever printed in Virginia. There is also one of Elizabeth City Parish (Hampton); another of Elizabeth River Parish, in the clerk's office at Norfolk; and, doubtless, others elsewhere.

The old register found in the clerk's office at Yorktown, and which has hitherto been reputed to be the register of York-Hampton Parish, I have found, upon a critical examination, is not a record of York-Hampton, but of Charles, another old Parish in York county, whose records have hitherto been supposed to be irrecoverably lost, the name of the Parish itself having disappeared from the journals for more than half a century.

Bishop Meade devoted only twelve lines to Charles Parish for want of documents, giving up its history as hopelessly lost. Stimulated by the discovery of this register, I have looked through "Henning's Statutes at Large," the Journals of Conventions, the Calendars of Virginia, State Papers, and other authorities, and out of scraps, picked up here and there, I have reconstructed the history of the old Parish, so long lapsed from sight. I have recovered the names and order of succession of its several ministers, the names of many of its vestrymen, and other incidents of its history. By the kindness of sympathizing friends, the venerable record of the names, births, baptisms and burials of many citizens of the State has been copied for the press, and will be printed, before it becomes illegible, without cost to the Council.

I also mentioned, in my last report, that I had recovered the vestry book of St. Patrick's Parish, which had been lost for a hundred years. Strangely enough it was found at Hampden Sidney, and courteously sent to me by Professor Holliday of that institution. At the suggestion of the Rev. Frank Stringfellow, and at the request of the editor of the Farmville Mercury, I have written, by the light of this record, the history of St. Patrick's Parish, which was published in the Mercury, and reprinted in the Southern Churchman. Mr. Stringfellow has been diligently and successfully engaged in recovering this Parish from its long sleep, an enterprise which is so deserving, that it should command success. It is a singular coincidence that the vestry book should have come to light at the very time of the Parish's awakening.

I have, too, since the last Council, written and published a sketch of Blisland Parish, in New Kent, based upon a vestry book found since the time of Bishop Meade, who only glanced at this Parish in passing, saying, "There is no vestry book to tell its story."

I have, too, during the year, written and published a memoir of Colonel Joshua Fry, an old vestryman of the last century, sometime professor in William and Mary College, the friend and comrade in arms of Washington, and the Commander-in-chief of Virginia forces in 1755. This service has been gracefully acknowledged by divers historians and historical societies.

I am thinking of printing a curious charred manuscript, saved from a fire at the Mansion House, Alexandria. It contains the diary of a journey in the northwest, made by its unknown author, with General Washington and Dr. Craik and his son. The manuscript has in it, among many other things, a diagram of the grounds and garden of a place called Belvidere, which may lead to the discovery of the author.

All my histories of Parishes, except the sketches in the Southern Churchman, have been printed at my own expense, and most of my salary as Historiographer has been consumed in like manner, and in postage on the enormous correspondence (incident to the office) with the descendants of sires, born, baptized and buried in Virginia, the centre from which have radiated so many of the people of the other States and of several foreign lands, through which the sons of Virginia sires are "scattered abroad." Many of these exiles turn wistfully to the land of their fathers, and inquire as eagerly for certificates of births and baptisms as they would for title deeds to property. People may mock at such sentimentalism (as some call it), but mockery will not expel from human nature a feeling as old as man, and as sacred and beautiful now as when like sentiments were uttered by the patriarchs, the apostles, and by the Saviour himself. Virginians have often been taunted for their pride in their F. F. V's, so called; but those who throw these stones, themselves live in glass houses. There is hardly an American State which has not surpassed Virginia in its care for the "dead past," by appropriating money for gathering and preserving their family and historical records, and in the institution of antiquarian and other associations for recovering and illustrating their old annals, and perpetuating, by memoirs and monuments, poems and pictures, the memory of their sainted and patriotic dead. Even the youngest of her sisters, as Wisconsin and others, have far outstripped her. The most plaintive pleas have been put forth by our Jeffersons, Madisons, Meades, Maxwells, Minors, McCabes, Rives, Hennings, Gilmers, Thompsons, Campbells, Grigsbys, Palmers and many others, with but little effect other than occasional spasmodic awakenings, followed by swift relapses. But for the unsubduable energy of Mr. Brock and his brave associates of the Executive Committee, the Historical Society of the State would ere this have probably been extinct.

The Episcopal Church, so vitally interwoven with our Colonial history, and which (with all its faults) nursed in her bosom the father of his country, the father of the Constitution, the author of the Bill of Rights, and so many of the great men, who fought our battles in council and in the field, has seen her records, "one by one expire," until not a record is left at Jamestown, and even in our old classic metropolis of Williamsburg, there is not a church record older than our late civil war, which capped the climax of our calamities. "Time, war, flood and fire" have dealt their deadly blows at our lives, our fortunes, our old land marks and memorials; and our people had but little heart to gather up the fragments, and reconstruct them into new and strange forms. Their energies have been absorbed in getting the means of subsistence, and rebuilding their waste places. In the meantime others, who have more leisure and more money, and most of the organs of public opinion, are writing our history for us from sectional standpoints, and coloring it with the hues of their own passions and prejudices. Unless we bestir ourselves in time, our children's children will look at us through a distorting medium and see our best and brightest names stained with dishonoring epithets. The parts which our great men, in Church and State, played in that great drama, of which America is the theatre, and whose catastrophe is beyond our ken, instead of looming to posterity in their true historical proportions, will be dwarfed to insignificant figures, playing secondary parts.

With all our losses we have a heritage which it is our Christian duty, by the grace of God, to transmit to our children as the best legacy we can leave them. This legacy includes a profound reverence for the Bible as the word of God, and for His Church as its witness and keeper; for the family as a divine institution, and family-worship and catechism, as the best primary and most normal of all schools; for the sanctity of the Sabbath, as the most conservative of all memorials; for "holy matrimony," as the greatest "bliss that has survived the fall ;" for the honor of our men, whose word is as sacred as their bond, and who feel a stain as a wound ; and for the purity of our women, whose down of delicacy is their peculiar beauty and charm and crown of glory to their husbands. When a flood of infidelity and worldliness is sweeping through the land and menacing so many old landmarks, we should raise up these standards against it and do all within our power, by God's help, to keep alive upon our altars those fires, which, when once extinguished, can never be lighted again but by fire from heaven. If history teaches any lesson (infidels themselves being the judges), it is that the world is built upon moral foundations ; that in the long run it is well for the good and ill for the evil. Opinions change, manners vary, but the moral law, like its author, is the same yesterday, to-day, and forever. There is a God in history and all laws, moral and material, are but the thoughts of God, made visible to the eyes of men.

PHILIP SLAUGHTER.

May 1, 1881.

Mr. B. J. Barbour offered the following :

Resolved, That the Rev. Philip Slaughter be and is hereby re-appointed Historiographer of the Diocese of Virginia, with the salary heretofore attached to that office, the Council binding itself to pay all legitimate expenses of the office.

Carried.

Rev. Dr. Weddell, of the Committee on Zion Union work, offered the following :

The committee in charge of the work of this body among the Zion Union Apostolic Church beg leave to submit the following :

Since our last annual report there has been no material change in the attitude of the Zion Union organization and membership. As heretofore, so now, they continue under our care, desire to be guided by our councils, are under the influence of our teachings, and are being gradually shaped into harmony with our own "doctrine, discipline and worship." As far as their limited education permits, the Prayer Book is being used, and the literature of this Church sought after and studied. Beyond this, as was stated at the Fredericksburg Council, in 1879, they have no present desire to go. They cling tenaciously to their organization. Any attempt as yet to engraft their ministry or membership upon this Church would prove fatal to the work. The fruit will ripen, but there must be no attempt to pluck until it does ripen. In proof of this, and as indicating their exact status, we quote from their own resolutions, as adopted by their Annual Conference:

Resolved 1, That holding firmly to our Church organization, as now constituted, and with no present desire to change the same, we feel the deepest gratitude to the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Christian love and charity which has been extended to us by the same in teaching and disciplining our people, aiding them to embrace a pure Christian faith, and to lead godly and Christian lives.

Resolved 2, That we earnestly desire that the work controlled by the same principle may be continued. * * * * *

Resolved 3, That the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church contains sound doctrine for the edification of all Christian people, and we recommend its use in our churches as the ministers shall find it practicable.

To the great regret of your committee, the Rev. Robb White has resigned the office of Evangelist to these people, to take effect July 1st proximo. In noting this fact, your committee desire to place upon record their testimony as to the conspicuous zeal, fidelity and intelligence with which he has discharged his great and important trust.

Your committee do not recommend a continuance of the office of Evangelist. We believe that the time has arrived when our parochial clergy should recognize the fact, that the negroes within their parochial bounds are an integral part of their parochial work, and that such work can no longer be ignored nor neglected. As the Zion Unions are chiefly within the parishes which now cover the counties of Mecklenburg and Brunswick, upon the rectors of the parishes in these counties the responsibility of doing this work must rest. On this account they will need, and must have, help. Your committee, therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint, with the consent of the ecclesiastical authorities thereof, assistant ministers for the parishes in Mecklenburg and Brunswick for special work among the colored people in those parishes.

2. Resolved, That the salaries of these assistant ministers be paid by the Diocesan Missionary Committee.

3. Resolved, That in consequence of this extra draft upon the treasury, the Dioc-

ALEX. W. WEDDELL,
EDWIN B. JONES,
J. RAVENSCROFT JONES,
Committee.

The Report was received and its resolutions adopted.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey, from the Committee on New Parishes, made the following Report, which was received, and its resolution adopted.

The Committee on New Parishes, to whom was referred the memorial for the change of the name of Leeds Parish, lying within the limits of Prince William, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That so much of the original Parish, called "Leeds Parish," as lies within the county of Prince William, and bounded as follows, to wit: on the north by Whittle Parish, on the east by John's and Truro parishes, on the south by Dettin-gen Parish, and on the West by Cedar Run and Hamilton parishes, be hereafter named and known as "Haymarket" Parish, and shall be entered on the register of parishes in that name.

Mr. J. H. Claiborne presented the report of the Finance Committee, which was approved.

The Finance Committee beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct, and sustained by proper vouchers.

They authorize the Treasurer to pay the salaries of the Bishop, Secretary, Evangelists, Chaplains, and their expenses; $30 to Assistant Secretary; $15 to the Sexton, and whatever balance may be due the Diocese of West Virginia.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CLAIBORNE, Chairman.

Mr. R. E. Withers moved that the record of the proceedings of the Brotherhood at this session be published in the Journal.

Carried.

The committee, to whom was referred the suggestions of President D. N. Walker, looking to a more effective administration of the Brotherhood, beg leave to submit the following statement and suggestions:

The report of the Board of Trustees for the year ending May 15th, 1881, indicates a fearful lack and loss of interest on the part of our Church-people in this noble charity. The evidence of this lack and loss of interest is seen in the fact that, with two hundred churches in the Diocese, only thirty-two have agents; fifty-five have not a single member, not even the clergyman. In ninety-two not a single lay member. But, more than this, the sum paid to the family of a deceased clergymen, which formerly ranged from $1,200 to $1,500, has dwindled to $700 and $800 and is growing beautifully less. The membership, which at one time reached eight hundred, has been reduced to something less than four hundred and twenty-five. Under these circumstances, as must be apparent to all, the condition of the Brotherhood is critical, and its very life threatened. To avert so fearful a calamity, your committee, after mature deliberation, would ask you sanction to the following resolutions:

First. That the Board of Trustees be instructed to employ a general agent at such salary as may be necessary to secure a competent man, whose duty it shall be to canvass the Diocese, confer with the parochial authorities as to the appointment of local agents, and to awaken among our people a deeper interest in the cause.

Second. That Article III of the Constitution be so amended as to reduce the mortuary assessment to be collected on the death of a member from $2.10 to $1.10.

Finally, and without reducing the same to a resolution, your committee would remark that, so far as the presence of unsuitable persons among our clerical beneficiaries has wrought this present depression in the affairs of the Brotherhood, the evil is one which the Brotherhood in its corporate capacity cannot remedy. The remedy must come from the clerical beneficiaries themselves, and we feel that the evil will be promptly remedied as soon as the attention of these beneficiaries is called thereto. This fund is designed for dependent clergy-ment, for the widows and orphans of such as are thrown upon the cold charities of the world. It is not designed for any other class. Some clergy die leaving a competency for their families. Others die leaving married daughters or adult sons. Under such circumstances they have no right to the benefits of this organization. They ought to withdraw as beneficiaries, and become contributing members. And this doubtless they will do now that their attention has been called to the inconsistency of their position; and, further, when they are reminded that their continued membership is working injury to the only organization upon which their dependent brethren can lean for succor.

ALEX. W. WEDDELL,
JOHN B. NEWTON,
A. Y. STOKES,
H. W. SHEFFEY,
JOHN STEWART.

The Bishop was excused from further serving on the Committee on Canons, at his request, and Rev. O. A. Kinsolving was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev. Thos. Spencer moved the following:

Resolved, That the Historiographer be requested to prepare for next Council a list of all the Parishes of this Diocese, from the date of its organization, and of the separate congregations within these Parishes that have been admitted to lay representation in this Council.

Carried.

Judge Sheffey presented the following:

The Committee on New Parishes, to whom was referred the memorial for defining and fixing the dividing line between Dettingen Parish and Haymarket (formerly Leeds) Parish, within the county of Prince William, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following be established and recognized as the dividing line between the Parishes of Dettingen and Leeds (hereafter to be named "Haymarket")

Parish)—that is to say, beginning at a point on the boundary line of Fauquier county, about two miles and one-half mile north of the Virginia Midland railroad, at a point where the Greenwich road crosses Kettle Run; thence northeast to Langyher's Mills; thence following the public road eastward, by the way of Wellington station, crossing the Sudley road near to and south of the residence of William B. Wheeler, and passing through the farm of Mr. Frank Lewis, called "Potisi," to Ball's ford on the Bull Run.

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Acting Chairman.

The Report was approved.

P. H. MAYO, Treasurer.Richmond, Va., May 12th, 1881.

Treasurer's Account Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

ASSETS OF THE SOCIETY—MAY 12th, 1881.

Cash in hand this day, . . .	2,658 60
R. & D. R. R. 6 per cent. Gold Bonds, . . .	8,000 00
Richmond City 6 per cent. Bonds, . . .	6,980 00
R., F. & P. R. R. 8 per cent. Bonds, . . .	1,000 00
R. & D. R. R. 6 per cent. Bonds (1885), . . .	5,000 00

The difference in Assets between 1880 and 1881 is caused by the sale of Virginia Consols, which were in last year's account reported at their face value, but were only worth then about 60 per cent. All of the Bonds now held are selling at a premium, which makes the Assets worth really more than in 1880.

REMARKS.—Since the 11th day of July, 1880, I have had the aid of an assistant—the Rev. Edwin Allanson, by whose active and earnest efforts I have been greatly supported, and the spiritual prosperity of the Parish much promoted. I trust he may be spared to us for many years. With his help two new missionary stations have been begun—one ten miles in Dinwiddie county, at Reams' Station, the other four miles in Chesterfield county, near Wood's Church. He has also opened two additional Sunday schools in the city.

REMARKS.—The church that we have so long been trying to build here is now almost completed, and we expect, if no adverse fortune overtakes us, to get into it by midsummer. There is a feeling of profound gratitude to God, and to the kind friends who have aided them, on the part of the congregation, that they are at last about to have a church of their own. This has been effected through many discouragements and in much weakness. But we have now abundant cause of gladness in the near prospect of the completion of the building and in the thought that it will be completed without one dollar of debt resting on it.

REMARKS.—I have preached several times during the past year at Heathsville, the county seat of Northumberland, in a neat Gothic church, which has been consecrated St. Stephens' (April 30, 1881). Here we have but half a dozen communicants, yet the congregations are large, orderly and attentive.

The Church has been refreshed and encouraged by a visit from our Evangelist, the Rev. J. J. Norwood. The sum of $6.50 was collected by Mr. Norwood for Diocesan missions, and $7.46 by Bishop Whittle for the Education Society. Total, $13.96. This amount is not included in the above report.

I have a regular afternoon monthly service for the colored people in Lancaster.

REMARKS.—The congregation of the Church of the Epiphany has, in the last eighteen months, erected a new Church-building at a cost of $16,146.23, and paid for it in full by their offerings on Easter Day—the first time the auditorium was used for divine service. In its proportions, finish, furniture, solid structure, and neat churchly appearance, and entering it without any debt, the building reflects great credit upon our people, and especially upon the ladies of the congregation, who were the first to respond to the earnest appeals of the rector for increased accommodations, by a will that the house should be built, and a work that laid the foundation, and when the building was completed had the walls most tastefully frescoed, and the floor covered with a beautiful carpet.

The pressure upon the congregation in completing a building, costing nearly twice as much as was at first expected, has hindered, in some measure, our usual contributions to other church and general objects calling for aid.

REMARKS.—My chief work at this point is to keep the building in good repair and to gather a few persons into the fold year by year. At this point our prospects are brightening a little. Truly this is a day of small things. But if our ministers will only hold on to such points without any cost to our society, keep the property up, and gather in a few each year it will finally reward them for their labors.

REMARKS.—The congregation of St. Anne's Church being mostly composed of English people, and by whom the present Church was built, has, in consequence of removals, been greatly reduced. There remain only two families of those who took part in its erection.

The congregations, therefore, are quite small. Add to this the fact that the Church is unhappily located; consequently, services are less frequent than heretofore. The Rector, therefore, has felt it his duty to cover a larger area as his missionary field, than the immediate neighborhood of St. Anne's; and has, in addition, rendered services during the year at Mount Carmel, south of Dan river in Halifax county, at Scottsburg, at Catawba, and several times on the North Carolina line, in the edge of Person county. He has presented four for confirmation at the latter place, which, with his labors at his mission Church and day school for colored people, embraces the aggregate of his labors for the past year.

REMARKS.—It will be perceived that the salary is small in proportion to other Parochial objects. The explanation of this is: a new church has to be finished and paid for. The parsonage and grounds are to the Rector valuable; and thus and otherwise, his family and himself can make the small salary answer.

REMARKS.—St. George's Chapel is included in above report. On the Thursday after Easter, April 21st, the Rector, vestry, choir and congregation, after solemn prayer for God's blessing, broke ground for the erection of the "House of prayer," now in progress of erection, and to be completed by early autumn. It is provided that Church and Rectory shall stand side by side. The congregation is enthusiastic, and kind friends have helped on the good work.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ST. ANDREW'S RECTORY,
LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., April 30th, 1881.

Rt. Rev. Francis M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.

My Dear Bishop,—I beg leave to submit the following report. After returning from the Council last year, there was a service at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, when seventy-nine were baptized, ten of them being adults. The Rev. J. H. M. Pollard conducted the service, preached very acceptably and assisted me. This is Mrs. Buford's work.

Having obtained permission of Bishop Lyman, in August, I visited the Churches in North Carolina. I found the children thoroughly drilled in the catechism, the congregations using heartily the general confession, Creed, Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments.

At Boydton, during the same month, I found the school that Mr. Goodwin had conducted so successfully discontinued. I tried to revive it, but was unsuccessful.

At their annual Conference in Boydton, at the same time, Jas. R. Howell was forced to resign, and Rev. Wm. E. Howell elected Bishop in his place. The former then attacked our Church, and endeavored to have the Convention annul the resolutions upon which your letter of welcome was based. He failed.

Resolutions confirming the relations between us were passed over his opposition. They reiterate their confidence in our Church, and desired the same policy as laid down in the letter of welcome to continue.

Six candidates, whom I have already reported to you, desired assistance in prosecuting their studies for the ministry. Eight of their ministers went to the adjacent free schools last year, their expenses being defrayed. Their improvement in reading is very great. Howell has attempted to ostracize all those who went off to school, by forbidding the Churches to receive them, and by removing them from office. But the people have remained true to them. He refused to abide by the action of the Conference in Boydtown, and continuing to exercise the functions of a Bishop, a meeting was called to try him for insubordination. This Conference, after careful deliberation, expelled him from their ministry and from their communion. He still remains insubordinate, and all the Churches, with one or two exceptions, have closed their doors against him, refusing to hear him or be under his authority again.

Miscellaneous.

On account of the severity of the winter the congregations have not been as large as usual.

The majority of their Churches have no stoves. A pile of fagots on a pile of ashes and sand in the centre of the room serves for a heating apparatus, and the smoke, having no chimney, goes where it pleases, and it generally pleases to go in one's eyes. A hole cut in the logs, with a sliding door, serves for a window to let in the light and the cold at the same time. And yet the congregations have come, walking for miles, and have sat and listened and enjoyed the services and the preaching of the Gospel.

The severity of the winter has kept me back only one Sunday; sometimes I have been to the appointments, riding from ten to thirty miles on horseback, only to make my tracks against them in the snow, when the weather was too bad for them to turn out.

As the spring has opened the congregations are again large, always more than the building can contain, showing that their interest is unabated.

I have suffered a great deal from exposure, and this, together with facts already known to you, have induced me to tender my resignation as Evangelist. I would like for it to take effect at the meeting of the Council; but I have been requested by a number of the Zion Unions to remain with them at least until their annual Conference in August, when they think they will be rid of Howell as a disturbing element. I leave you to decide, therefore, when it shall take effect.

In laying down this charge, I am deeply sensible of the things done that I ought not to have done, and left undone that I ought to have done. But I would be untrue to my Master, if I did not record the pleasure, and satisfaction, and comfort, that He has given me in my work among these humble people, and untrue to them did I not express my regrets at leaving them, and my heartfelt gratitude for the affection and consideration they have always shown me. May the Great Bishop and Shepherd of souls bless them, and grant that we all may be one flock, under one Shepherd, Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Very respectfully, yours in Christ,

ROBB WHITE, Evangelist.

ABINGDON, VA., May 16, 1881.

To Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle :

As Evangelist in Southwest Virginia my work dates from December 1, 1880. During the winter and spring I have been enabled to visit and preach at Blacksburg, Central Depot, New River, Wytheville, Marion, Seven-Mile Ford, Glade Spring, Saltville, Cole's School-house and Ropp's School-house in Washington county, Bristol, Elk Garden and Lebanon. These services have occupied me every Sunday, and whenever practicable I have preached during week.

In Tazewell and Russell counties I have found difficulty in making regular appointments thus far, owing to our having no church buildings, but in summer weather will be rid of this impediment I trust.

My congregations have been, without exception, good, and sometimes large, and I feel that I have every reason to be thankful and encouraged.

I have been much aided by the experience of Rev. Mr. Gibbs, who has also helped me by exchanging at times.

Yours, very respectfully,

JOHN J. LLOYD.

WINCHESTER, May 6, 1881.To the Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.:

I hereby transmit my report for the Church year of 1880.

I have been sick and confined at home most of the year. Am just recovering, and about arranging for the summer and fall appointments. I shall not operate in the same field, unless I get a better salary than before—all promises and no pay.

I have worked for nothing as long as I am able, and must look to myself and family. I love to preach, &c., and while I had the means made no collections. Have had Church services when able. Four marriages and funerals, one baptism. I will labor on if sustained, but if not, must go at something else.

My post-office is Winchester, Frederick county, Va.

JOHN B. T. REED, Missionary.

Miscellaneous.

WINCHESTER, VA., May 16, 1881.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir,—I would respectfully report that during the past year I have been engaged in the performance of duty as Principal of the Episcopal Female Institute; have likewise acted as assistant minister of Christ Church. I would report baptisms, infants 2, adults 1, total 3. Funerals 1.

Yours, fraternally,

J. C. WHEAT.

SAN MARINO, May 17, 1881.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.

Rev. and Dear Bishop,—In compliance with Canon, I would report that I continue to preach one Sunday in every month at Sapony Church, Dinwiddie; one Sunday at the Grange Hall, Dinwiddie, and one Sunday to a colored congregation near me. The Trinity congregation, Brunswick, being without any services after my resignation (mentioned in my last report), and failing to unite with St. Andrew's Church, invited me to resume my services there, and I have been preaching for them one Sunday in every month since Nov. last, till some arrangement can be made for the union of the two Churches under one Pastor.

Most respectfully submitted,

E. B. JONES, Deacon.

DANVILLE, May 20th, 1881.

The Committee beg leave to say, in connection with the above report, first, that there has been a strange, unaccountable neglect on the part of many Parishes to send in the requisite information to the making out of a full report. Many counties have totally forgotten to report, and within several of the Parishes one or more of the churches have withheld reports. It is not deemed proper to encumber this report with the names of these delinquent Parishes and Churches, the Committee believing that they will be sufficiently conspicuous by their absence, and that a large number, if not all, will be sent in before the publication of the Journal. Furthermore, the committee is pained to see how many Parishes have failed to provide rectories for their Ministers. It is hardly necessary to suggest how important it is that a Minister should be bound to his Parish by a home feeling, and that he should be in all respects one of the community. It is sincerely hoped that every Parish now delinquent in this respect, will, to the best of its ability, and in the shortest possible time, hasten to make up this deficiency by giving to such of their Pastors as may desire it (and there are few, we presume, who do not) a decent, commodious and comfortable house and home. In conclusion, the Committee is happy to be able to report that the deficiencies in the payment of the salaries of Ministers are comparatively few and small. The exact amount cannot be given until the delayed reports have been sent in.

B. JOHNSON BARBOUR,
Chairman of Committee.

When any such property shall be recovered by said Committee it shall be held by the Trustees appointed, for the use and benefit of this Church, or the Parish or Congregation properly entitled thereto.

Rev. J. G. Armstrong offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Sunday Schools:

Resolved, That the Diocese of Virginia pray the General Convention to appoint a Committee on Sunday School Hymns, so that a uniform Hymnal, having the approval of the General Church as to doctrine and language, may be within the reach of all our Episcopal Sunday Schools, thus insuring to us a pure form of worship for the children of the Church.

Rev. J. J. Gravatt, from the Committee on Credentials, reported the following Lay delegates entitled to seats in the Council. (Vide page 12.)

The Bishop then read his Annual Address.

REPORT OF BISHOP WHITTLE.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:

Our Eighty-sixth Annual Council assembled on 18th day of May, 1881, in Epiphany Church, Danville, where one had never met before. It was a peculiarly solemn and interesting occasion. The building was consecrated to the worship of Almighty God, Bishop Peterkin of West Virginia, assisting me in the service. The venerable rector of the Parish, Rev. Geo. W. Dame, read the sentence of consecration, and his three sons the Morning Prayer, and the Rev. A. S. Johns, son of our late Bishop, preached the sermon. The church in Danville was planted by its present rector, and the beautiful and spacious church building, with its flourishing congregation and large list of communicants, is a noble monument to the fidelity and success of his labors of more than forty years.

May 22.—In the same church, after sermon by Rev. Dr. Gibson, confirmed twenty-three white and two colored.

May 23.—Grace, Halifax, confirmed five, and the next day in St. John's, eighteen.

May 25.—Confirmed eight in Christ Church, and the day following one white and one colored in St. Luke's.

May 27.—Christ, Charlotte, confirmed two.

May 28.—Grace, twelve. This was a sad day to our people in Charlotte, being the close of the very acceptable and blessed ministry of several years amongst them of Rev. L. R. Mason, who had resigned to remove to another Diocese.

June 4.—St. John's, Prince George, confirmed ten.

June 5.—Merchant's Hope, confirmed six, and in the afternoon of the same day, by request of Rev. J. W. Shields, baptized three infants.

June 6.—Brandon Church, confirmed twenty-one.

June 7.—Grace, Surry, confirmed one.

June 8.—In the Methodist church, Bacon's Castle, same county, confirmed twelve, presented by Rev. E. V. Jones, who held regular missionary services at this point.

June 9.—Christ, Smithfield, confirmed five.

June 10.—Preached in the Church of our Saviour, Southampton county.

June 11.—Read prayers, baptized an infant, preached and confirmed four, in the new church at Jerusalem, which was ready for consecration, but there was no minister to assist me in the service.

June 12.—Read prayers, baptized an infant, and preached in St. Andrew's, Sussex.

June 16.—Christ, Charlottesville, confirmed seven.

June 19.—St. John's, Langley, Fairfax county, confirmed two, and in Sharon seven. The services at these churches are conducted by students of the Seminary.

June 20.—In the Seminary chapel confirmed seven.

June 23.—Consecrated the new Seminary chapel. It was a very great pleasure on this interesting occasion to have Bishops Pinkney, of Maryland, and Peterkin, of West Virginia, read the Morning Prayer, and Bishop Lee of Delaware, the ante-Communion Service. Rev. Dr. Nelson read the Sentence of Consecration, and Dr. Packard preached an appropriate sermon. If any fault could be found with this beautiful building it was the want of a stained glass window in its eastern end, to correspond with the window in the chancel. But this defect will soon be remedied by the generous liberality of Bishop Pinkney, who has ordered such a window as I have mentioned to be put in the chapel at a cost of one hundred and fifty dollars.

June 24.—The usual ordination was held in the chapel, when ten persons were made Deacons, and six Deacons advanced to the Priesthood. Professors Nelson and McElhinney presented the candidates and Rev. R. T. Davis, D. D., preached the sermon.

Bishop's Report.

June 26.—In the morning consecrated St. Mark's Church, Richmond, preached, and confirmed eight, Rev. Dr. Peterkin and the Rector, Rev. Dr. Dashiell, assisting in the service. At night preached in Christ Church, and confirmed seven. The congregation of St. Mark's was started by its present Rector in what is now St. Philip's colored church, corner of Leigh and St. James' streets, and after a time removed to a building on Fourth street. This building was subsequently taken down and the present permanent one erected, corner of Clay and First streets. The church has prospered from the beginning, under the earnest and efficient ministry of Rev. Dr. Dashiell, until it has become a great power for good in the city.

The month of July was spent in much needed rest, and in preparing for laborious work during the remainder of the summer.

August 7.—Preached morning and night in St. John's, Wytheville, administering the Communion at the former service, and at the latter confirming sixteen white and one colored.

August 9.—Preached morning and night in Christ Church, Marion, Rev. J. J. Lloyd reading the service.

August 10.—In the Methodist Church, Glade Spring, Washington county, preached and confirmed two, presented by Rev. Geo. S. Gibbs.

August 11.—St. Thomas, Abingdon, confirmed eight.

August 12.—Emmanuel, Goodson, confirmed two.

August 13.—Accompanied by Rev. J. J. Lloyd drove forty miles in a spring wagon to Tazewell Courthouse, and the next morning preached in the Methodist church, and confirmed three.

August 15.—Thirty miles to Elk Garden, Russell county, and at night preached in the Methodist Church, and confirmed one.

Tazewell and Russell counties are new fields for our church, where Rev. Mr. Lloyd is laboring as Evangelist, not without encouragement and hope.

August 17.—Preached in the McGill Memorial Church, Pulaski, and confirmed one.

August 18.—Emmanuel, Dublin, baptized the infant daughter of the rector, Rev. J. P. Lawrence, preached and confirmed three.

August 19.—Accompanied Mr. Lawrence twenty-two miles to Pearisburg, Giles county, and at night preached in the Methodist church, and confirmed one.

August 21.—Assisted by Rev. J. J. Lloyd, consecrated St. James', a very nice church at Central Depot, Montgomery county, and preached; and in the afternoon of the same day preached in St. John's, Pulaski.

August 22.—Preached in Christ church, Blacksburg, after service by Mr. Lloyd.

The two churches in Montgomery, the three in Pulaski, the mission station in Giles, the church in Wytheville and the one in Abingdon are all without ministers. The churches in Montgomery and Wytheville I hope will soon be supplied.

August 24.—By request of our Presbyterian brethren (our building being too small to hold the people) preached in their church in Salem, Roanoke county, and confirmed seven.

August 25.—St. John's, Roanoke, confirmed five.

August 27.—Elon Presbyterian Church, Amherst, read the service and preached.

August 28.—St. Luke's, read the service, preached and confirmed four. This Parish was without a rector.

August 29.—Ascension, Amherst Courthouse, confirmed two, and the next day in St. Mark's, New Glasgow, confirmed two.

August 31.—Bethlehem, Nelson, confirmed one.

September 1.—Preached in Trinity, and the next day preached in Christ Church, and confirmed four.

September 9.—Consecrated St. James Church, Louisa Courthouse, a very comfortable and pretty building, and confirmed two. Rev. Messrs. Weddell and Joyner conducted the service, and Dr. Dashiell preached the sermon. This Church is the fruit of God's blessing on the zealous labors of the then Rector, Rev. James Grammer.

September 10.—Preached in St. Martin's, Hanover.

September 11.—Preached in Fork Church, and the next day in Trinity, and confirmed nine, Rev. Dr. Robert Nelson kindly assisting me in the services, the rectorship being vacant.

September 13.—Christ, Gordonsville, confirmed two.

September 14.—St. Thomas, Orange Courthouse, confirmed eight.

September 15.—Emmanuel, Culpeper, after service by Bishop Wilmer, of Alabama, preached and confirmed one, the rectorship being vacant.

October 16.—Assisted by the Rector, Rev. W. A. Alrich, consecrated Emmanuel Church, Pittsylvania Courthouse, preached, and confirmed three; and in the afternoon preached, and confirmed two in Christ Church.

October 28.—Preached in Meade Memorial, Manchester, and ordained Rev. E. Allanson, Presbyter, assisted by Rev. Drs. Minnigerode and Gibson, and Rev. R. F. Jackson. The first three days in November had appointments in Nansemond county, which a severe storm prevented me from filling.

November 5.—Hungar's, Northampton, confirmed six.

November 6.—Christ, Eastville, confirmed four. Sickness compelled me to give up appointments in Accomac and return home. The same cause obliged me to recall appointments in five counties south of James river, where I was next due.

DEATH.

I have to report the death of one clerical brother during the past year. Rev. John R. Lee departed this life at Franklin Courthouse, on Easter evening, 8th April, 1882, in the seventy-ninth year of his age, and the thirty-ninth of his ministry. Mr. Lee came from Pennsylvania, and devoted the earlier years of his manhood to teaching in Halifax county. The whole of his ministry was passed in Leaks-ville, North Carolina, and in Henry and Franklin counties, where he labored faithfully as long as health and strength lasted. Disabled by old age and infirmity, he had ceased from active service for several years. He was universally respected in every community where he was known for the simplicity and purity of his character, and for his godly walk and conversation, and I can desire nothing better for you or myself than that we may die the death of the righteous, and that our last end may be like his.

The parochial and other reports show that the faithful labors of ministers and people have not been without God's blessing during the past year. More than one thousand persons confirmed, thirteen Deacons ordained, thirty-five candidates for Priest's orders, six new churches consecrated and eleven Lay Readers licensed, surely proves that the old Diocese is neither dead nor asleep, and that God has not forsaken us or forgotten to be gracious.

While it is gratifying to learn that the salaries promised the clergy have been generally better paid than usual, still the discouraging fact appears, that although seventeen have been added to the number of our ministers, we close the year with a gain of only four, eleven of those lost having removed from the Diocese. No doubt these removals to a certain extent must go on as long as the material condition of the State continues so depressed as compared with that of other parts of the country, and while the laity continue to emigrate in such large numbers. But most of our ministers who leave us are obliged, by the utter insufficiency of their salaries, to go where their services are more highly valued and better rewarded. If the people could only realize how they would impart heart and strength and efficiency to their pastors, and thus really secure blessings for themselves, by relieving them of their incessant anxiety as to what they and their families shall eat, and what they shall drink, and where-withal they shall be clothed, there would be, as there ought to be, great improvement in this matter of clerical support.

Most, if not all, of our societies will report an increase in the amount of contributions received. I especially rejoice that this is true of our Diocesan Missionary Society, the first in importance of them all. It is to me simply amazing that this society, upon which the extension, and in a large part of the Diocese, the very life of the Church depends, does not enlist the hearty support of every minister and of all our people. The addition to the society's funds during the past year is entirely due, in my opinion, to the good influence of "Our Diocesan Work," a little paper published by the Executive Committee, and edited by three of its members. Such is my estimate of the value of this publication as a help to the minister, who desires to be helped, in promoting the cause of religion and the interests of the church amongst the people, that I wish it were regularly read by every family in the Diocese.

The Executive Committee have also published an enlarged and greatly improved edition of "The Mission Prayer Book for Church and Sunday School," to which I would call the attention of my clerical brethren, and especially of those who are engaged in missionary work. It contains nearly all the services of the Prayer Book, and the best hymns from the Hymnal, a Sunday School Liturgy with suitable hymns, can be used in any congregation, is in good type, and very cheap.

The reports will show an increase of work amongst the colored people, with much to encourage those engaged in it. Schools are being established and services conducted for their benefit in various parts of the Diocese, and one result is a much larger number of confirmations than I have ever reported before. They are trying in several places to erect houses of worship for their exclusive use, and I trust every such effort will be encouraged and liberally aided by their more highly favored brethren. The Rev. Thomas Spencer has under his instruction, in the Theological School in Petersburg, five colored men who are looking forward to the ministry, one having been recently ordained Deacon, after passing an examination highly creditable to his teacher and himself. Mr. Spencer's salary is provided by the trustees of the Seminary, but money is needed for the expenses of the students, and I appeal to my brethren to give of their substance to sustain and enlarge this charity. Looking at the question merely as citizens and with reference to this world, the importance to ourselves as well as to them of doing all in our power to bring the colored population under the good moral and religious instruction of our Church cannot, in my judgment, be exaggerated. And those who are earnestly engaged in this work, I am sure, will testify that, all things considered, they have as much to encourage them and as many tokens of God's blessing as they have in their labors amongst our own people.

Rev. J. J. Norwood has been abundant in labors during the past year, conducting protracted services in vacant churches and at mission stations, administering the sacraments, visiting the sick, and performing such other ministerial offices as were needed. Still entertaining the same views of the importance and usefulness of his ministrations which I have repeatedly expressed, I hope the Council will continue him in the work of an Evangelist.

Rev. J. J. Lloyd, after giving two Sundays each month to the church in Bristol-Goodson, devotes the rest of his time as your Evangelist to different missionary points in several counties. While I believe Mr. Lloyd to be as well qualified for his work and as faithful as any man, I am convinced that his field of labor (which is in all respects totally unlike that occupied by Mr. Norwood) is not one in which an Evangelist ought to be employed. Therefore, I cannot conscientiously recommend the renewal of Mr. Lloyd's appointment for another year, but suggest that his work be remitted to the Diocesan Missionary Society.

Our Theological Seminary and High School, continuing to enjoy the favor of both God and man, are in a highly prosperous condition. The Virginia Female Institute, our Diocesan school for girls, under the able management of Mrs. Stuart and her assistants, is steadily securing the confidence of the public and increasing in the number of its pupils. I can, without qualification, cordially recommend it as being, in my judgment, worthy of the patronage of our Church people.

Bishop's Report.

In July, Rev. H. Suter resigned the office of Examining Chaplain for the Diocese, greatly to the regret of his colleagues and the theological students, as well as of myself, and Rev. Beverly D. Tucker was appointed his successor.

It is to be regretted that the interest which was manifested at the last Council in the cause of temperance, and of the Church Temperance Society, does not appear to have continued, and very little seems to have been done throughout the Diocese. Surely the subject has lost none of its importance, and our responsibilities are as great and solemn as ever, and I trust that we may never cease our prayers and efforts until the unspeakable evil of manufacturing, selling and drinking intoxicating liquors is at least banished from the Church, if not from the world.

Whatever may be done with the rest of the report of the Committee on the Revision of the Canons—which I presume will be presented to this Council—it is a matter of great importance that some such canon be adopted as the one which has been proposed in regard to mission churches.

We have no Canon authorizing the organization of a new and independent congregation, except where the people are able to build a house of worship and provide for the support of a minister. But cases frequently occur (and are going to occur more frequently in future) where these conditions cannot be complied with, and yet churches ought to, and will be, organized, if not according to law, then without law. To provide for such cases this Canon was framed, and I respectfully urge the Council to consider and adopt it, or a better one in its place.

I have received from Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., the following letter:

RICHMOND, VA., May 10, 1882.

My Dear Bishop:

At various times in the last few years I have occupied myself in compiling a brief summary of the proceedings of our Conventions and Councils from the year 1785 to the present time. The MS. contains a digest of our Diocesan legislation, together with complete lists of the clergy and lay delegates up to the Council of 1881. It has been to me a work of pleasure, and it has occurred to me that if published, it might, for various reasons, be of use to the Diocese. If you and the brethren of the Council think the same, I shall be very glad to present the MS. to the Diocese. Please consider it as in your possession and subject to your control.

Yours truly,

T. G. DASHIELL.

Bishop's Report.

I have not examined the MS, which I know our brother has been for years engaged in preparing, and which he now so generously presents to the Council, expecting no pecuniary return whatever. But if the work has been thoroughly and well done—as I doubt not it has been, for its author does thoroughly and well whatever he undertakes—it would make a volume of great interest and value to the ministers and laity of the Diocese, and especially to the younger clergy and theological students. I respectfully recommend that the MS. be accepted and referred to a committee, who shall examine, and, if in their judgment expedient, publish it at the expense of the Council.

I will not detain you longer from the business which has brought us together, and may He, from whom all good things do come, grant to us, that by His holy inspiration we may think those things that are good, and by his merciful guiding may perform the same, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey offered the following :

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the manuscript Digest or Compilations of the Journals of the Diocese, prepared by the Rev. Dr. Dashiell, and by him presented to the Diocese, which is hereby accepted, be referred to a committee to consist of the Bishop, four clergymen, and four laymen, with power to cause the same to be published if upon examination of the manuscript said committee shall deem it expedient so to do; the edition to consist of not less than five hundred copies, and to be distributed or disposed of as said committee may deem most judicious: provided, that at least two hundred and fifty copies be retained subject to the order of the next Council of the Diocese. The expense that may be incurred in the publication to be paid by the Treasurer upon the order of the Bishop.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed:

Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.,
Rev. C. Minnigerode, D. D.,	Mr. H. W. Sheffey,
" Pike Powers,	Dr. William P. Palmer,
" H. M. Jackson,	Mr. B. J. Barbour,
" A. W. Weddell, D. D.,	" John L. Williams.

Rev. T. M. Carson moved that Friday night be set apart for the

Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Branch of the Church Temperance Society.

Carried.

The Report of the Committee on Canons, being the order of the day, was then taken up, and it was adopted as reported by the committee.

Rev. Dr. Weddell moved that so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to the work among the colored people be referred to a special committee.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed:

Rev. A. W. Weddell, D. D.,	Mr. L. M. Blackford,
" J. G. Shackelford,	" John L. Williams,
" B. T. Turner,	" J. A. Blume.

Rev. H. M. Jackson brought up the Report on the Contingent Fund, which was laid over from the last Council, and requested leave to withdraw the same, and asked that the committee be discharged.

Leave to withdraw the Report was thereupon granted, and the committee was discharged.

Rev. H. T. Sharp, from the committee on the Episcopal Fund, presented the Report, which was received and referred to the Finance Committee.

The Committee on the Episcopal Fund beg leave to report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer, and found them to be correct.

The value of the securities is estimated at $5,862.

The Committee would make two recommendations:

1. That, inasmuch as there is every year a surplus in the receipts from assessments for the contingent fund of the Diocese, the said surplus, either in whole or in part, be annually added to the Episcopal Fund, so as steadily to raise it to the point of an endowment.

2. That the money in the hands of the Treasurer be invested either in ground rents or in first mortgages on real estate. The losses heretofore sustained from investments in stocks have induced the Committee to make this second suggestion.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HENRY T. SHARP,
JNO. W. GREEN.

Consent has been given for the consecration of Rev. Dr. Whitehead as Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburg.

The committee having considered sundry matters referred to them by the last Council, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz:

1. Resolved, That this Council concurs in the amendment to the "ratification of the Book of Common Prayer," adopted by the General Convention of 1880.
2. Resolved, That this Council is not prepared to pledge the Diocese to coöperate in the proposed scheme for "increasing the fund for disabled clergy and their families," as indicated in the report of the committee of the House of Deputies, of the General Convention of 1880, upon that subject.
3. Resolved, That this Council is of opinion that each Diocese should provide for the travelling expenses of its clerical and lay deputies, and for the maintenance of such deputies during the session of the General Convention. The Diocese of Virginia has made such provision in the past, and intends to make a like provision in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

J. PACKARD, President.

GEORGE H. NORTON, Secretary.

Pending the discussion of the resolutions appended to the Report the Council took recess for Divine Service.

12.30 P. M.

The Council re-assembled.

Mr. R. E. Withers moved that so much of the Bishop's Address as refers to an Evangelist in Southwest Virginia be referred to a Special Committee of three clergymen and three laymen.

The motion was carried, and the following committee appointed:

Rev. T. M. Carson,

Mr. R. E. Withers,

" James Grammer,

" Taylor Berry,

" R. A. Goodwin,

" J. B. Brockenbrough.

Mr. T. R. B. Wright offered the following:

Resolved, That Canon IX, section 2, clause 4, be amended by inserting after the words "only male persons" the words "and communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church," so as to make the clause read "only male persons and communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall be eligible to the office of Vestryman," &c.

Resolved, That a committee of two clergy and two laymen be appointed to report upon the propriety of so amending the said Canon, and that this be made the order of the day after the Journal is read to-morrow morning.

Mr. B. J. Barbour then read the report of the Historiographer.

TO BISHOP WHITTLE:

My Dear Bishop,—As in duty bound, I respectfully report that, by reason of bodily infirmities, I have only been able to preach three or four times since the last Council. As it respects my other duties, I have written a series of sketches of the historic churches of Virginia, as a contribution to the Centennial History of the American Episcopal Church, which Bishop.

Historiographer's Report.

Perry, of Iowa, is preparing, with the co-operation of the Bishops of Pennsylvania, New York and Connecticut. I did not feel at liberty to decline this request, which seemed to me to be within the line of my duty as Historiographer. I have also ready for the press some "Personal Reminiscences and Literary remains of the late eminent Jurist and Historian, the Honorable William Green, LL. D." This was written at the suggestion and request of eminent members of the Richmond Bar, for the Historical Society of Virginia, of which Mr. Green was an honored officer.

The Antique Register of Births, Baptisms and Burials of Charles Parish, in the county of York, to which I have before referred, has been very kindly copied in the office and under the eye of that learned lawyer and accomplished Antiquary, Mr. Conway Robinson, well known not only for his legal lore, but also for many valuable contributions to the History of Virginia; and whose zeal in the last regard has not been abated by his removal to Washington, and his absorbing professional labors. It is hoped that Mr. Robinson will further illustrate his labors of love by enriching this Register with some notes and comments of his own. This venerable document, beginning in 1660, revives the memory of a Parish which has been dropped from our records for half a century, and whose very site is known to but few persons of this generation.

I have also, in connection with the elegant draughtsman, General Thomas H. Williamson, Professor of Architecture, Drawing, Engineering and Geography, in the Virginia Military Institute, made a map of the Diocese, giving the location and bounds of Parishes, and the sites of churches, old and new, so far as they could be found. The map contains also a clergy-list from the beginning of the Church in Virginia, and other statistics.

General Williamson has displayed his talents as an artist by painting on the margin pictures of many Colonial churches, and portraits of some eminent churchmen, English and American. It was impossible for us to personally inspect the sites of churches and bounds of parishes, and unluckily many of them are not of record. I endeavored earnestly and persistently to supplement the lack of information in the records by repeated appeals to the Parishes. Some kindly responded and gave valuable information; but, as in the case of all like appeals, the responses were few and far between. Under such circumstances, it was simply impossible to make a perfect map. It must be borne in mind that this is only an experiment, and the first essay in this direction. As such, it is exhibited for criticism. Members of the Council are invited to inspect it, and to make a note in writing of every error and omission they can find, that the errors may be corrected and the omissions supplied. The truth is that many ministers and laymen do not know the bounds of their own Parishes. Indeed, there are not a few Parishes whose bounds are not known exactly to any person, because there is no known record of them extant.

It will not, perhaps, be regarded as an impertinence if in this connection I take a brief retrospect of the origin and history of Parishes, as they have descended to us of this generation. It is well known that church lines were conformed to the civil divisions of the Roman Empire, and that it is from that source we derive our church-words—Diocese, Province, and Parish. The term Parish (which is Greek) was first used to designate what we now call a Diocese—that is, the jurisdiction of a Bishop, which was at first a city and its surroundings, and when the latter became too populous to be overseen by the Bishop at the centre Chore-episcopoi, country Bishops or suffragans were set over them. Our Mother Church of England derived this system from the Roman Empire, once dominant in England, and which impressed itself so deeply upon all peoples whom it ruled that traces of it are yet seen and felt in all civilized communities. The word Parish was first used in this large sense in England, and some historians, by not bearing this fact in mind, have fallen into the error of confounding Parishes and Dioceses, as may be seen in Selden. Parishes in the modern sense, defined by Blackstone—"a circuit of ground committed to the care of one parson (persona ecclesiæ), vicar, or other minister, having the cure of souls therein"—were of gradual growth. Although Parishes are a recognized element in the British Constitution, and great care is taken to preserve their boundaries and to enforce the rights and duties depending upon them, yet it is curious that their bounds were never defined there by act of Parliament, as ours were in Colonial times by act of Assembly and otherwise. In England, like so many other institutions, they are the result of ancient and immemorial custom; in other words, they exist by common law. The original centres about which the English Parishes were formed, were the old British churches which were found standing, as many of our old colonial churches survived the American Revolution. As new churches were built, generally (at first) by Lords of manors (whence by the way arose lay patronage) these new churches became the centres of new Parishes. So careful were they in England to keep the bounds of Parishes intact and well known, that the minister and some of the substantial parishioners were required by law to "perambulate," that is, walk around the Parish once a year—the minister reminding the people of the curse denounced against those who removed the old land-marks—just as the Vestries in colonial Virginia were required by law to appoint responsible freeholders to "procession" the lands; that is, to go around each planter's land and renew the marks upon the trees every few years. Before the time of Queen Elizabeth, perambulations of parishes were attended with curious ceremonies, such as the carrying of banners, ringing of bells, and like diversions, which led to such abuses that they were forbidden by the "Injunctions" of that Queen. But the perambulations were continued with simple religious ceremonies, ending in service at church. One reason, doubtless, of the strict observance of the law for perambulations was, that the minister's income depended upon the number of tithables within his Parish; so that it was his interest, as well as his duty, to know the bounds of his jurisdiction. In Colonial Virginia, the first settlements, called "Plantations,"

Historiographer's Report.

"Hundreds," "Gifts," "Choises," and the like, when they had a minister, were Parishes, and were represented in the House of Burgesses. In 1634, these settlements were formed into eight counties. Within the counties new Parishes were instituted, and new churches built, as fast as the settlers got beyond the reach of the mother Church; it being the policy of the British Government, that the Church should keep company with the people. At first, Parishes were made by the Governor and Council, or General court, as well as by the House of Burgesses, which latter body, as early as 1647, not only empowered, but commanded the county courts to divide their several counties into Parishes without delay (1 Hening). So that the records of each of the foregoing bodies are the sources of intelligence as to the dates and bounds of Parishes. Many of these records have been consumed by time, war, flood and fire. The bounds of most of the Parishes, instituted by the House of Burgesses, are preserved in "Hening's Statutes at Large," but some of the lines cannot now be traced, because the land-marks being ephemeral, such as the names of plantations, roads, and creeks, whose names have been changed, cannot now be recognized. To the year 1776, we have lists of the colonial Parishes. After the union of Church and State had been dissolved, the Episcopal Church was incorporated by the Legislature, and the act of incorporation recognized the colonial parishes and vestries and constituted the latter trustees of such church property as had not been confiscated. And when finally the last State prop was knocked from under the church, and it was left to walk alone, the powers of government and discipline being held to have reverted to the people, they elected vestries, and sent lay as well as clerical deputies to the conventions, which now for the first time had power to make laws for themselves. The parishes which had been created by the colonial House of Burgesses, and been recognized by the Republican Legislature in the act of incorporation, were again recognized by the Protestant Episcopal Church in convention. The new constitution of the church declared that every parish in the Diocese should be entitled to the benefits of this constitution when it shall have sent a lay delegate to the convention. The old parishes were recognized as not being dead, but sleeping, and as soon as they were sufficiently awakened to send a deputy to the convention, they, by that act, were restored to the Statu quo ante bellum, as to their church privileges. So that it would seem to be a work of supererogation for an old parish to ask for re-admission to the Council. The very act of sending a deputy re-instates them.

Such having been the theory and the practice, and there being so many more Parishes than ministers, the question of new Parishes never arose until 1823, when it was suggested by the application of Mr. John Moore to be received as lay deputy from Fall's Church in Fairfax Parish. The petition was denied, upon the ground that Fairfax Parish was represented by the deputies from Alexandria. This was the occasion and the cause of the first canon for the division of Parishes under the new regime. Since that date many old Parishes have been divided, and many new ones established. And although the canons required that the new Parishes should have express metes and bounds, yet, in many cases, these bounds have not been recorded in the journals, nor otherwise preserved. They cannot, therefore, be exactly ascertained, as, in most cases, those who were personally cognizant of them have passed away. Our legislation has been often very loose, being often extemporized to meet present emergencies, without stopping to consider its connection with the past or its bearing upon other provisions of the Canons. We make certain rights and duties depend upon Parish lines, and yet take no adequate care to keep those lines in memory.

In 1848, the Committee on Canons was instructed to inquire into the expediency of abolishing Parish lines altogether, and they reported unanimously against it, upon the ground that it would cause more evils than it would cure. If we were to do so unhistorical a thing, its effect would be to bring us back under the operation of the General Canons, which provide that in case a Diocese does not define its Parish lines, the Bishop and the Standing Committee may do it; and if they fail to act, the lines shall conform to those of the townships or other civil divisions, when approved by the Bishop. It is presumed that the ecclesiastical authorities would not care to have this responsibility and trouble added to their burdens. The alternative, then, would be the obliteration of Parish lines, leaving every man to do what seemed right in his own eyes, even to the instituting a mission under the very walls of other ministers' churches, and such like things, which would introduce into our orderly Church "confusion worse confounded"; or we must resort to some other legislation to obviate these consequences. If these things be so, it follows that it would be "better to bear the ills we have than flee to others that we know not of."

It only remains that we shall keep up the old landmarks as well as we can. The proposed map is an essay towards that end; and if ministers and people would contribute their personal knowledge and the most reliable traditions in their Parishes, its errors might be corrected and its omissions supplied; and soon we should have a standard authority visible to every man's eyes, and in our Parish perambulations we should no longer walk in darkness.

I would only add that I have recently procured, through the kind offices of the Rev. William B. Lee, the Register of Abingdon Parish, beginning in 1687, which revives the names of the ancestors of many of our old families, and supplies a missing link in our Records.

The thanks of the Council were returned to the Historiographer for his interesting report, and the same was ordered to be printed in the Journal.

The Council resumed consideration of the Standing Committee's Report.

Proceedings.

Rev. Dr. Pendleton moved to refer its first resolutions to a special committee to report to the next Council.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell moved as an amendment to refer the whole subject to a special committee to report to the next Council.

Mr. Mann Page moved to pass by and make it the order of the day for to-morrow after service.

Carried.

Mr. W. W. Old moved that when the Council adjourn, it adjourn to meet at 5 P. M. in the Church.

Carried.

Mr. B. J. Barbour moved the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to confer with the Bishop, and then to digest and offer to-morrow the best plan in their opinion for ascertaining the wishes and views of the laity on the subject of the division of this Diocese.

Pending consideration of this resolution, the Council adjourned to meet in the Church at 5 P. M.

5 P. M.

The Council reassembled.

The order of the day being called, the Council went into Committee of the Whole on Diocesan Missions, with Rev. Dr. Hanckel in the Chair.

At 7 P. M., the committee arose, and the Council adjourned.

FRIDAY, May 19.

The Council met at 9 A. M., and was called to order by the Bishop, after prayer by Rev. John J. Gravatt.

The minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

Reports of Committees on Disabled Clergy Fund—Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

Present—Rev. Preston G. Nash, Rev. John A. Wharton, Rev. D. M. Wood.

Rev. Dr. Hains reported the following :

The Committee on the Disabled Clergy Fund beg leave to report that they have examined the annual statement of the Treasurer, and found it sustained by proper vouchers. The Committee is also gratified to find that the contributions to this Fund are nearly fifty per cent. larger this year than they were last year.

C. R. HAINS, Chairman.

Rev. Dr. Gibson presented the following Report :

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Diocese of Virginia report this year no material increase of the principal from which their income is derived. Our Treasurer states the amount as $23,653.71, in bonds above par. One favorable item we are glad to notice. The number of churches contributing to the annual income is larger this year than usual. We have received from sixty-seven congregations a token of their remembrance; and although the amount given ($700) does not come up to the contribution of 1879—that being $777—still it is much larger than last year's amount of collections, and is an evidence, we trust, of an increasing interest throughout the Diocese in the important charity committed to our trust. The collections from the churches and the interest upon the bonds have given us this year an income of about $2,100. Of this the Board has distributed $1,760 among twelve beneficiaries, and ordered the balance to be judiciously invested.

Respectfully submitted,

CHURCHILL J. GIBSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society respectfully report:

The number of Missionaries aided by the committee during the year has been thirty-three. Of these four, viz: Rev. L. R. Mason, Rev. T. H. Lacy, Rev. E. H. Wellman, and Rev. L. J. Sothoron, have removed to other Dioceses; two, Rev. James Grammer and Rev. C. J. S. Mayo, have taken charge of self-supporting Parishes in other parts of the Diocese of Virginia; and one, Rev. James E. Poindexter, has resigned his stipend because of his Parish giving him a sufficient support. It may be proper also to state here that St. Anne's Parish, Essex county, became self-supporting last year before the meeting of the Council, and the fact was not noticed in our report, because we had not then received any notification of it ourselves.

The new Missionaries on our list are: Rev. Davis M. Wood, in Charlotte county, in place of Rev. L. R. Mason; Rev. E. Allanson, in Manchester, in place of Rev. T. H. Lacy; Rev. J. H. Chesley, in Hampton and parts adjacent, in place of Rev. C. J. S. Mayo; Rev. John R. Joyner at Stanardsville and Louisa Courthouse; Rev. R. R. Claiborne in Madison; Rev. George Appleton in Stafford; and Rev. J. P. Lawrence in Amherst.

The number receiving aid from us at present, May 1st, 1882, is 26, viz:

Rev. E. Allanson, Manchester.

" George Appleton, Stafford.

" P. F. Berkeley, Amelia.

" Pendleton Brooke, Westmoreland.

" J. H. Chesley, Hampton, &c.

" R. R. Claiborne, Madison.

" Giles B. Cooke, Petersburg.

" Thomas W. Cain, Richmond.

" H. L. Derby, Lancaster.

" E. L. Goodwin, Franklin.

" J. H. Hundley, Essex.

" John R. Joyner, Greene and Louisa.

" Rob. F. Jackson, Richmond.

" W. W. Kimball, Campbell.

" W. C. Latané, Westmoreland.

" J. P. Lawrence, Amherst.

" Thomas E. Locke, Albemarle.

" J. M. Meredith, Prince William.

" J. H. Morrison, Fluvanna.

" J. H. M. Pollard, Petersburg and Lunenburg.

" C. C. Randolph, Botetourt.

" J. Green Shackelford, Brunswick.

" A. B. Tizzard, Chesterfield and Powhatan.

" B. T. Turner, Mecklenburg.

" S. S. Ware, Loudoun.

" Davis M. Wood, Charlotte.

The stipends of these Missionaries range from $85 to $350; the average is $185, and the aggregate $4,805. They are, as we believe, zealous and efficient, preaching at at least seventy-five different points, half of which are Mission points; and though nearly all are in charge of old and weak Parishes, these Parishes, as the Parochial Reports show, exhibit a growth and an effort at self-support equal to the average of our self-supporting churches. The Executive Committee therefore see no reason to change their place of operations, and believe that in no other way can they accomplish as much good as in that which they are now pursuing.

Resolution from Committee of Whole on Diocesan Missions.

We began the year with a balance of $1,680 from the McFarland legacy, and this, with certain small sums other than the contributions of the churches added to these contributions, has enabled us so far to meet our engagements without going in debt.

The contributions of the churches have been greater than for the preceding year, but as we have now no legacy to fall back upon, those contributions must be increased for the ensuing year by nearly $2,000, to enable us to keep our work up to its present standard. But we are anxious to enlarge it. We are anxious to have a Missionary at Goshen and points contiguous to it. There is no Missionary in Caroline and Spotsylvania, where our brother Ward died in harness; none at Ashland and in Hanover, at St. Mary's, Goochland, and other points where there are churches and people. Give us an average of one cent each per Sunday, or fifty-two cents each a year, and as there are at least thirteen thousand communicants, we shall have $6,760, enough for all our present wants.

May the Lord dispose us all to devise liberal things, and to do what we can to advance his kingdom in the world.

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary D. M. S. for the Executive Committee.

Rev. Dr. Hanckel, as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole on Diocesan Missions, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Executive Committee be and are hereby authorized to employ at least one missionary to labor in Southwest Virginia, to be located at such points as the Bishop may advise, after consultation with the Convocation of Southwest Virginia, and that $600 be appropriated for that purpose.

Resolved, That an Annual Meeting of the Executive Committee be held in the month of October of each year, to which one delegate from each Convocation shall be sent.

Mr. John Page moved the following as a substitute for the report:

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to apply $600 from the funds of the Church, not otherwise appropriated, to the support of a missionary in Southwest Virginia.

Pending discussion, the Council took recess for Divine service.

Evangelist at Large Appointed.

12:30 P. M.

The Council re-assembled.

Mr. B. Johnson Barbour offered the following:

Resolved, That the Rev. Philip Slaughter be and is hereby re-appointed Historiographer of the Diocese of Virginia, with the salary heretofore attached to that office, the Council binding itself to pay all legitimate expenses of the office.

Carried.

Mr. J. L. Williams moved that the subject of the Brotherhood be brought up at 5 o'clock, if the business of the Council will allow.

Carried.

The subject of missionary work in Southwestern Virginia was then taken up.

Mr. Page's substitute was lost.

Mr. G. W. Nelson offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Council has heard with interest the statements of our clergy and lay delegates of Southwestern Virginia, and sympathizes with them in their desire to have our Church extended in that part of our Diocese.

Resolved, That this Council appropriate $1,000 from the Contingent Fund, to be used by the Bishop to employ the Rev. Frank Stringfellow as the Evangelist at large of the Diocese of Virginia.

Resolved, That we try to raise in the Diocese not less than $7,000 for Diocesan Missions before the next annual Council.

The resolutions were carried.

The hour for unfinished business having arrived, the Bishop stated in reference to the motion for a conference upon the subject of division that as Bishop of the Diocese he declined at this time to entertain any motion looking toward a division of the Diocese.

Mr. C. M. Blackford presented the report of the Committee on Clerical Support.

Report of Committee on Clerical Support.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

Your Committee herewith submits a tabulated statement of the churches in default in their obligations to their rectors, from which it will be seen that sixteen are in arrear in a total amount of $772.10.

Reports from all the churches have not been furnished whether from shame or negligence it does not appear. Still enough are reported to give a fair view of the condition of the Church in the matters for the consideration of which this committee was raised, for out of 168 churches, the names of which appear in the Journal, 138 are reported, representing about ninety of the 105 clergymen who appear by the Journal to have charge of churches.

A careful analysis of the reports give results which are not without encouragement, especially when it is remembered that the past has been a year of unusual agricultural and commercial distress, and that the first retrenchment incident to such distress is prone to discover itself in the subtraction to the salary of the minister.

It is pleasant to know from these reports that out of ninety clergymen reported, sixty-five now reside in comfortable rectories belonging to their respective churches, and that nine others will soon be so; that to these ninety clergymen, compensation amounting to $68,606 was promised last year, and that the default in such promises amounted to only $772.10, made good to some extent by an over payment in some instances, the aggregate of such over payments amounting to $229.25.

It is a cause of congratulation to know that our people so nearly did what they promised, but it is extremely mortifying to note how fearfully small in many instances is the amount promised as compared with the ability to make it larger, and the exultation incident to the show of promptness disclosed by this report should be much tempered by the reflection that the punctuality of which we boast has its origin rather in the smallness of the undertaking, than in the effort made to accomplish it.

The ninety clergymen receive an average annual compensation of $760, and when it is remembered that twenty of the number receive one-half of the total amount paid, it reduces the average salary of the remaining seventy to $490, with which they are to support themselves, their wives, their horses, and often, to an untoward extent, their friends and the poor of the parish.

What the average compensation is to the fifteen clergymen whose vestries did not report cannot be told, and it is fortunate perhaps that such is the case.

Your committee has gone into these details because it believes the laity do not fully appreciate how little is done in the direction of proper clerical support, and that improvement would follow were the facts generally known. That such men as the clergy of our Church in Virginia, distinguished as they are for learning, piety and devotion, should receive such pitiful compensation as disclosed by this report, is a shame and a reproach to the laity, which your committee believes would soon be removed were it brought home to their consideration.

Surely when these facts are known and considered more effort will be made to give greater material support to the clergy, and to remove the caroding cares and distracting anxieties which embitter the lives and fetter the labors of those who not only administer to us in spiritual affairs, but by their tender sympathy in our troubles and our joys, are endeared as the friends of our hearthstones and the companions of our choice

Some of the reports are not complete because they do not cover a period of twelve months, reporting one, two, or three quarters as the case may be. Uniformity in the fiscal year should be secured if possible, and to that end your committee recommend the adoption of the accompanying resolutions, or such other legislation as may be necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. M. BLACKFORD, Chairman.

Whereas, it is important to the welfare of the Church and of its Ministers that the "Committee on Clerical Support" should be furnished with accurate and complete information in regard to the pecuniary condition of the several churches of the Diocese. Be it

1. Resolved, That the Clergy and Vestry are earnestly solicited to be careful that the information necessary for the report of said committee, and for which blanks are furnished by the Secretary, is regularly furnished before each Annual Council.

2. That the reports made by each Church shall be of the amount paid to clerical support for the year ending on the 31st of March next preceding the meeting of the Council.

3. That the Secretary furnish each Rector and Vestry with a printed copy of these resolutions, and that the blanks supplied the vestries be made to conform to these resolutions.

The report was received, and its resolutions unanimously adopted.

Mr. T. R. B. Wright called up the subject of the proposed amendment to Canon IX, and asked leave to withdraw that amendment. Leave was granted and the amendment was withdrawn.

Rev. Dr. Armstrong presented a report from the officers of the Protestant Episcopal Church Home, which was ordered to be printed in the Journal.

 Protestant Episcopal Church Home—Report of Committee on Parochial Reports.

RICHMOND, May 8th, 1882.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia :

The Board of Managers of the Protestant Episcopal Church Home of the Diocese of Virginia have the honor to make the following report :

In consequence of the resolutions passed by the Council last May recommending the Home to all the parishes as an institution worthy of their support, and requesting their clergymen to solicit annual offerings for its benefit, we have received, exclusive of our Richmond contributions, three hundred and eighty-six dollars and thirty-five cents ($386.35), besides several valuable boxes.

Previous to your action we had received but one hundred and eighty dollars ($180) during six years.

The article in our constitution providing for an entrance fee, has been changed recently, and is now fixed at two hundred dollars ($200) from every inmate, from whatever part of the Diocese she may come.

Rev. T. G. Dashiell offered the following:

Resolved, That we hereby express our pleasure at the appearance in our Council of the Rev. Robert Nelson, D. D., so long the representative of our Church in the Mission field in China, and his brethren of the clergy and laity bid him a cordial welcome upon his return to Virginia.

Carried unanimously.

Rev. Dr. Peterkin presented the report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

We begin this report with the expression of our gratitude to God for the many blessings conferred upon us as a Diocese and as individuals.

From the Bishop's Address, we learn that he has administered the rite of confirmation to larger numbers than usual.

The additions to the communion also have been large, and we regard it as a favorable sign that, as in time past, those who are confirmed come forward, perhaps without exception, to the Lord's Supper.

Then, too, the contributions have been large. When we remember how disastrous the drought of last year was, throughout nearly the whole of our territory, we think it remarkable that our people have been moved to devote so much of their means to the advancement of the Church of Christ. The amounts contributed to Diocesan Missions, to the Education Society, to the Society for the relief of Disabled Clergymen, and to the Society for the benefit of the Widows and Orphans of deceased clergymen have been considerable, and show that these institutions are growing in favor and increasing in usefulness every year. The "Brotherhood," too, after a season of depression, is in an improving condition, and we trust will be able to subserve, more fully, the important object for which it was designed.

Our Theological Seminary is in a healthy condition, and by the blessing of God, is still, as in former years, largely instrumental in promoting the welfare of the Diocese.

The most encouraging signs of spiritual life which we notice, at present, are the liberal contributions of the people, as mentioned above, and the increased interest shown in the promotion of the religious welfare of our colored population. And yet we never shall, in any adequate degree, come up to the full measure of our duty, unless we "know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for our sakes He became poor, that we, through His poverty, might be rich."

However we may be encouraged, we cannot make this report altogether one of congratulation.

We have need to humble ourselves before God, on account of the prevalence of a worldly spirit among many of our church members, and their devotion to objects and pursuits inconsistent with a Christian profession. The sermon preached at the opening of the Council discusses this subject so fully, that we need not enlarge on it in this report. We cannot, however, refrain from saying that Christian people need reproof, quite as often for their extravagance in furniture and dress, and fancy personal decorations, as for their attachment to other vanities of this transitory life. The men waste thousands on mere luxuries, and the women equal sums in jewels and costly apparel.

Woman, who was "last at the Cross, and first at the Sepulchre," ought to know that her chief attraction is the "ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which in the sight of God is of great price"; and to remember that her influence for good is never fully exerted, except when she evidently rises above the mere vanities of the world.

The dangers to which men are at this time more particularly exposed arise from the temptations to intemperance and the hastening to grow rich. We speak not now of the ungodly, who may be earthly, sensual and devilish, without bringing any reproach upon the Church. We speak of Christian men, who are set in the midst of many and great dangers, and by reason of the frailty of their nature "cannot always stand upright."

What are called the "drinking usages of society" are more honored in the breach than in the observance; and while we would not dictate to any of our people, we have a right to remind them that temperance is one of the cardinal virtues which even the wiser sort of heathen have thought essential to an honorable life.

The other temptation mentioned, viz: the haste to be rich, leads to incalculable evil, and destroys more fortunes than it builds up. It converts the most important business transactions into mere games of chance, where no commodities are bought or sold, but only a system of betting adopted as to the value of such commodities at some future day.

All such operations are not only hazardous but injurious to the character of the individual and to the best interests of society, and we trust that our people will avoid them.

This greed for gain is closely connected with one of the greatest evils which threaten us at this time—the desecration of the Lord's Day. The observance of this day is not a mere ceremonial arrangement. It is directly an observance of moral obligation. One day in itself considered may be no more sacred than any other, but the observance of one day out of seven is required by the moral law, and is evidently necessary to sustain the authority of that law.

The clothes we wear have actually no warmth in themselves, but they keep out the cold of winter, and keep in the heat of the body, so that we would perish without them.

Now all experience shows that if we do not keep the Lord's Day holy, we can have no security for the maintenance of the authority of the moral law. We would therefore press upon our people the duty of abstaining from travel and from all secular occupations on this sacred day, believing that thus only can they promote the interests of true religion and the prosperity of the Church.

In thinking of the future extension of our Church, it occurs to us to remind our vestries that (except in towns where there are several churches) they are the vestries of Parishes and not simply of congregations. It follows that their responsibilities are coterminous with their Parish limits. If, therefore, their Rectors can make appointments, and find preaching places anywhere within their bounds, the vestries should be glad to facilitate such labors, even though their ministers' efforts be occasionally withdrawn from their regular congregations. The seed of Divine truth will thus be more widely sown, and the harvest be correspondingly more abundant.

Respectfully submitted,

J. PETERKIN, Chairman.

The report was received, and ordered to be printed along with the sermon at the opening of the Council.

The Council re-assembled, and was called to order by the Bishop.

Mr. J. R. Anderson, from the Committee on the Brotherhood, presented the following :

The Committee on the Brotherhood would report that they have examined the accounts and papers submitted to them. The report of the General Agent proves that accessions have been made to the number of members during the year, and the Committee would urge the clergy and laity to give him their coöperation. We ask the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Council the Brotherhood of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in this Diocese, has shown itself to be a highly meritorious institution, and its claims to the support of the laity are hereby reaffirmed.

Rev. Dr. Davis presented the report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School :

The Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report to the Council as follows :

The Theological Seminary and High School enjoys a degree of material prosperity, evidenced by the Treasurer's report, which shows an increase in its vested funds to the amount of $16,000, and an increase of annual interest to the amount of about $1,000. And we recognize gratefully the Divine blessing which has rested on both institutions. The students of the Seminary, numbering forty in all, have, in health and peaceful comfort, pursued the regular course of study, having the benefit of the reverend Professors' instructions and pious training for the ministerial work, whilst into the High School a larger number of pupils than ever have been gathered, and by their diligence and general good behavior have given satisfaction to the principal of the school and his efficient and accomplished instructors. The reports of the Professors are herewith appended, and also Professor Spencer's report of his instruction of the colored students in Petersburg.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF BIBLICAL LEARNING.

I would respectfully report to the Trustees that the Senior Class under my instruction has read the Book of Josiah, and selected chapters in Isaiah in the original; and has studied critically in the Greek language the Epistle to the Galatians, and the two Epistles to the Corinthians.

The Middle Class has read the Prophecies of Christ and a number of the Psalms in the Hebrew language, and the Epistles to the Romans and to the Hebrews in the Greek language.

The Junior Class has been drilled in the Hebrew Grammar by written exercises, and has read about the usual amount of text. They have finished the Gospel of John in the Greek, and have written essays on the most important and difficult subjects in the Gospels.

A monthly report has been made to me by the teachers of the Preparatory Department, from which I learn that their students have been diligent and successful in their studies.

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

I would respectfully report, that the classes during the current year have pursued the usual course of study, varied, in certain respects, as to manner in this or in previous sessions, to meet demands of prevalent thought and the necessities of succeeding classes.

The Senior Class reciting three times a week, with the Wednesday evening exercise, have, with the usual text-books and references, studied the Thirty-nine Articles. They have also in Natural Theology studied Hopkins's "Outline Man," and in Homiletics Dr. Broadus's book, with exercises and criticisms upon composition and delivery of sermons. My usual course of lectures on Liturgies, with accompanying questions, is now going on.

The Middle Class, reciting daily for most of the session, have studied Knapp's Theology with written essays upon subjects of study. Since the first of April a part of each week has been given by this class to the critical examination of the Revised New Testament.

The Junior Class, reciting once a week, have studied Chadbourne's Natural Theology, and are now prepared for examination.

I am glad to report very commendable diligence and regularity in my classes. Absences, when taking place, have been through sickness or for excusable causes.

Very respectfully,

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF APOLOGETICS AND CHURCH POLITY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Apologetics and Church Polity respectfully report, that during the current session the several classes under his instruction have pursued the course of study assigned to them respectively with commendable diligence. Their attendance in the class-room has been regular and punctual, no unexcused absences being on record against any one of them.

The course of instruction being the same as that reported last year, any further specification is rendered unnecessary.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY.

*To the Board of Trustees
of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Church History, Canon Law and Pastoral Theology presents the following report for the current session:

The Senior Class has studied, with four recitations a week, the History of the Church of England and of the American Church, in text-books, supplemented by written lectures, Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity, Book I, the Constitution and Canons of the Church, the Pastoral Epistles in Greek, and Meade on the Pastoral Office.

The Middle Class, with three weekly recitations and regular essays, has studied Kurtz's Church History, illustrated by an extensive course of parallel reading.

The Junior Class, with four weekly recitations and three essays a week, has studied Dr. Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, and read the Acts of the Apostles in Greek.

Theological Seminary.

From constant inspection of the preparatory department, he would also state that though the number of its students has been diminished from causes which need not now be mentioned, yet most satisfactory progress continues to be made under well trained and efficient teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF INSTRUCTOR OF THEOLOGY IN BRANCH SCHOOL, PETERSBURG.

*To the Board of Trustees,
of the Theological Seminary:*

As instructor of the colored theological students in Petersburg, I beg leave to present the following report :

From the 1st of October, to the 10th of March, Mr. James S. Russell was under my instruction in Systematic Divinity, Greek Testament, Church Polity, and the Prayer Book, with daily recitations. Having passed his examinations, he was ordained Deacon, and removed to Lawrenceville.

From the 1st of October to the present time, the Rev. J. H. M. Pollard has recited to me twice a week on the Greek Testament and Systematic Divinity, Boulton on the Articles being used as a text-book.

From the middle of January to the present time, the five new students from the Zion Union connection—Messrs. Taylor, Harrison, Washington, Carroll, and Brown—have been instructed in the Prayer Book, Shinn's Manual being used as a text-book. This instruction has been necessarily of a most elementary character, as the minds of the students permitted of no other.

The deportment and religious character of all the students has been, so far as I can judge, most exemplary ; the progress of the latter five in their studies has been slow and discouraging. Their instructor will require patience in his work, but he is hopeful of its good result.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS SPENCER.

ninety-four. It has not been so large since the war, and might have been larger had there been room. The school has for the first time been quite full throughout the session. * * * The health of the school has never in my time been so good. We have enjoyed entire exemption from epidemics, and have had but a single case of serious sickness. * * * All the religious privileges and observances of the school have remained as before, including attendance Sunday morning at the Seminary chapel. The Rev. Drs. Walker and Nelson have occasionally on Sunday nights preached for us in the school chapel, where they find always attentive hearers. Besides this, Dr. Nelson has held (with better attendance than ever before) the weekly service here in Lent which he has always given us; and has inaugurated monthly meetings with our student communicants. The Friday night services have been kept up with interest and profit by Mr. B. M. Randolph, of the Senior Class of the Seminary, aided by Mr. W. L. Gravatt, of the Junior Class. To both these gentlemen and to the clergymen mentioned above, my warmest thanks are due. * * * An affectionate observance of the holy days and seasons of the church continues to be an essential feature of our system. The number of communicants among the boys is twenty-four.

Report of Committee on Finance.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Committee on Finance:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and find them correct and sustained by proper vouchers. The Treasurer on the 17th of February, 1882, paid sixty-five dollars on account of the traveling expenses of the Evangelist, out of the unexpended appropriation for the preceding year. This was done with the approval of the Bishop, and your committee recommend that the same be sanctioned.

The committee recommend, that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the salaries of the Bishop, Secretary, Evangelists, Chaplains, Historiographer, and their expenses, and the further sums of thirty dollars to the Assistant Secretary and fifteen dollars to the sexton of Christ Church, Norfolk.

The report of the Treasurer shows that there was on the 1st day of May, a balance to his credit of $2,389.47 in the State Bank of Virginia, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent.

Your committee recommend that, for the present, said balance remain at interest in bank.

Your committee further recommend, that no part of the contingent fund be, at this time, transferred to the Committee on "the Episcopal Fund"; and therefore that the first recommendation of the report of the Committee on the Episcopal Fund, which has been referred to the committee, be not adopted.

Your committee further recommend, that John L. Bacon, John L. Williams, and Thomas Potts be, and they are hereby, appointed a committee to prepare and report to the Council, at its next session a well digested plan for the accumulation and proper investment of an Episcopal Endowment Fund, to consist of the securities in which the Episcopal Fund to the amount of $5,862 is now invested (if such securities be approved by them), and, of any surplus of the Contingent Fund which may from year to year be transferred to such Endowment Fund: and that as soon as practicable, they procure the incorporation of a company for the purpose of managing and preserving said Fund—said company to consist of members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, with power to fill vacancies in the Board of Trustees, upon nominations by this Council, as is the case in respect to Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute.

Respectfully submitted,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY,
Chairman.

The report was received and its recommendations were adopted.

Mr. H. W. Sheffey presented the report of the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute:

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

The Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute respectfully report to the Council that they have received from the Board of Directors and from Mrs. Stuart, the Principal of the Institute, their annual reports, from which the trustees derive the gratifying information that the number of pupils is steadily increasing, the increase during the present session, as compared with the last, being fifty per cent.; and what is very gratifying to the trustees, that there has been a marked improvement in the patronage of this Diocesan school by churchmen in Virginia.

The trustees take pleasure in copying from the report of the Board of Directors the following extract, which they believe contains just views of the present condition of the Institute. The Board state "that the admirable and competent corps of teachers under the direction of Mrs. Stuart as the Principal, the judicious training of the pupils, the high standard of scholarship, the discipline of the Institution, tempered as it is by loving care and maternal affection, the sanitary regulations, and the daily enjoyment by the pupils of calisthenics and other exercises, resulting in wonderful exemption from sickness, the freedom and security of the girls from outside and disturbing influences, the uniform restraint upon extravagance in dress and other expenditures, the deportment of the pupils, unexceptionable at all times, and signally marked by refinement and lady-like propriety, and, above all, the tone of Christian influence and principle which pervades every department, together entitle the Virginia Female Institute and its administration under Mrs. Stuart to the unreserved confidence and the active and earnest support of the clergy and laity of the Diocese, and it is sincerely hoped that it will hereafter receive the abundant patronage which it so justly deserves." Seven of the pupils were confirmed by the Bishop at his last visitation, and seventeen earnest communicants of the Church, mingling with the other pupils, coöperate with their teachers in maintaining in the Institute the high standard of scholarship, duty and Christian character for which it is distinguished, and so when they go forth into active life will these young Christians become centres of holy influences and helpers in building up our Church wherever their homes may be. Well, therefore, may we cherish this school as a nursery of the Church.

The trustees beg to remind the clergy of the Diocese that whilst the customary charges at the Institute are as moderate as those of any other institution of like educational advantages in the State, clergymen's daughters are now received at reduced rates; and that just in proportion as the patronage of the school shall increase will these rates be reduced more and more, until, as the trustees hope, the burden of the education of clergymen's daughters in Virginia will become light and inappreciable. On the grounds, then, of intrinsic merit in the school itself, and of the prospective advantages and blessings destined to flow from its property, the trustees commend it to the interest and favor of all laymen and clergymen in the Diocese.

The trustees request the Council to adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Council of the Diocese of Virginia have received with gratification the report of the trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, in which they inform the Council of the increase in numbers and usefulness of this Institution under the admirable management of Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, its Principal, and commend it not only as an educational institution unsurpassed by any, but as the nursery of the Church in this Diocese, which it is the duty and interest of all to sustain. The Council do therefore most earnestly commend this, the Diocesan Female School of Virginia, to the confidence and liberal patronage of the clergy and laity of the Diocese.

By order of the trustees,

HUGH W. SHEFFEY, Secretary.

Rev. Dr. Weddell, from the Committee on that part of the Bishop's Address relating to work among the colored people of this Diocese, presented the Report, which was received and approved.

REPORT ON DIOCESAN COLORED WORK.

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Report as relates to colored work of the Diocese of Virginia, would most cordially respond to the very earnest sentiments contained therein. The evangelization of these seven hundred thousand colored people, which a mysterious Providence has planted within our Diocesan borders, is a matter of supreme importance. That this importance is being realized by our clergy and people, can no longer be questioned. The work, albeit in its day of small things, is growing; and this growth will no doubt receive a marked impetus from the stirring words which, during the present Council, have fallen from the lips of our Virginia-born and Virginia-trained colored clergy.

An examination of the parochial and other reports, in possession of the Secretary, furnishes some interesting statistics:

We have three colored church-buildings. We have on our list three colored clergymen. We have four clergymen who are giving their entire time to the colored work; while a large number of the clergy, in charge of white congregations, are providing regular services for this race. Sunday Schools, numbering 1,500 scholars, are in successful operation in the various Parishes. During the past year the Bishop has confirmed eighty-two candidates; our clergy have baptized six adults and fifty infants, married seventy-eight couples, and officiated at twenty-nine funerals. The number of communicants, as reported, is 212. Nearly $2,000 has been raised within the Diocese for the support of this work.

In addition to these facts we are glad to report sundry parochial day schools, to-wit: St. Stephen's Normal, at Petersburg; St. Phillip's, at Richmond; the school at Gordonsville, under Mrs. Brent; at Lexington, under Miss Pendleton; in Powhatan, under Miss Wesson; in Halifax, under Mrs. Miles; in Charlotte, under Mrs. Burgwyn, and in Lunenburg, under Mrs. Jennings.

In several of the parishes sewing schools are reported as doing a helpful work.

At Petersburg, in connection with St. Stephen's Church, a theological department was established some few years since by the authorities of the Virginia Seminary, and placed in charge of the Rev. Prof. Thomas Spencer. The establishment of this "school of the prophets" solves the problem of an educated colored ministry. One hundred dollars will suffice to meet all necessary expenses of a student. Six students have pursued their studies in this institution during the past year. One has been ordained—five remain. For the support of these five, as well as the support of others who are expected to enter the next session, there is none other reliance but the voluntary offerings of the people. We earnestly commend this cause to the special attention of our parochial clergy.

In conclusion—while frankly confessing that the Diocese of Virginia has not measured up to the full standard of its duty, we rejoice to find in the facts as herein given, assurance that this important department is by no means ignored nor neglected.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin moved the following :

Resolved, That a copy of the Report just offered be forwarded severally to the Spirit of Missions, the Southern Churchman, and the New York Churchman.

REMARKS.—The Rector desires to speak particularly of the work at the Chapel of the Epiphany in charge of the Rev. Edw. S. Gregory. Of the confirmations reported above, five were in the Epiphany; of baptisms three; of funerals two. There are now thirty communicants in connection with this growing mission. A Sunday School, numbering nearly one hundred children, is one of the features which gives special promise of a successful future. The general outlook was never so encouraging as now.

REMARKS.—Through the abounding liberality of Mr. John T. Farish, of New York, and other kind friends, a brick church has been built at Mitchell's Station in our Parish, which is now ready for consecration. The church is called Calvary, and is meant to take the place of the church of that name, built by Rev. Dr. P. Slaughter before the war on his own farm, and destroyed by the Federal army in the late war. Dr. Slaughter has greatly aided in this good work by interesting his many friends in the enterprise, thus securing most substantial assistance, and at his own expense he is now enclosing the church with a beautiful and durable fence.

REMARKS.—Mrs. Brent, assisted by her two young daughters, still works successfully among the colored people. She reports in Sunday and sewing schools in Gordonsville, and in night-school in the country, 210 pupils under religious instruction. Two men, of her pupils in town, have lately been confirmed, and she now reports a number of others as desiring to unite with us. We sorely need a church for these people.

I hold services one Sunday in each month in the courthouse at Stanardsville, where we have three communicants—two in the village and one in the country. The congregations average about 25.

REMARKS.—Attention is asked to the colored school in this Parish. It has been in operation for more than two years, under the charge of a lady teacher, who is singularly skilled for, and successful in, the work. And it will, D. V., be continued by her, and perhaps extended if we can succeed, as we are trying to do and are encouraged to hope, in raising means requisite to purchase the school-house. With our colored population as it is, right Christian training among them in this way is, as all must see, of importance incalculable.

J. J. NORWOOD.

LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., May 10th, 1882.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Bishop,—I take pleasure in reporting the work that I have charge of in St. Andrew's Parish. You will remember I came here the 16th of March. At first I had charge only of the colored congregation at St. Andrew's Church, now I have the care of three congregations; I preach twice per month at each station. I have enrolled thirty-one members at Mercy Seat, a Zion Union church about thirteen miles from the village. I preach at the Chapel of Good Shepherds on the same day I preach to my village congregation.

I have a large Sunday School at Mercy Seat, and through the kindness of the Diocesan Mission Society, it has been recently supplied with books. I have no church there, but preach in a school-house. The people are earnest and always attend largely on my appointments. I am much encouraged with my work.

Miscellaneous.

We hope soon to have a sufficient amount of money to build both congregations a church.

I am, sincerely yours in Christ,

JAMES S. RUSSELL.

WINCHESTER, VA., May 15, 1882.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:—I would respectfully report that during the past year, I have been engaged in the performance of duty, as Principal of Episcopal Female Institute.

I have also assisted the Rector of Christ Church in the public services.

Yours fraternally,

J. C. WHEAT.

MEXICO CITY, MEX., May 1, 1882.

The Rt. Rev. Francis M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D.:

My Dear Bishop:—I avail myself of a few moments' leisure to write to you to submit my third report of my work done in your diocese during the past year.

Since the date of my last, I have conducted joint services for the benefit of my deaf-mute brethren in Richmond, Manchester, Petersburg, Fredericksburg, Alexandria, Culpeper, Wytheville, Lynchburg, Concord, Danville, Salem, Roanoke county, Virginia, besides officiating in twenty seven States and the District of Columbia. I have visited twenty-one deaf and dumb institutions. I need not say that I have slept on the trains about two-thirds of the time. I thank our Heavenly Father for guiding and watching over me in all my labors for our best Master on high and the extension of his kingdom on the earth, especially among my deaf-mute brethren.

I did not come to this tropical country of myself. It was conscience that kept telling me several months to visit Mexico in order to enquire into the condition of these, the Mexican mutes, and see what was being done for their benefit, and I could not resist its force. I feel easier and happier, for I have obeyed it. I am able to say that God has blessed my object with success. I have met quite a number of deaf-mutes in this city, and spoken to them about our Saviour.

 Miscellaneous.

There are only two deaf-mute institutions in the Republic of Mexico, one in this city, and the other at Zecatecas. Both the schools are supported by the government. Before I set foot on this ancient soil, we, the teachers of the deaf-mutes in the United States, had never heard anything about them. I am told that there are many, many ignorant mutes in the Northern and Western parts of this Republic. Let us drop the subject for the present.

Bishop Riley is doing a grand work in his Mexican diocese and is the right man in the right place. I need not say anything of his work, as I believe you have already heard of it in full. I expect to reach New Orleans about the 15th inst., and must work in some of the Western States for some time, on which account, it will be impossible for me to attend your Council at Norfolk.

Ever yours, sincerely,

JOB TURNER.

MONTAGUES, Va., April 21st, 1882.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Brother,—Since July last my work has been strictly missionary at St. Luke's, near the village of Montagues, in the lower portion of South Farnham Parish, and at Pace's Methodist Chapel, in what used to be known as Stratton-Major Parish, King and Queen county. At the former of these points a church building with an acre of ground has been purchased, and title secured to the Protestant Episcopal Church of this Diocese.

A handsome communion service has been presented the church by two clerical brethren.

The attendance at both points has steadily increased from the beginning. I herewith submit the following statement:

St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Mission church for purchase, bly paid,	-	-	-	-	-	$120 00

I've met every appointment save two; preached ten times for my brethren in the ministry; conducted the burial service twice, and married one couple.

Truly yours,

J. HERVEY HUNDLEY, Missionary.

SAN MARINO, May 17th, 1882.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.

Rev. and Dr. Bishop,—I continue to preach one Sunday in every month at Saponny church, Dinwiddie, and one Sunday at the Grange Hall, Dinwiddie, Trinity and St. Andrew's churches, (St. Andrew's Parish, Brunswick), being now united under the care of Rev. Mr. Shackelford, and Rev. Mr. Russell having, as his assistant, taken charge of the colored congregation to which I preached. I am, for the present, aiding them in their work among the colored people, and have consented to give one Sunday in each month to St. John's church, Lunenburg county, as they are now without a pastor. Hope that they will secure a pastor during the summer, and thus allow me to give two Sundays in the month to Saponny.

Most respectfully submitted,

E. B. JONES, Deacon.

ABINGDON, VA., May 9th, 1882.

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.:

Since the last Council I have officiated as follows:

First and second Sundays each month, morning and evening, at Goodson.

Second Sunday each month, morning, Seven Mile Ford.

Second Sunday each month, evening, Marion.

Fifth Sunday, morning and evening, Elk Garden, Russell county.

Miscellaneous.

I have visited all of these points from time to time during the week, also. Tazewell Courthouse, Blacksburg, Central Depot, New River, Glade Spring, and since Rev. Mr. Lawrence left Pulaski, I have done what I could for the church there.

In Russell and Tazewell counties—confirmations 4, admitted to communion 1, total 5; number white communicants at present 13, removed during the year, 5. Baptisms: white infants 11, white adults 2, total 13. Marriages: white 2. Funerals: white 2. Contributions $51; paid to Diocesan Missionary Society $20, school in Abingdon $25, books and tracts for Diocesan 6; total $51.

To the best of my judgment there is every reason for me to be encouraged by the results God has given in the past and the outlook for the future.

Very respectfully,

JOHN J. LLOYD,
Evangelist in S. W. Va.

WINCHESTER, May, 1882.

To the Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Virginia:

I hereby send this my report for the year 1882. My health has been fully restored, and I am ready for duty—hope to be able to do something this year for my Master. Only two marriages, one baptism, and three burials in the last year. Church services and preached the gospel of the kingdom of our blessed Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, always. Mostly in the social circle and by the wayside, in the valleys and on the mountain, and occasionally in the churches.

My post office is Winchester, Frederick county, Va.

JOHN B. T. REED,
Evangelist of Frederick county, Va., Protestant Episcopal Church, and Missionary of the Valley Convocation.

The services at Lebanon are conducted in a Methodist chapel, in the midst of a Methodist community. For this reason we have there no Sunday School or other Church work. Besides the above Mission Stations, some of the students hold a regular weekly service for the servants employed about the Seminary. Mr. R. W. Anderson, aided by other students, continued a regular service and Sunday School near Arlington for the colored people, until forced to discontinue by the prevalence of the small-pox in that neighborhood.

KINLOCH NELSON.

Respectfully,

 Delinquents.
